PART 1 PRELIMINARY

1.1 Title

This Agreement is to be known as the Stadiums Queensland Staff Certified Agreement 2023.

1.2 Certified Agreement Coverage

This Agreement shall apply to:

- Stadiums Queensland ABN 53 690 873 374 (the "employer"); and
- all employees employed by the employer (with the exception of staff on individual contracts and event day casuals); and
- The Australian Workers' Union of Employees, Queensland; and
- The Electrical Trades Union of Employees, Queensland; and
- Together Queensland, Industrial Union of Employees; and
- United Workers Union, Industrial Union of Employees

1.3 Date of Operation

This Agreement is to operate from the date of certification by the Queensland Industrial Relations Commission, and have a nominal expiry date of 31 July 2026.

The parties agree to commence negotiations for a new Certified Agreement six (6) months prior to the expiry of this Agreement. The objective of the parties is to reach a mutually beneficial Agreement to be implemented as soon as practical after this Agreement expires.

1.4 Posting up of Agreement

A copy of this Certified Agreement is to be exhibited in a conspicuous and convenient place on the premises of the employer so as to be easily read by employees. Electronic access to this Agreement, where available, is sufficient to meet the requirements of this clause.

1.5 Objectives of this Agreement

1.5.1 Stadiums Queensland is charged with the management, operation, use and promotion, of the major sports facilities declared under Queensland Government regulation as being venues having the capacity to stage national and international sports events, to deliver recreation and entertainment experiences and perform its function in a way that is consistent with sound commercial principles.

1.5.2 The objective of this Agreement is to develop a standard approach to employment for all staff as far as possible but also to ensure the terms and conditions of employment reflect the particular circumstances of the business within which the facilities operate.

The parties will strive for improvements in service delivery and improved efficiency and effectiveness of the employer's operations and activities.

1.6 Replacement Agreement

This Agreement replaces the Stadiums Queensland Staff Certified Agreement 2019.

No employee shall suffer a loss or diminution of entitlements under the existing agreement enjoyed immediately prior to the commencement of the 2023 Agreement, merely due to the 2023 Agreement coming into operation.

1.7 Equity Matters

1.7.1 This Agreement will achieve the principal objectives specified in sections 4 (i), 4(j) and 4(r) of the Industrial Relations Act 2016. Stadiums Queensland will respect and value the diversity of our employees through helping to prevent and eliminate discrimination.

1.7.2 In addition, the effect of the Agreement is not to allow any conduct or treatment, either direct or indirect, that would contravene the Queensland Anti-Discrimination Act 1991.

1.8 Equal remuneration under this Agreement

1.8.1 The agreement provides for remuneration based on classification levels related to skills required to perform the role so that a female employee doing the same work as a male employee will receive equal remuneration. The classification structure and associated wage rates are contained in Appendix 1 to this Agreement.

1.9 No Further Claims

1.9.1 This Agreement is in full and final settlement of all parties' claims for the period of its nominal term. It is a term of this Agreement that no party will pursue any extra claims relating to wages or conditions of employment, whether dealt with in this Agreement or not, which claims are intended to take effect during the nominal term of this Agreement.

1.9.2 Notwithstanding clause 18.1, the parties acknowledge that a range of issues are contained in policies developed by the employer, and the employer retains the right under this Agreement to change any such policy as required from time to time but not so as to remove or reduce any express term or condition of employment contained in this Agreement in a way that is detrimental to employees.

1.9.3 In the event that any changes to a policy as outlined in clause 1.8.2 are decided upon, the employer will advise employees and their representatives of the changes prior to developing or implementing the change, whichever is the first in time.

1.9.4 Any dispute as to whether a change in policy is in compliance with clause 1.8.2 shall be dealt with in accordance with the procedure outlined in clause 3.8 of this Agreement, save and except that it is expressly agreed that any disputed change to policy may be implemented by the employer pending the determination of such dispute, but must be subsequently dealt with in accordance with any such dispute determination.

