- (b) commit themselves to establishing a consultative mechanism and procedures appropriate to the size, structure and needs of each particular club. Measures raised by the employer, employees or Union or Unions for consideration consistent with the objectives of clause 1.7.1(a) shall be processed through that consultative mechanism and procedures;
- (c) will, subject to full consultation, co-operate in the transition to the new classification structure to ensure that the transition takes place in an orderly manner.

1.8 Parties bound

This Award is legally binding upon the employees as prescribed by clause 1.4, and their employers, and the Union and its members.

PART 2 - FLEXIBILITY

2.1 Enterprise flexibility

- 2.1.1 As part of a process of improvement in productivity and efficiency, discussion should take place at each enterprise to provide more flexible working arrangements, improvement in the quality of working life, enhancement of skills, training and job satisfaction and to encourage consultative mechanisms across the workplace.
- 2.1.2 The consultative processes established in an enterprise in accordance with clause 2.1 may provide an appropriate mechanism for consideration of matters relevant to clause 2.1.1. Union delegates at the place of work may be involved in such discussions.
- 2.1.3 Any proposed genuine agreement reached between an employer and employee/s in an enterprise is contingent upon the agreement being submitted to the Commission in accordance with Chapter 6 of the Act and is to have no force or effect until approval is given.

PART 3 - COMMUNICATION, CONSULTATION AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

3.1 Grievance and dispute settling procedure

The matters to be dealt with in this procedure shall include all grievances or disputes between an employee and an employer in respect to any industrial matter and all other matters that the parties agree on and are specified herein. Such procedures shall apply to a single employee or to any number of employees.

- 3.1.1 In the event of an employee having a grievance or dispute the employee shall in the first instance attempt to resolve the matter with the immediate supervisor, who shall respond to such request as soon as reasonably practicable under the circumstances. Where the dispute concerns alleged actions of the immediate supervisor the employee(s) may bypass this level in the procedure.
- 3.1.2 If the grievance or dispute is not resolved under clause 3.1.1, the employee or the employee's representative may refer the matter to the next higher level of management for discussion. Such discussion should, if possible, take place within 24 hours after the request by the employee or the employee's representative.
- 3.1.3 If the grievance involves allegations of unlawful discrimination by a supervisor the employee may commence the grievance resolution process by reporting the allegations to the next level of management beyond that of the supervisor concerned. If there is no level of management beyond that involved in the allegation the employee may proceed directly to the process outlined at clause 3.1.5.
- 3.1.4 If the grievance or dispute is still unresolved after discussions mentioned in clause 3.1.2, the matter shall, in the case of a member of a Union, be reported to the relevant officer of that Union and the senior management of the employer or the employer's nominated industrial representative. An employee who is not a member of the Union may report the grievance or dispute to senior management or the nominated industrial representative. This should occur as soon as it is evident that discussions under clause 3.1.2 will not result in resolution of the dispute.

- 3.1.5 If, after discussion between the parties, or their nominees mentioned in clause 3.1.4, the dispute remains unresolved after the parties have genuinely attempted to achieve a settlement thereof, then notification of the existence of the dispute is to be given to the Commission in accordance with the provisions of the Act.
- 3.1.6 Whilst all of the above procedure is being followed, normal work shall continue except in the case of a genuine safety issue.
- 3.1.7 The status quo existing before the emergence of the grievance or dispute is to continue whilst the above procedure is being followed.
- 3.1.8 All parties to the dispute shall give due consideration to matters raised or any suggestion or recommendation made by the Commission with a view to the prompt settlement of the dispute.
- 3.1.9 Any Order or Decision of the Commission (subject to the parties' right of appeal under the Act) will be final and binding on all parties to the dispute.
- 3.1.10 Discussions at any stage of the procedure shall not be unreasonably delayed by any party, subject to acceptance that some matters may be of such complexity or importance that it may take a reasonable period of time for the appropriate response to be made. If genuine discussions are unreasonably delayed or hindered, it shall be open to any party to give notification of the dispute in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

PART 4 - EMPLOYER AND EMPLOYEES' DUTIES, EMPLOYMENT RELATIONSHIP AND RELATED ARRANGEMENTS

4.1 Employment categories

- 4.1.1 Employees (except casual employees) covered by this Award shall be advised in writing of their employment category upon appointment. Employment categories are:
 - (a) Full-time;
 - (b) Part-time (as prescribed in clause 4.2); and
 - (c) Casual (as prescribed in clause 4.3).

