

PRACTICE DIRECTION NUMBER 7 OF 2021

INDUSTRIAL COURT OF QUEENSLAND

---

ROBING

---

The Members of the Industrial Court of Queensland and Counsel appearing before the Court will, subject to the provisions below, wear robes in Court.

1. Robes are to be worn for:
  - (a) trials;
  - (b) appeals; and
  - (c) all other final hearings.
2. Robes are not required to be worn for the hearing of reviews or mentions.
3. The Court may, on its own motion or on the application of any party, and after having regard to the nature or circumstances of a particular matter, rule that robes are not to be worn for a particular hearing or matter.
4. For Counsel, 'robes' means the robes customarily worn by Counsel appearing in the Supreme Court of Queensland. Wigs, full-bottomed or otherwise, are not worn on any occasion.
5. Facilities are available on the floor used by the Court in Central Plaza Two for Counsel to robe.