1.10 Relationship to Awards

1.10.1 This Agreement is to be read in conjunction with the Stadiums Queensland Employees Award – State 2016. In the event of any inconsistency between the relevant award and this Agreement, the Agreement prevails to the extent of the inconsistency.

1.10.2 It is a term of this Agreement that no employee will receive a rate of pay, which is less than the corresponding rate of pay, in the Stadiums Queensland Employees Award – State 2016.

For casual employees engaged by the hour, employment may be terminated without notice by either party subject to the payment of any prescribed minimum amount of wages and to the employee working the time covered by such minimum amount, if required to do so by the employer.

3.1.8 The employer will review the employment status of any casual employee who has made an application in writing to the employer and who has worked the equivalent of 12 months full-time to ascertain whether it would be appropriate to offer such an employee a full-time or part-time position, provided that the employer's operational requirements take precedence.

The employee must indicate their willingness to work such additional hours by registering their interest with the employer.

The parties agree that in order to increase employee career development and to meet the operational requirements of the employer, employees may be transferred to work at another Stadiums Queensland facility for a stated period or on an indefinite basis. The employer will consult with the employee prior to any such transfer.

3.2 Alternative Employment Arrangements

3.2.1 The employer may offer to employees with roles which are substantially managerial in nature, or which require specialist knowledge or strong leadership skills, employment under an alternative employment arrangement. Such employment offer may be made to a potential or existing employee. However, this provision shall not apply unless employees have been offered and have accepted alternative employment arrangements in accordance with this clause.

3.2.2 Any such arrangements must be made on an individual basis and shall not automatically be extended to a new or continuing employee subsequently appointed to the position.

3.2.3 Every alternative employment arrangement introduced under these provisions will be subject to the "no disadvantage test". That is that the arrangement must not disadvantage employees in relation to their agreement employment conditions.

3.2.4 An alternative employment arrangement shall only be introduced following consultation and endorsement by those employees covered by the arrangement. Employees may at any time seek assistance or advice from a union representative or official, or any other person, on matters associated with the alternative arrangement.

3.2.5 Employees who accept an alternative employment arrangement will be exempt from the following provisions contained in this Agreement.

3.3 Organisational Change and Restructuring

3.3.1 Notification of Intended Changes

- (a) Where the employer has made a definite decision to implement changes in organisation or structure that are likely to have significant effects on employees, the employer shall as soon as practicable notify the employees and the relevant union(s) who may be affected by the proposed changes.
- (b) "Significant effects" include major changes in the composition, operation or size of the employer's work-force or in the skills required; the elimination or diminution of job opportunities; promotion opportunities or job tenure; the alteration of hours of work outside of ordinary seasonal changes; the need for retraining or transfer of employees to other work or locations and the restructuring of jobs. Provided that where this Agreement makes provision for alteration of any of the matters referred to in this paragraph, an alteration shall be deemed not to have significant effect.

3.3.2 Consultation with Employees

- (a) The employer shall discuss with the employees and the relevant union(s) affected by the proposed change, among other things, the introduction of the changes referred to in sub-clause 3.3.1(a) hereof, the effects the changes are likely to have on employees, measures to avert or mitigate the adverse effects of such changes on employees, and shall give prompt consideration to matters raised by the employees in relation to the changes.
- (b) The discussions shall commence as early as practicable after a definite decision has been made by the employer to make the changes referred to in sub-clause 3.3.1(a) hereof.
- (c) For the purposes of such discussion, the employer shall provide in writing to the employees concerned and the relevant union(s) affected by the proposed changes, all relevant information about the changes including the nature of the changes proposed, the expected effects of the changes on employees, and any other matters likely to affect employees provided that the employer shall not be required to disclose confidential information the disclosure of which would be inimical to the employer's interests.

3.4 Redundancy

3.4.1 "Redundancy" in this clause means the loss of employment due to the employer no longer requiring the job the employee has been doing to be performed by anyone.

