3.5.1 Voluntary Redundancies

- b) In doing this, Council shall look for an expression of interest from relevant personnel within the affected group of employees in accepting a voluntary redundancy;
- c) Provided that on business grounds Council shall maintain the right to refuse to provide a voluntary redundancy to an employee within the relevant classifications who has expressed their interest in accepting a redundancy.

3.5.2 Redeployment

Step 1. The effect of the redeployment process is that an employee whose position has been made redundant may have the opportunity to maintain their employment with Council.

Where redeployment becomes available, as and where required the redeployed employee shall receive the necessary training in the new role. Where an employee volunteers to accept a redundancy and Council agrees to such voluntary redundancy, the employee shall receive the same entitlements as that stated in clause 3.5.3 (a) and (b) of this Agreement.

Step 2. Should there be insufficient employees from within a certain group of employees lodging an expression of interest in a voluntary redundancy, Council shall open the expression of interest in a voluntary redundancy to other appropriate employees. Provided that on business grounds Council shall maintain the right to refuse to provide a voluntary redundancy to an employee who expresses their interest in accepting one, on business grounds.

Where a voluntary redundancy is agreed, Council may offer to redeploy another employee, whose role has been identified as redundant, to the role of the employee who has chosen voluntary redundancy, where the employee has the relevant skills and qualification to undertake that work.

3.5.3 Involuntary Redundancies

Where there are insufficient expressions of interest in voluntary redundancies and Council has determined that the identified positions are to be made redundant, an employee whose role has been made redundant shall be entitled to severance pay calculated as follows:

On commencement of the arrangement, all leave shall accrue in accordance with the relevant hours of work clauses within this Agreement and/or relevant Award.

3.7 PROBATIONARY PERIOD

All employees are subject to a probationary period for the first three (3) months from commencement of their employment.

If an employee's suitability or demonstrated ability to perform the role has not been established by the end of the ordinary probation period, Council and the employee may mutually agree to extend the period of probation a further three months. Such agreement must:

- a) Be agreed in writing; and
- b) Clearly establish the required expectations to be met by the end of the extended probation period; and
- c) Identify the learning and development plans which will be committed to by the employer and employee to ensure the best opportunity to successfully complete the extended probation period.

Council may terminate the employment of an employee who is on probation at any time during the probationary period on the basis of fitness for duty, or performance.

Where an employee's service is considered satisfactory or where an employee's service exceeds the designated probationary period or agreed extension the employee's appointment will be deemed to be confirmed.

To facilitate the above, a written "salary sacrifice" agreement must be implemented to allow such contributions from "before tax" pay.

7.4 ABSENTEEISM MANAGEMENT PROCEDURE

Sick & Carer's leave should only be claimed when the physical consequences of injury or illness or the requirement to care for an immediate family or household member prevent an employee from attending work. The Parties to this Agreement recognise that absenteeism and abuse of sick leave is a controllable overhead and abuse of this benefit is detrimental to the operations of Council. In recognising this, the Parties have agreed on the following procedure to manage sick leave abuse and absenteeism.

The Parties agree that sick/carer's leave is unlike annual or long service leave in that it is conditional upon an employee being ill or injured to the point of being unfit for duty or being required to care for an immediate family or household member. This procedure is designed to curtail sick leave abuse and absenteeism by employees who are absent from work and who are not genuinely unfit for duty and is to operate notwithstanding other provisions of this Agreement.

The Council shall from time to time review employee sick leave records with a view to determining employees who have a record of attendance which gives cause for reasonable concern. At any time during the following process an employee shall have the right to be accompanied or represented by a person or organisation of their choice.

7.4.1 Where an employee is deemed to have an unsatisfactory record the Supervisor shall, in the first instance, discuss the matter with the employee in order to determine any contributing factors. During this discussion the employee's immediate supervisor shall explain the requirements of this procedure.

