

QUEENSLAND

Form 69 – Warrant of commitment where punishment is by imprisonment

Industrial Relations Act 2016, section 558(2)

Industrial Relations (Tribunals) Rules 2011, rule 146

Version 3

To all Police Officers in the State of Queensland and to the General Manager of a Prison or Correctional Centre

Court
Place
Offender
Date of Birth
Address

On the (insert date)
in the Industrial Magistrates Court at (place)
The abovementioned offender was convicted for the offence of
The court ordered that the offender be sentenced to imprisonment for a period of The offender was released on (insert date) by Industrial Magistrate (insert name of Industrial Magistrate) under rule 146 of the Industrial Relations (Tribunals) Rules 2011 for the appeal.
On (insert date)	The appeal was
<input type="checkbox"/> decided	<input type="checkbox"/> discontinued	<input type="checkbox"/> struck out	<input type="checkbox"/> Other (please specify below)
The offender is required to serve
<input type="checkbox"/> the balance of the term of the imprisonment	<input type="checkbox"/> a period of imprisonment of (insert length of time)

You are required to apprehend the offender and convey him to a Prison of Correctional Centre.

I further command you the General Manager of the prison or centre to receive the offender into custody in such prison, and there to imprison and keep the offender for the term of

--

Given under my hand

Signature	Industrial Magistrate
Place
Date	