3.4.2 Discussions before Redundancy

Where the employer has made a definite decision that the employer no longer requires the job the employee(s) have been doing done by anyone and this is not due to the ordinary and customary turnover of labour and where that decision may lead to termination of employment, the employer shall have discussions as soon as practicable with the employees directly affected. Discussions shall cover, among other things, any reasons for the proposed terminations, measures to avoid or minimise the terminations, and measures to mitigate the adverse effects of any termination on the employees concerned.

3.4.3 Severance Pay

- (a) In addition to the periods of notice prescribed for termination in clause 3.1, an employee whose employment is terminated by reason of redundancy shall be entitled to a severance benefit of two weeks' pay per year of service and a proportionate amount for an incomplete year of eligible service, paid at the employee's actual wage. The minimum benefit is based on wages for four (4) weeks; the maximum is based on wages over a fifty-two (52) week period.
- (b) "Weeks' pay" means the ordinary time rate of pay for the employee concerned.
- (c) The severance payment shall not exceed the amount which the employee would have earned if employment with the employer had proceeded to the employee's normal retirement date.
- (d) The employer may apply to the Queensland Industrial Relations Commission for an order allowing the off-setting of all or part of an employee's entitlement to severance payment on the basis that such payment or part thereof is already provided for or included in the contributions, which the employer has made to a superannuation scheme, and which are paid or payable to the employee on redundancy occurring.

3.4.4 Time Off During Notice Period

- (a) During the period of notice of termination on account of redundancy given by the employer, an employee shall be allowed up to one (1) day's time off without loss of pay during each week of notice for the purpose of seeking other employment.
- (b) If the employee has been allowed paid leave for more than one (1) day during the notice period for the purpose of seeking other employment, the employee shall, at the request of the employer, be required to produce proof of attendance at an interview or he or she shall not receive payment for the time absent. For this purpose a statutory declaration will be sufficient.

3.4.5 Alternative Employment

The employer in a particular redundancy case may make application to the Queensland Industrial Relations Commission to have the severance pay prescription varied if the employer obtains acceptable alternative employment for an employee.

3.4.6 Employee Leaving During Notice

An employee whose employment is terminated on account of redundancy may terminate his or her employment during the period of notice, and if so shall be entitled to the same benefits and payments under this clause as if the employee remained with the employer until the expiry of such notice. However, in such circumstances the employee shall not be entitled to payment in lieu of notice.

3.4.7 Transfer to Lower Paid Duties

Where an employee is transferred to lower paid duties for reasons set out in paragraph 3.3.1(b) hereof, the employee shall be entitled to the same period of notice of the date of commencement of work in the new position as if the employee's employment had been terminated, and the employer may, at the employer's option, make payment in lieu thereof, of an amount equal to the difference between the former ordinary time rate of pay and the new lower ordinary time rate for the number of weeks of notice still owing.

3.4.8 Employees with Less than One Year of Service

This clause shall not apply to employees with less than one (1) year's continuous service and the general obligation on the employer should be no more than to give relevant employees an indication of the impending redundancy at the first reasonable opportunity, and to take such steps as may be reasonable to facilitate the obtaining by the employees of suitable alternative employment.

3.4.9 Transmission of Business

Where a business is, whether before or after the date of this Agreement, transmitted from the employer (in this clause called the "transmittor") to another employer (in this clause called the "transmittee"), and an employee who at the time of such transmission was an employee of the transmittor's business, becomes an employee of the transmittee:

- (a) The continuity of the employment of the employee shall be deemed not to have been broken by reason of such transmission; and
- (b) The period of employment which the employee has had with the transmittor or any prior transmittor shall be deemed to be service of the employee with the transmittee.
- (c) In this subclause, "business" includes trade, process, business or occupation and includes part of any such business and "transmission" agreement or by operation of law and "transmitted" has a corresponding meaning.

3.4.10 Employees Exempted

This clause shall not apply where employment is terminated, in the case of temporary/casual employees or employees engaged for a specified period of time or for a specified task or tasks, upon expiration of that time or upon completion of the specified task or tasks or as a consequence of conduct that justifies summary dismissal including malingering, inefficiency (as defined in Stadiums Queensland's policies) or neglect of duty.