4.2 Part-time employment

- 4.2.1 An employee may be employed as part-time in any classification in this Award on the following basis:
 - (a) Ordinary working hours shall be not less than 15 hours per week nor more than 36 hours per week.
 - (b) Ordinary daily working hours shall be not less than 3 hours nor in excess of 8 hours on any one day.
 - (c) The foregoing ordinary working hours shall be worked on not more than 5 days in any one week.
- 4.2.2 The hours of duty each day shall be worked continuously:

Provided that an employee who is required to work longer than 5 hours shall be granted a meal break of not less than and not more than 30 minutes. The meal break shall not be counted as time worked.
- 4.2.3
 - (a) A part-time employee shall be paid per hour at the rate of 1/40th of the full-time rate prescribed for the class of work performed, plus 10 %.
 - (b) The additional 10 % shall be regarded also as ordinary wages for the payment of annual leave, sick leave, and work not performed on a public holiday.
 - (c) The said additional 10 % shall not apply in addition to the rates prescribed elsewhere in this Award for work on Saturday, Sunday, public holidays or overtime.
- 4.2.4 The provisions of this Award in respect of annual leave, sick leave and public holidays shall apply on a pro rata basis to part-time employees.
- 4.2.5 All other provisions of this Award not expressly amended by clause 4.2 shall have application to part-time employees.

4.3 Casual employment

- 4.3.1 A casual employee means any employee engaged as such and who is employed by the hour on the class of work for which they are engaged with a minimum of 2 hours' pay for each engagement.
- 4.3.2 For the purpose of casual employees "engagement" shall be deemed to mean the period or periods for which the employer notifies the employee that they are so required to attend on any one day:

Provided that each period of engagement shall stand alone and shall be treated as an engagement of not less than 2 hours and be paid for as such.

- 4.3.3 The hourly rate for such employees is to be ascertained by dividing the appropriate full-time rate prescribed at clause 5.2 for permanent employees of the same class by 40 and adding thereto the following loadings:
- (a) 50 % for work performed Monday to Saturday;
 - (b) 100 % for work performed by casual stewards, stewardesses on Sundays;
 - (c) 50% for other casual employees for work performed on Sundays;
 - (d) 150 % for work performed on public holidays.

4.4 2 or more classes of work

- 4.4.1 Where an employee, other than a casual, on any one day, performs 2 or more classes of work for which a differential rate is fixed by this Award, such an employee shall, if employed for more than 2 hours on a grade of work attracting a higher rate, be paid for the whole period worked on that day at such higher rate.
- 4.4.2 Where an employee is engaged for 2 hours or less on a grade of work attracting a higher rate as aforesaid, such employee shall be paid at such highest rate for 2 hours.
- 4.4.3 Notwithstanding the provisions of clause 4.4.1, where an employee is performing duties of a higher grade as part of a structured and accredited training program such employee shall receive their normal rate of pay only, even though the higher grade work would normally attract a higher rate of pay. Such arrangement shall only continue for the duration of the said training course after which the provisions of clause 4.4.1 shall apply.

4.5 Multi-skilling

- 4.5.1 In recognition of the operational and efficiency requirements of the club industry and to create more varied, better paid and interesting work, it shall be a condition of employment, subject to appropriate training and competency, that each employee shall be available to work as required on any work within their skill, competence and training consistent with the classification structure of this Award (subject to prevailing statutory requirements) and that each employee shall acquire the skills and learn any other job as directed and shall provide instruction and or training as appropriate to another employee as required.
- 4.5.2 Any directions issued by an employer pursuant to the provisions of clause 4.5 shall be consistent with the employers' responsibilities to provide a safe and healthy working environment.

4.6 Cash registers

- 4.6.1 Any employee who is held accountable for monies taken by the employee in a cash register in the course of their duties shall be entitled to lock the drawer, or a relevant compartment, of any such lockable cash register in the event of temporary absence from the vicinity thereof.
- 4.6.2 Detail rolls shall be provided for all cash registers and such employees shall be permitted to read and check the registered sales on the register tape prior to commencing and ceasing each period of duty.

4.7 Incidental or peripheral tasks

- 4.7.1 An employer may direct an employee to carry out such duties as are reasonably within the limits of the employee's skill, competence and training.
- 4.7.2 An employer may direct an employee to carry out such duties and use such tools and equipment as may be required provided that the employee has been properly trained in the use of such tools and equipment (where relevant).
- 4.7.3 Any direction issued by an employer pursuant to clauses 4.7.1 and 4.7.2 shall be consistent with the employer's responsibilities to provide a safe and healthy working environment.