7.4.2 Where the above step (7.4.1) does not result in any improvement the employee shall be interviewed by their manager. The employee shall be notified in writing of the time, date, reason for the meeting and that they are entitled to have an advocate or a support person of their choice present at the initial and any subsequent meeting. If the discussion does not provide satisfactory reason/s for the employee's absences, a letter of warning shall be provided to the employee indicating proof of illness or a medical certificate is required for any subsequent absence. The letter shall also include appropriate actions for improvement as well as timeframes.

7.4.3 If no improvement is observed in the next timeframe (which was determined at stage (7.4.2)) the employee shall be interviewed again. If the reasons provided are unsatisfactory the employee shall then be provided with a second letter of warning. This letter of warning shall inform the employee that unless their attendance record improves further disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment, may follow.

7.4.4 If the above action still results in unsatisfactory attendance the employee shall again be interviewed by their manager and they may be required to provide reason why their employment with Council should not be terminated.

The above procedure does not withdraw Council's right to take action against fraudulent behaviour which may justify summary dismissal.

7.5 PARENTAL LEAVE

7.5.1 Definition

For the purpose of this clause the term Parental Leave shall include Birth Related, Adoption and Surrogacy Leave.

7.5.2 Paid Birth Related Leave

On completion of one (1) years continuous service an employee who is pregnant may be granted parental leave of six (6) weeks on full pay or 12 weeks on half pay, and/or an employee whose spouse gives birth may be granted parental leave of two (2) weeks on full pay; if the leave is associated with:

- a) The birth of a child, being a child who is born to the employee or the employee's spouse or de facto partner; or
- b) The placement of a child with the employee for adoption, as defined in sub-clause 7.5.3 of this Agreement.

7.5.3 Adoption Leave

An employee is not entitled to access paid parental leave in relation to adoption unless the child that is to be placed with the employee for adoption:

- a) Is, or shall be, under 16 as at the day of placement, or the expected day of placement, of the child; and
- b) Has not, or shall not have, lived continuously with the employee for a period of six (6) months or more as at the day of placement, or the expected day of placement, of the child; and
- c) Is not (otherwise than because of the adoption) a child of the employee or the employee's spouse or de facto partner.

7.5.4 Return to part time work after Parental Leave

Employees may apply to work part time following a period of Parental leave. An application for part time work under this provision must be made in writing and must:

- a) State that it is an application to return to work on a part time basis by written notice being given to Council at least 4 weeks before the Parental leave ends; and
- b) State the dates the return to work on a part-time basis is to start and end; and
- c) State the impact the refusal of the application might have on the employee and the employee's dependents; and
- d) Be accompanied by a statutory declaration by the employee stating the employee is seeking to work on a part-time basis so the employee can continue to be responsible for the care of the child when not at work.

7.6 BEREAVEMENT LEAVE

Employees may be granted up to five (5) days bereavement leave, on full pay on each occasion, where the deceased person was related to the employee in any of the following circumstances:

Wife/Defacto Wife	Husband/Defacto Husband	Father/Father In Law
Mother/Mother In Law	Step Father	Step Mother
Brother	Sister	Unborn Child/Child/Step Child
Half/Step brother	Half/step sister	Brother/Sister in law
Son/Daughter in law	Grandfather	Grandmother
Grandson	Granddaughter

This shall be subject to the production of satisfactory evidence of death to Council or the completion of a statutory declaration.

The CEO at their discretion may grant bereavement leave:

- a) On the occasion of the death of other persons in addition to the above mentioned relatives; and
- b) Of more than five (5) days bereavement leave to employees depending on their personal circumstances.

7.7 ANNUAL LEAVE

Full time employees shall accrue five (5) weeks paid annual leave per completed year of service. In addition to the payment for annual leave, employees shall also attract a leave loading of 17.5%. Part time employees and fixed-term temporary employees shall accrue annual leave on a pro rata basis in relation to the ordinary hours worked. Due to the nature of their employment contract, casual employees shall not accrue any annual leave.