3.5 Payment of Wages

- 3.5.1 All employees shall be paid fortnightly and directly into the employee's nominated bank account by electronic transfer of funds and where practicable not later than five (5) working days after the last day of a pay period.
- 3.5.2 In order to minimise the potential impact on employees, any changes to payment of wages will be done so as to coincide with any back payment.
- 3.5.3 The employer shall supply the employee with a detailed wages payment advice in accordance with the provisions of the Industrial Relations Act 2016.

3.6 Deductions from Wages

The employer may at the request in writing from a full-time or part-time employee, deduct out of any moneys due to the employee in respect of wages, the employee's contribution to a fund of the employee's choice.

3.7 Training, Development and Careers

- 3.7.1 The parties to this Agreement recognise that in order to increase the efficiency and productivity of the employer, a commitment to training and skill development is required. Accordingly, the employer commits itself to:
- (a) developing a more highly skilled and flexible workforce; and
 - (b) providing employees with career opportunities with the employer through appropriate training to acquire additional skills.
- 3.7.2 When a training program is deemed by the employer or relevant legislation to be compulsory, then the employer will provide this training to full-time and part-time employees in paid time, with such employees having an entitlement to a minimum of two (2) hours payment for attendance at training.
- 3.7.3 This training will also be provided by the employer free of charge to employees if it is a requirement of their position.
- 3.7.4 Casual employees required to attend a training session by the employer will be paid at the ordinary time rate and a minimum of two (2) hours applies for attendance at meetings and training.

3.8 Prevention and Settlement of Disputes

- 3.8.1 The parties agree at all times to abide by the procedure outlined in subclause 3.8.2 below and work will continue without any industrial action while the parties seek resolution of a dispute, claim or grievance.
- 3.8.2 In the event of a dispute, claim or grievance likely to affect the business of the employer, the continuity of service or the employment of the employee, the following procedures shall be constituted:
- (a) In order to allow for the peaceful resolution of the dispute, claim or grievance the parties are not to participate in or be responsible for stoppages of work, lockouts or any other bans or limitations on the performance of work while the procedures of negotiation and conciliation as detailed herein are being followed.
 - (b) In the first instance, the employee will raise the dispute, claim or grievance with his/her immediate supervisor.
 - (c) If the matter remains unresolved, the employee's union representative (if relevant) or a nominated employee representative will discuss the dispute, claim or grievance with the staff member responsible for industrial relations. If after forty-eight (48) hours (or such longer period where appropriate) the matter remains unresolved then it will be brought to the attention of the manager.

- (d) The union representative may consult with an official of the union at any time during this procedure. This official may seek to discuss the matter with an appropriate representative of the employer.
- (e) The employer shall ensure that all practices applied during operation of the procedure are in accordance with safe working practices and are consistent with established custom and practice at the workplace.
- (f) Emphasis shall be placed by the parties on a negotiated settlement. However, if the negotiation process is exhausted without the dispute, claim or grievance being resolved, the parties may jointly or individually refer the matter to the Queensland Industrial Relations Commission for assistance in resolving the dispute. The parties agree that if the matter cannot be resolved by conciliation they agree to have the matter arbitrated.
- (g) Nothing in this clause shall diminish the rights, obligations and powers of the parties arising from the relevant Workplace Health and Safety legislation.
- (h) The parties to this Agreement agree to refer to the Queensland Industrial Relations Commission matters relating to dismissal, re-employment and re-instatement where these cannot be resolved pursuant to this clause.
- (i) Employees who are not members of the union will be required to follow the same procedures as set out above and will be entitled to seek assistance and representation from a fellow employee or advocate.

Treasury will advise agencies of the CPI relevant to COLA considerations upon its release in each year.

eligible employee – see clause 4.3.3.

predecessor agreement – means the Stadiums Queensland Staff Certified Agreement 2019.

