Whenever possible Council will utilise Council employees before contractors or labour hire.

2.2 Conversion of Long Term Temporary Employees

Bundaberg Regional Council is committed to maximising employment opportunities for long term temporary employees. A long term temporary employee shall, at the completion of 24 months' continuous service, have a right to elect to have their employment converted to full-time or part-time employment if it could be reasonably expected that their employment is to continue.

2.3 Consultation - Introduction of changes

2.3.1 Duty to notify

- (a) Before Council makes the final decision to introduce changes in production, program, organisation, structure or technology that are likely to have significant effects on employees, Council shall notify the employees who may be affected by the proposed changes and, where relevant, their union/s.
- (b) 'Significant effects' includes termination of employment; major changes in the composition, operation or size of the employer's workforce or in the skills required; the elimination or diminution of job opportunities or job tenure; the alteration of hours of work; the need for retraining or transfer of employees to other work or locations and the restructuring of jobs.
- (c) Where the Award makes provision for alteration of any of the matters referred to in Clauses 2.3.1(a) and (b) an alteration shall be deemed not to have significant effect.

2.3.2 Duty to consult over change

- (a) Before Council makes the final decision, Council shall consult the employees affected and, where relevant, their union/s about the introduction of the changes, the effects the changes are likely to have on employees (including the number and categories of employees likely to be dismissed, and the time when, or the period over which, the employer intends to carry out the dismissals) and ways to avoid or minimise the effects of the changes (e.g. by finding alternate employment).
- (b) The consultation must occur as soon as practicable before making the final decision referred to in Clause 2.3.1.
- (c) For the purpose of such consultation Council shall provide in writing to the employees concerned and, where relevant, their union/s, all relevant information about the changes including the nature of the changes proposed, the expected effects of the changes on employees, and any other matters likely to affect employees.
- (d) Notwithstanding the provision of Clause 2.3.2(c) Council shall not be required to disclose confidential information, the disclosure of which would be adverse to Council's interests.

2.4 Redundancy and Redeployment

2.4.1 Should a position or positions be determined as redundant following the required consultation processes, the following steps will be followed:-

Step 1: Redeployment and Retraining - where positions are identified as redundant all efforts will be made to maintain the employment of affected employees. This will be achieved through redeployment and retraining in accordance with the Redeployment provisions in clause 2.4.8.

Step 2: Council shall provide Employees with a 2 week period to consider redeployment opportunities. During this period, Employees will be able to access appropriate support or new Employment Opportunities (e.g. Employee's Assistance Programme/ Job Interviews/Financial or other advice) without loss of pay to a maximum of 2 days (or such further period as may be approved by the Chief Executive Officer or Delegated Officer).

Step 3: Redundancy - where redeployment or retraining is not practical redundancy will be offered to directly affected employees in the first instance. Expressions of Interest for redundancy will be called for from employees within the affected roles. Any employee receiving a redundancy under this step will be entitled to an additional 13 weeks payment in recognition of acceptance of an involuntary redundancy.

Step 4: Job swap and Voluntary Redundancy - if sufficient Expressions of Interest are not received and accepted through step 3, Council will seek Expressions of Interest for job swap and voluntary redundancy across all roles with similar skills or qualifications within Council.

- 2.4.2 Where an employee submits an application through the Expression of Interest process in this step a voluntary redundancy will be offered by Council once it has been assessed that the staff member in the redundant role has the necessary skills and qualifications to be redeployed, with reasonable re-training if required, into the role to be vacated by the staff member who has submitted the Expression of Interest application. Decisions on acceptance of any Expression of Interest submissions will have regard to Council's operational requirements to maintain an appropriate mix of skills and competencies.
- 2.4.3 Council will endeavour to offer employees whose position/s have been identified as redundant alternative employment in other work areas of Council (redeployment).
- 2.4.4 As a result of restructuring and/or process or procedure changes, Employees can be redeployed to another suitable position, at the same level or one classification higher, with similar terms and conditions and location within Council, subject to the terms of this Agreement.
- 2.4.5 Council will, in the first instance, provide the affected employee/s with a list of all existing vacant roles across Council so that affected employees may identify roles which may be suitable for redeployment with reasonable re-training if required.
- 2.4.6 Redeployed Employees must participate actively in the deployment process by making themselves available to be considered for vacancies, accepting reasonable redeployment and re-training opportunities.
- 2.4.7 Council will ensure that appropriate and reasonable training and assistance is provided to Employees redeploying to new positions so as to support the transition to the new job and maximise job effectiveness and job satisfaction. Training costs, if any, associated with this redeployment will be the responsibility of Council.
- 2.4.8 If an employee whose position has been identified as redundant is offered an alternative position with Council and accepts it:-
- (a) The employee will be entitled to a 3 month trial period. This will provide both the employee and Council with the opportunity to assess the employee's suitability for the new position. Should the new position not reasonably suit the skills, knowledge or experience of the employee, the employee shall be entitled to the original redundancy package;
 - (b) Where an Employee is deployed to a position which is one classification lower than their current classification, this must occur by written agreement. Income maintenance shall occur for that Employee for a period of 6 months from the date of the appointment.

