SCHEDULE

LOCALITY ALLOWANCES

GENERAL CONDITIONS
Entitlement A public service officer or temporary employee engaged under section 113(2)(a) of the Public Service Act 1996 (referred to as "employee" in this schedule) appointed to a centre listed in this schedule shall be paid - - the full rate of locality allowance for the centre if the employee satisfies the chief executive that he or she has a dependent spouse, dependent de facto spouse or dependent child; or - one-half of the full rate of locality allowance for the centre if the employee does not have a dependent spouse, dependent de facto spouse or dependent child. Dependants Departments are responsible for establishing their own criteria to determine whether an employee is eligible for the full rate of locality allowance. As a guide, a person in receipt of remuneration less than the Queensland Minimum Wage ($373.40 per week for award employees as at 1 June 1999) could be regarded as a dependant. Spouse eligible for locality allowance One-half of the full rate of locality allowance shall be paid to an employee, even though the employee has a dependent child, whose spouse or de facto spouse lives with the employee and - - is also an employee; or - is employed by a corporation sole, statutory corporation, board, authority or other body constituted under any Act; and is eligible to receive a locality allowance as a result of that employment.	Notification of change of circumstances An employee receiving a locality allowance shall notify the chief executive immediately of any change in the employee's circumstances that would affect the amount of locality allowance payable. Payable during leave with salary Locality allowance shall be paid to an employee absent on recreation leave, sick leave, long service leave or on any other leave on full salary. Not payable during leave without salary Locality allowance shall not be paid to an employee absent on leave without salary. Divisional or district allowance An employee stationed at a construction project shall be paid so much of the locality allowance ordinarily payable to that employee as exceeds the total amount paid to that employee for - - any divisional or district allowance prescribed for the centre generally in any industrial award or industrial agreement; and - any site allowance payable. Time limit on claims Without the approval of the chief executive, a claim shall not be paid unless it is submitted within 12 months – - of the date of completion of the work, or - the incurring of the expense, or - the conclusion of the circumstances leading to the claim. (Note: The 5.5% increase granted in the Core Queensland Government Departments Certified Agreement 1997 is not reflected in the allowances contained in this schedule.)