Queensland government employee – means a person employed in a government entity, as defined in section 24 of the repealed Public Service Act 2008 as in force at 1 October 2022, and the entities specified at sections 24(2)(c), 24(2)(d) and 24(2)(h) of the Act: the parliamentary service, the Governor’s official residence and its associated administrative unit, and the police service.

wage increase under the Agreement – means the wage increase of either 4%, 4% or 3%, as specified in clause 4.2.1 of this Agreement, that occurs on the day after the end of the COLA year. For example, for the purposes of calculating COLA year 1 (1 August 2022 to 31 July 2023), the wage increase of 4% on 1 August 2023 is the wage increase under the Agreement.

4.3.2 Obligation for payment

The employer will make COLA payments as required by this clause 4.3 to eligible employees.

4.3.3 Eligibility

- (a) Eligible employees covered by this Agreement may be entitled to receive Cost of Living Adjustment (COLA) payments based on the calculation dates, for up to three years only, and ending for the calculation date of 31 July 2025.
- (b) For the COLA year 1, an employee is an eligible employee if they performed work under the predecessor agreement during COLA year 1, and they were covered by the predecessor agreement on the calculation date of 31 July 2023.
- (c) For COLA years 2 and 3, an employee is an eligible employee if they performed work under this Agreement during the relevant COLA year, and they are covered by this Agreement on the relevant calculation date for the associated COLA Payment.
- (d) In recognition of employee mobility across the sector, where an employee would otherwise be an eligible employee in accordance with clause (b) or (c) but they are not covered by this Agreement (or the predecessor agreement in the case of COLA year 1) on the relevant calculation date due to being employed elsewhere as a Queensland government employee on the calculation date, they will be deemed to be an eligible employee for the associated COLA payment. To facilitate payment of the COLA payment in this circumstance, the employee is required to provide relevant details of their eligibility to SQ Payroll - payroll@stadiums.qld.gov.au.

Example – an employee works for the first 3 months under the predecessor agreement, or under this Agreement, during a relevant COLA year, then takes up employment under a different agreement. They remain employed under the different agreement as at the relevant calculation date under this Agreement. Provided the employee provides the required notice and details of their current employer (as specified above) which confirms that they are a Queensland government employee as at the calculation date, they will be an eligible employee for that particular COLA payment (see clause (f) for pro-rata payments).

- (e) An employee who starts being covered by this Agreement or the predecessor agreement after a calculation date is not eligible for the associated COLA payment. For COLA year 1 also see clause (b).

Example – an employee starts being covered by the Agreement on 17 September 2023. The employee is not eligible for COLA payment year 1.

- (f) An eligible employee who did not perform work under the predecessor agreement or this Agreement for the full COLA year, will receive a pro-rata COLA payment by reference to the base wages they received that was attributable to work under the predecessor agreement or this Agreement.

Example one – an eligible employee is employed and works for 5 months under the predecessor agreement or this Agreement during a relevant COLA year. Their base wages for the COLA year will reflect the 5 months they worked.

Example two – an eligible employee is employed for 12 months under the predecessor agreement or this Agreement during a relevant COLA year and in those 12 months, works for 6 months, takes 3 months leave at half pay and takes 3 months leave without pay. Their base wages for the COLA year will reflect the 6 months they worked, 3 months where they earned half pay and 3 months where they earned no pay.

Example three – an employee is employed for 12 months under the predecessor agreement or this Agreement during a relevant COLA year and in those 12 months, works for 6 months and is temporarily seconded and works for 6 months under a different Agreement. Their base wages for the COLA year will then reflect the 6 months they worked under the predecessor agreement or this Agreement.

- (g) An eligible employee who is casual or part-time will receive a pro-rata COLA payment based on the hours they worked in the relevant COLA year because of the definition of base wages.

Example – a part-time employee works 0.6 full-time equivalent during the COLA year. The employee's base wages for the COLA year reflect their hours of work.

- (h) In addition to the other requirements of clause 4.3.3, casual employees are eligible employees provided they have performed work under the predecessor agreement or this Agreement, or as a Queensland government employee, within the 12-week payroll period immediately prior to the relevant calculation date.