- (c) After 6 months, the redeployed Employee will revert to the highest pay point of the new classification level of the redeployed position. This period can be extended by the Chief Executive Officer or Delegated Officer.
- (e) During the 6 months income maintenance period, the redeployed Employee will be considered for appointment to any position that arises with a salary/wage level equivalent to that of their former salary/wage level. If the Employee is deemed to be suitable by Council for the position, the redeployed Employee may be appointed to the position.
- (f) Where an Employee accepts redeployment to a lower level position, and at the end of 3 months working in the new job, is dissatisfied with the redeployed position, the redeployed Employee can make a request to the Chief Executive Officer or Delegated Officer to be reconsidered for employment options such as redeployment to another suitable alternative position, and Council will make available re-training or re-skilling if required.
- (g) During the period of redeployment, Employees will be able to access appropriate support or new Employment Opportunities (e.g. Employee's Assistance Programme / Job Interviews / Financial or other advice) without loss of pay to a maximum of 2 days (or such further period as may be approved by the Chief Executive Officer or Delegated Officer);
- (h) If after all these options outlined in Clause 2.4.8 have been exhausted, the Employee can request a Voluntary Redundancy.

2.5 Voluntary Redundancies

- 2.5.1 Employees shall not be obliged to submit an Expression of Interest through the Voluntary Redundancy process.
- 2.5.2 Submission of an Expression of Interest does not oblige the employee to subsequently accept the offer of a Voluntary Redundancy, nor does it remove any existing entitlement to the additional 13 weeks payment available under Clause 2.10 (b).
- 2.5.3 All details and calculations of the redundancy package will be made available to an employee before they are required to make any decision about accepting a Voluntary Redundancy.
- 2.5.4 Where Expressions of Interest are called across similarly classified roles, Council shall make all reasonable efforts to redeploy a person whose position is identified as redundant, by allowing that person to swap with another employee who wishes to accept redundancy.

2.6 Statement of Employment on Termination

Council shall, in the event of termination of employment, provide upon request to the Employee whom has been terminated a written statement specifying the period of employment and the classification or type of work performed by the Employee.

- (d) In calculating any payment in lieu of notice, the minimum compensation payable to an Employee will be at least the total of the amounts the Council would have been liable to pay the Employee if the Employee's employment had continued until the end of the required notice period. The total must be worked out on the basis of:–
 - i. the ordinary working hours to be worked by the Employee; and
 - ii. the amounts payable to the Employee for the hours including for example allowances, loadings and penalties; and
 - iii. any other amounts payable under the Employee's employment contract;
- (e) The period of notice in this clause shall not apply in the case of dismissal for misconduct or other grounds that justify instant dismissal, or in the case of a Casual Employee, or an Employee engaged by the day, or a Temporary Employee (engaged for a specific period or task);
- (f) During the period of notice an Employee will be allowed 2 days' time off for the purpose of seeking advice, appropriate support or new Employment Opportunities (e.g. Employee's Assistance Programme / Job Interviews / Financial or other advice) without loss of pay (or such further period as may be approved by the Chief Executive Officer or Delegated Officer). - (ii) 'transmission' – includes transfer, conveyance, assignment or succession whether by agreement or by operation of law and 'transmitted' has a corresponding meaning.

2.10 Severance Pay

(a) Voluntary

The Severance clause in the relevant Awards will be followed except for the payment of a redundancy.

The payment of a redundancy will be 2 weeks' pay per year of service, or part thereof, of recognised continuous service in Local Government, paid at the Employee's current level.

The minimum payment is 4 weeks and the maximum is 52 weeks, provided that no Employee shall receive less than the severance benefit under the Termination, Change and Redundancy Statement of Policy issued by Queensland Industrial Relations Commission;

(b) Involuntary

When a position has been identified as redundant in accordance with Clause 2.4 and redeployment has not been accepted by the affected Employee, an additional 13 weeks payment will be made in recognition of involuntary redundancy.
