- 2.1.3 Any proposed genuine agreement reached between an employer and employee(s) in any enterprise is contingent upon the agreement being submitted to the Commission in accordance with chapter 6 of the Act and is to have no force or effect until approval is given.

PART 3 - COMMUNICATION, CONSULTATION AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

3.1 Dispute accordance procedure

- 3.1.1 The objective of this procedure shall be to avoid disputes by the resolution of issues through measures based on consultation, co-operation and discussion and to avoid interruption to the performance of work and consequential loss of production and wages.

It is acknowledged that it is in the best interest of all parties that issues are identified and resolved in accordance with the agreed procedure.

- 3.1.2 The matters to be dealt with in the procedure shall include all grievances and disputes between an employee and an employer in respect to any industrial matter. Such procedure shall apply to any number of employees.
- 3.1.3 The procedures to be followed are:
- (a) In the event of an employee/s having a grievance or dispute the employee shall, in the first instance, attempt to resolve the matter with the appropriate supervisor who shall respond to such request as soon as reasonably practicable under the circumstances.

If there is no level of management beyond that involved in the allegation the employee may proceed directly to the process outlined.
 - (e) Any issue which cannot be resolved after following the procedure prescribed above may be referred by either party to the Commission.
 - (f) Without prejudice to either party, whilst the above procedure is being followed, work shall continue normally, except in a case of a genuine safety issue and neither party shall unduly delay the procedure.
 - (g) Throughout all stages of the procedure all relevant facts shall be clearly identified and recorded.
- 3.1.4 The status quo existing before the emergence of the grievance or dispute is to continue whilst the above procedure is being followed.
- 3.1.5 Discussions at any stage of the procedure shall not be unreasonably delayed by any party, subject to acceptance that some matters may be of such complexity or importance that it may take a reasonable period of time for the appropriate response to be made. If genuine discussions are unreasonably delayed or hindered, it shall be open to any party to give notification of the dispute in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

3.1.6 The parties give their genuine commitment to the procedure, particularly in the context of the need to avoid interruption to the performance of work and the consequential loss of production or wages.

3.4.4 The Union shall not unreasonably withhold consent to an agreement reached between the parties.

3.4.5 As the enterprise agreement purports to alter Award conditions:

- (b) The Union is to be advised of such an application, its contents and the date of hearing.

3.4.6 (a) Upon approval being given by the Commission the agreement shall be inserted as an Award provision (as a schedule or otherwise) and take precedence over any provision of the relevant and named Award to the extent of any inconsistency therewith;

(b) Thereafter the agreement will have the effect of an Award and is to be posted and displayed as required.

(c) If the agreement is not approved it shall have no force or effect but may be remitted to the parties for further consideration.