4.3.4 Calculation and payments

Step one

- (a) A COLA Payment is only payable if, for the relevant COLA year, CPI exceeds the wage increase under the Agreement that occurs on the day after the end of the COLA year.

Step two

- (a) The relevant COLA Payment is calculated by first determining the percentage difference between the wage increase under the Agreement and CPI for the relevant COLA year and each COLA Payment is capped at 3% (the 'COLA percentage').

Example one: For COLA Payment Year 1, the COLA year is 1 August 2022 to 31 July 2023. The wage increase under the Agreement is 4% on 1 August 2023. In April 2023, the ABS releases the CPI figure for March 2023 as 7.4%. The COLA payment is calculated as the difference between 4% and 7.4%, i.e. 3.4%. However, because the COLA payment is capped at 3%, the COLA percentage is 3%.

Example two: For COLA Payment Year 3, the COLA year is 1 August 2024 to 31 July 2025. The wage increase under the Agreement is 3% on 1 August 2025. In April 2025, the ABS releases the CPI figure for March 2025 as 3.9%. The COLA payment is calculated as the difference between 3% and 3.9%, i.e. 0.9%. 0.9% is less than the 3% cap, therefore the COLA percentage is 0.9%.

Step three

- (a) To calculate an eligible employee's COLA Payment, the relevant employee's base wages for the COLA year are to be determined.

Note – no adjustment to base wages is necessary as the relevant wage increase under the Agreement has not been applied for the COLA year.

Step four

- (a) The figure from Step three (a) is then multiplied by the COLA Percentage calculated in clause Step two (a) to determine the particular employee's COLA Payment for that COLA year.

Example: The COLA percentage is 3% and the employee's base wages is $90,000.

- $90,000 multiplied by 3% = $2,700.00

- (b) COLA Payments are one-off, do not form part of base salary and will be taxed according to the applicable law.

4.3.5 Timing of information and payments

- (a) For eligible employees under clause 4.3.3 (b) and 4.3.3, (d) if payable, the relevant COLA payment will be made within two (2) months following certification or the employee providing the notice of their employment pursuant to clause 4.3.3 (d) following certification.
- (b) For eligible employees under clause 4.3.3 (c) and 4.3.3 (d), if payable, the relevant COLA Payment will be made within two (2) months of the latter: the relevant calculation date and release of the CPI or the employee providing the notice of their employment pursuant to clause 4.3.3. (d).
- (c) Stadiums Queensland will provide advice to unions and employees covered by this Agreement on the timing of payroll processing for each COLA payment.

4.4 Movement Between Paypoints

- 4.4.1 The Stadiums Queensland Movement Between Paypoints Procedure, as amended from time to time, will provide the process for the movement between pay points and payment of increments for employees covered by the Agreement.

4.5 Allowances

- 4.5.1 Subject to Appendix 2, all applicable allowances, other than district and divisional parities, will be paid as per the Award.

4.6 Salary Packaging

- 4.6.1 Salary packaging is available for employees covered by this Agreement based on the following principles:
- (a) as part of the salary package arrangements, the costs for administering the package, including Fringe Benefits Tax, are met by the participating employee;

- (b) there will be no additional increase in superannuation costs or to fringe benefits payments made by the employer;
- (c) increases or variations in taxation are to be passed to employees as part of their salary package;
- (d) it is strongly recommended to all employees to seek independent financial advice when entering into a salary packaging arrangement for the first time, or adding new item/items to an already agreed packaging arrangement;
- (e) employees must provide to the employer evidence of independent financial advice prior to taking up a salary package;
- (f) there will be no significant additional administrative workload or other ongoing costs to the employer;
- (g) any additional administrative and Fringe Benefits Tax costs are to be met by the employee; and
- (h) any increases or variations to taxation, excluding Payroll Tax, that result in additional costs are to be passed on to the employee as part of the salary package; and
- (i) the management and administrative costs charged by the salary packaging service will be recovered from the participating employee.

4.6.2 The employee's salary for superannuation purposes and severance and termination payments, will be the gross salary which the employee would receive if not taking part in salary packaging.