Annual leave accrued must not exceed 10 weeks. Where an employee accrues in excess of 10 weeks, Council, on four (4) weeks written notice, may require the employee to take part or all of the accrued annual leave. The CEO may, in special circumstances, allow an accrual of annual leave in excess of 10 weeks where the employee is planning to take extended leave.

7.8 LONG SERVICE LEAVE

7.8.1 Accrual

All full time employees shall accrue their long service leave entitlement at the rate of 1.3 weeks for each completed year of continuous service. Part time, fixed-term and casual employees shall be entitled to long service leave on a pro-rata basis in relation to the ordinary hours worked.

Any calculation of an employee's long service leave provision shall be subject to any amendments to current and past legislation and/or Award provisions. To avoid doubt, this means that an employee's long service leave is calculated on the amount of long service leave available to that employee at relevant times during their employment.

On the completion of five (5) years continuous service with Local Government in Queensland an employee may take any accrued long service leave. The minimum amount of pro rata long service leave that can be taken is five (5) days or as otherwise agreed with the employee's manager. To facilitate this, a written request is required.

In addition, where an employee resigns or their employment is terminated on completion of five (5) years or more years' of continuous service with Local Government in Queensland the employee is entitled to be paid out any accrued long service leave.

7.8.2 Long Service Leave Reduction Scheme

Where an employee has accrued in excess of 26 weeks of long service leave the employee may be required to participate in a leave reduction scheme. Such scheme may require the employee to reduce their accrued bank of long service leave over an agreed period of time in order to maintain a maximum of 26 weeks long service leave. However the employee, on their own volition, may decide to reduce their long service leave entitlement to less than 26 weeks.

7.8.3 Long Service Payment Options

The payment of long service leave entitlements may be taken and paid at either full pay or half pay rates. It is the employee's responsibility to advise payroll if they require their payment at half pay, otherwise payment will default to be paid at the full pay entitlement.

7.9 WORKERS' COMPENSATION TOP UP FROM SICK LEAVE

Where an employee is receiving Local Government Workcare payments, such payments may be topped up to the employee's base weekly wage from accrued sick leave. To facilitate this, a written request and approval from the CEO is required, in addition to any required approval from the Workers' Compensation Regulator. Any request to use sick leave under this clause is conditional upon the employee maintaining a balance of fifteen days in their sick leave accruals.

It is also agreed that if an employee is receiving Local Government Workcare payments, the employee shall continue to accrue and be paid the following entitlements for the entire period they are absent on workers' compensation.

- a) Long Service Leave;
- b) Annual Leave;
- c) Personal Leave;
- d) Superannuation;

To facilitate the provision of this clause a written request to the CEO is required.

7.10 PUBLIC HOLIDAY

Where an employee is required to work a public holiday, TOIL provisions shall not apply. Accordingly, the relevant Award's provision regarding penalty rates shall apply.

7.11 TRADE UNION TRAINING LEAVE

Paid leave of absence of up to six (6) days per calendar year shall be granted to employees who are recognised Union delegates to attend Trade Union training, ACTU or specific Union courses approved by the Branch Executive of the Union.

Council shall only be obliged to pay for not more than a total of twenty days per year in Trade Union training leave, regardless of the number of union delegates. Additional days may be approved at the CEO's discretion.

7.12 DOMESTIC AND FAMILY VIOLENCE LEAVE

Where an employee has been affected by Domestic and Family Violence as defined in Council's policy, the employee will be able to access up to 15 days paid special leave. A support person as defined in Section 42(2) (b) of the Act will be able to access Carer's leave in accordance with clause 7.2 of this Agreement. Requests for additional leave will be considered on a case by case basis.

7.13 NATURAL DISASTER LEAVE

Where any employee is isolated as a result of a natural disaster situation caused by, but not limited to, a flood, cyclone, bushfire, tsunami, volcano or earthquake event, and is unable to report to work at any of Council's depots or places of work, the employee shall be permitted paid leave up to a maximum of five (5) days subject to the approval of the CEO. This may include, on a case by case basis, reasonable time required to secure an employee's property, to be discussed and agreed with the relevant Supervisor/Manager/CEO as required.