4.7.4 The assignment of incidental or peripheral tasks to an employee or a class of employees shall:

- (a) be consistent with the efficient performance of the employee's main tasks or functions;
- (b) be subject to the employee having the skills or competence to perform the initial tasks;
- (c) have regard to safety at work.

4.8 Anti-discrimination

4.8.1 It is the intention of the parties to this Award to prevent and eliminate discrimination as defined by the Anti-Discrimination Act 1991 and the Industrial Relations Act 1999 as varied from time to time, which includes:

- (a) discrimination on the basis of sex, marital status, family responsibilities, pregnancy, parental status, age, race, impairment, religion, political belief or activity, trade union activity, lawful sexual activity and association with, or relation to, a person identified on the basis of the above attributes;
- (b) sexual harassment; and
- (c) racial and religious vilification.

4.8.2 Accordingly, in fulfilling their obligations under the grievance and disputes settling procedure in clause 3.1, the parties to this Award must take reasonable steps to ensure that neither the Award provisions nor their operation are directly or indirectly discriminatory in their effects.

4.8.3 Under the Anti-Discrimination Act 1991 it is unlawful to victimise an employee because the employee has made or may make or has been involved in a complaint of unlawful discrimination or harassment.

4.8.4 Nothing in clause 4.8 is to be taken to affect:

- (a) any different treatment (or treatment having different outcomes) which is specifically exempted under the Anti-Discrimination Act 1991; or
- (b) an employee, employer or registered organisation, pursuing matters of discrimination, including by application to the Human Rights and Equal Opportunity Commission/Anti-Discrimination Commission Queensland.

4.9 Termination of employment

An employer shall, in the event of termination of employment, provide upon request to the employee who has been terminated a written statement specifying the period of employment and the classification or type of work performed by the employee.

4.9.2 Termination by employer

- (a) An employer may dismiss an employee only if the employee has been given the following notice:

Period of Continuous Service	Period of Notice
Not more than 1 year	1 week
More than 1 year but not more than 3 years	2 weeks
More than 3 years but not more than 5 years	3 weeks
More than 5 years	4 weeks

- (b) In addition to the notice in (a) above, employees 45 years old or over and who have completed at least two years' continuous service with the employer shall be entitled to an additional week's notice.

- (c) Payment in lieu of notice shall be made if the appropriate notice is not given:

Provided that employment may be terminated by part of the period of notice specified and part payment in lieu thereof.

- (d) In calculating any payment in lieu of notice the minimum compensation payable to an employee will be at least the total of the amounts the employer would have been liable to pay the employee if the employee's employment had continued until the end of the required notice period. The total must be worked out on the basis of:

- (i) the ordinary working hours to be worked by the employee; and
 - (ii) the amounts payable to the employee for the hours including for example allowances, loadings and penalties; and
 - (iii) any other amounts payable under the employee's employment contract.
- (e) The period of notice in this clause shall not apply in the case of dismissal for misconduct or other grounds that justify instant dismissal, or in the case of a casual employee, or an employee engaged by the hour or day, or an employee engaged for a specific period or tasks.

4.9.3 Notice of termination by employee

The notice of termination required to be given by an employee shall be the same as that required of an employer, save and except that there shall be no additional notice based on the age of the employee concerned. If an employee fails to give notice, the employer shall have the right to withhold monies due to the employee with a maximum amount equal to the amount the employee would have received under clause 4.9.2.

4.9.4 Time off during notice period

During the period of notice of termination given by the employer, an employee shall be allowed up to one day's time off without loss of pay for the purpose of seeking other employment. This time off shall be taken at times that are convenient to the employee after consultation with the employer.

4.10 Introduction of changes

4.10.1 Employer's duty to notify

- (a) Where an employer decides to introduce changes in production, program, organisation, structure or technology, that are likely to have significant effects on employees, the employer shall notify the employees who may be affected by the proposed changes and, where relevant, their Union or Unions.
- (b) 'Significant effects' includes termination of employment, major changes in the composition, operation or size of the employer's workforce or in the skills required; the elimination or diminution of job opportunities or job tenure; the alteration of hours of work; the need for retraining or transfer of employees to other work or locations and the restructuring of jobs:

Provided that where the Award makes provision for alteration of any of the matters referred to herein an alteration shall be deemed not to have significant effect.