It supports constructive relations between management and unions and recognises the need to work collaboratively with relevant unions and employees in an open and accountable way.

Stadiums Queensland as an employer recognises that union membership and coverage issues are determined by the provisions of the Industrial Relations Act 2016 and any determinations of the Queensland Industrial Relations Commission.

7.4 Union Encouragement

APPENDIX 2 – TRADES, GROUNDS AND MAINTENANCE STAFF EMPLOYMENT CONDITIONS

1 Hours of Work

- 1.1 The ordinary hours of work prescribed may be worked on up to any ten (10) consecutive days in any fortnight, Monday to Sunday inclusive between 5:00am and 10:00pm.

2 Apprentices

- 2.1 Trainees and Apprentices will not be disadvantaged by the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
- 2.2 Trainees and Apprentices engaged under this Agreement are entitled to the same employment conditions as other employees covered by this Agreement.
- 2.3 Trainees and Apprentices will be remunerated in accordance with the percentage of the relevant adult rate specified in the Stadiums Queensland Employees Award – State 2016, as the case may be, as amended in accordance with the State Wage Case decisions of the Queensland Industrial Relations Commission.

3 Trade Allowances

- 3.1 Tool and leading hand allowances will be paid in addition to the employee's base salary, where they are applicable to the class of work performed by the employee.
- 3.2 No other work related allowances will apply, unless specifically provided for in the policies of the employer.

4 Aggregated Salary (TGM Salary)

- 4.1 There are current Stadiums Queensland employees who regularly work weekends. To ensure affected employees are not disadvantaged, Stadiums Queensland has developed a Trades, Grounds and Maintenance Aggregated Salary (TGM Salary) (Appendix 1.4).
- 4.2 Subject to clause 3.1, the aggregated salary incorporates all allowances and all penalty rates for ordinary time worked.
- 4.3 Where a part-time or casual employee works predominately weekend work and consequently would receive a greater rate of pay under the Award, the employee will be entitled to the greater rate of pay.

5 Meal Breaks

- 5.1 Each full-time employee shall be entitled to an unpaid meal break of a minimum of thirty (30) minutes per seven point six (7.6) hours of employment. Such meal breaks shall be taken at a time convenient to and as agreed between the employer and the particular employee involved.
- 5.2 Part-time and casual employees working for more than six (6) hours on any one day shall be entitled to an unpaid meal break of thirty (30) minutes to be taken at a time mutually convenient to the employer and the particular employee involved unless unforeseen operational requirements dictate otherwise.

6 Rostered Days Off

- 6.1 Subject to clause 5.1 of the Agreement (Full-Time Hours of Work), the seventy-six (76) hour fortnight shall be worked in one of the following ways, most suitable to the particular facility, after consultation with, and giving reasonable consideration to the wishes of the employees directly involved:-
- (a) by employees working less than eight (8) ordinary hours each day; or
 - (b) by employees working less than eight (8) ordinary hours on one or more days each work cycle; or
 - (c) by fixing one or more work days on which all employees will be rostered off during a particular work cycle; or
 - (d) by rostering employees off on various days of the week during a particular work cycle, so that each employee has one (1) work day off during that cycle.
- 6.2 Where the arrangements of ordinary hours of work provide for a rostered day off, the employer and the employee may agree to accrue up to a maximum of twelve (12) rostered days off.

- 6.3 Consent to accrue rostered days off shall not be unreasonably withheld by either party. Where such agreement has been reached the accrued rostered days shall be taken within twelve (12) calendar months of the date on which each rostered day off was accrued. In all cases, rostered days off shall be taken at times to suit the employer's work requirements.
- 6.4 Either the employee or their manager may request that the employee work on their rostered day off. If this is mutually agreed, the employee may either accrue the time or take their rostered day off on a different day. Unless otherwise agreed, two (2) days' notice of the above request is to be given. Agreement to such requests will not be unreasonably withheld.
- 6.5 Different methods of working of the seventy-six (76) hour fortnight may apply to individual employees, groups or sections of employees in the facility concerned.
- 6.6 Upon giving seven (7) days' notice or such shorter period as may be mutually agreed upon, the method of working the seventy-six (76) hour fortnight may be altered from time to time, following consultation between the employer and the employee concerned.

7 Rosters

- 7.1 The ordinary working hours of all employees shall be worked in accordance with a roster prescribing the starting and finishing times. A copy of such roster will be made available to employees. Rosters will be posted a minimum of six (6) days in advance of their commencement and be a minimum fourteen (14) days in duration.
- 7.2 The employer may change the roster of a casual employee by giving a minimum of two (2) hours' notice, provided that if the employer is unable to contact the casual employee and the casual employee reports to work for a rostered shift they will be entitled to a minimum of two (2) hours' pay.

8 Public Holidays

- 8.1 All work done by an employee on a day that is gazetted in the Queensland Government Industrial Gazette as a Public Holiday under the Holidays Act 1983 shall be paid at the rate of double time and a half with a minimum engagement of four (4) hours or payment thereof.
- 8.2 For the purposes of this provision, reference to the rate of double time and a half shall mean one and a half times the ordinary rates in addition to the ordinary rate contained in this Agreement.

9 Protective Clothing

- 9.1 The employer shall supply suitable safety footwear free of charge to employees.
- 9.2 When boots and other footwear are supplied by the employer they shall be replaced as required by fair wear and tear. Employer supplied footwear and clothing shall not be worn outside the employer's premises with the exception of travel to and from work and whilst on official duties. Any breach of this provision shall not be regarded as fair wear and tear and shall be replaced at the employee's expense.
- 9.3 Suitable gloves, aprons, goggles, masks and hand protection cream shall be supplied by the employer for employees where necessary.
- 9.4 The employer shall supply hats, sunscreen, and appropriate clothing where necessary to employees working in areas of exposed sunlight at the employer's direction.

10 Tools and Gear

- 10.1 Except as hereafter provided, all tools and materials required for the usual performance of any job task shall be supplied by the employer without cost to the employee.
- 10.2 When an employee brings his/her own tools, gear, etc., onto the job, the tools, gear etc., remain the property of the employee and the employer has no responsibility for any damage done to the tools.

11 Wet Weather

- 11.1 Suitable waterproof clothing shall be supplied where practicable by the employer to employees who are required to work in the rain.

- 11.2 Notwithstanding the foregoing, if in the performance of work the employee gets his/her clothes wet, the employee shall be paid double time for all work performed, and such payment shall continue until the employee is able to change into dry clothing or until that person ceases work, whichever is the earlier.

Queensland Government Commitment to Union Encouragement

The Queensland Government has made a commitment to encourage union membership among its employees.

As part of this commitment the government will:

- Acknowledge union delegates and job representatives have a role to play within a workplace, including during the agreement making process. The existence of accredited union delegates and/or job representatives is to be encouraged. Accredited union delegates and/or job representatives shall not be unnecessarily hindered in the reasonable and responsible performance of their duties.
- Subject to relevant legislation, allow employees full access to union delegates/officials during working hours to discuss any employment matter or seek union advice, provided that service delivery is not disrupted and work requirements are not unduly affected. Delegates will be provided reasonable access to facilities for the purpose of undertaking union activities.
- Encourage the establishment of joint union and employer consultative committees at a central and agency level.
- Promote reasonable and constructive industrial relations education leave in the form of paid time off to acquire knowledge and competencies in industrial relations.
- Provide an application for union membership and information on the relevant union(s) to all employees at the point of engagement and during induction.
- At the point of engagement, provide employees with a document indicating that the Agency encourages employees to join and maintain financial membership of an organisation of employees that has the right to represent their industrial interests.
- Subject to relevant privacy considerations, provide union(s) with details of new employees.

The active cooperation of all managers and supervisors is necessary to ensure that the government can honour this commitment.

Passive acceptance by agencies of membership recruitment activity by unions does not satisfy the government's commitment. Encouragement requires agencies to take a positive, supportive role, although ultimately it remains the responsibility of the unions themselves to conduct membership recruitment.