4.10.2 Employer's duty to consult over change

- (a) The employer shall consult the employees affected and, where relevant, their Union or Unions about the introduction of the changes, the effects the changes are likely to have on employees (including the number and categories of employees likely to be dismissed, and the time when, or the period over which, the employer intends to carry out the dismissals), and the ways to avoid or minimise the effects of the changes (e.g. by finding alternate employment).
- (b) The consultation must occur as soon as practicable after making the decision referred to in clause 4.10.1.
- (c) For the purpose of such consultation the employer shall provide in writing to the employees concerned and, where relevant, their Union or Unions, all relevant information about the changes including the nature of the changes proposed, the expected effects of the changes on employees, and any other matters likely to affect employees, provided that any employer shall not be required to disclose confidential information, the disclosure of which would be adverse to the employer's interests.

4.11 Redundancy

4.11.1 Consultation before terminations

- (a) Where an employer decides that the employer no longer wishes the job the employee has been doing to be done by anyone, and this is not due to the ordinary and customary turnover of labour, and that decision may lead to termination of employment, the employer shall consult the employee directly affected and where relevant, their Union or Unions.
- (b) The consultation shall take place as soon as it is practicable after the employer has made a decision, which will invoke the provisions of clause 4.11.1(a) and shall cover the reasons for the proposed terminations, measures to avoid or minimise the terminations and/or their adverse affects on the employees concerned.

- (c) For the purpose of the consultation the employer shall, as soon as practicable, provide in writing to the employees concerned and, where relevant, their Union or Unions, all relevant information about the proposed terminations including the reasons for the proposed terminations, the number and categories of employees likely to be affected, the number of workers normally employed and the period over which the terminations are likely to be carried out:

Provided that any employer shall not be required to disclose confidential information, the disclosure of which would be adverse to the employer's interests.

4.11.2 Transfer to lower paid duties

- (a) Where an employee is transferred to lower paid duties for reasons set out clause 4.11.1 the employee shall be entitled to the same period of notice of transfer as the employee would have been entitled to if the employee's employment had been terminated under clause 4.9.
- (b) The employer may, at the employer's option, make payment in lieu thereof of an amount equal to the difference between the former amounts the employer would have been liable to pay and the new lower amount the employer is liable to pay the employee for the number of weeks of notice still owing.
- (c) The amounts must be worked out on the basis of:
- (i) the ordinary working hours to be worked by the employee; and
 - (ii) the amounts payable to the employee for the hours including for example, allowances, loadings and penalties; and
 - (iii) any other amounts payable under the employee's employment contract.

4.11.3 Transmission of business

- (a) Where a business is, whether before or after the date of insertion of this clause in the Award transmitted from an employer (transmitter) to another employer (transmittee), and an employee who at the time of such transmission was an employee of the transmitter of the business, becomes an employee of the transmittee:
- (i) the continuity of the employment of the employee shall be deemed not to have been broken by reason of such transmission; and
 - (ii) the period of employment which the employee has had with the transmitter or any prior transmitter shall be deemed to be service of the employee with the transmittee.
- (b) In clause 4.11.3, 'business' includes trade, process, business or occupation and includes a part or subsidiary (which means a corporation that would be taken to be a subsidiary under the Corporations Law, whether or not the Corporations Law applies in the particular case) of any such business and 'transmission' includes transfer, conveyance, assignment or succession whether by agreement or by operation of law and 'transmitted' has a corresponding meaning.

4.11.4 Time off during notice period

- (a) Where a decision has been made to terminate an employee in the circumstances outlined in clause 4.11.1, the employee shall be allowed up to one day's time off without loss of pay during each week of notice for the purpose of seeking other employment.
- (b) If the employee has been allowed paid leave for more than one day during the notice period for the purpose of seeking other employment, the employee shall, at the request of the employer, be required to produce proof of attendance at an interview or the employee shall not receive payment for the time absent. For this purpose a statutory declaration will be sufficient.

4.11.5 Notice to Centrelink

Where a decision has been made to terminate employees in the circumstances outlined in clause 4.11.1, the employer shall notify Centrelink as soon as possible giving all relevant information about the proposed terminations, including a written statement of the reasons for the terminations, the number and categories of the employees likely to be affected, the number of workers normally employed and the period over which the terminations are intended to be carried out.

4.11.6 Severance pay

- (a) In addition to the period of notice prescribed for ordinary termination in clause 4.9.2(a), and subject to further order of the Commission, an employee whose employment is terminated for reasons set out in clause 4.11.1(a), shall be entitled to the following amounts of severance pay:

4.11.7 Superannuation benefits

An employer may make an application to the Commission for relief from the obligation to make severance payments in circumstances where:

- (a) the employer has contributed to a superannuation scheme which provides a particular benefit to an employee in a redundancy situation; and
- (b) the particular benefit to the employee is over and above any benefit the employee might obtain from any legislative scheme providing for superannuation benefits (currently the federal Superannuation Guarantee levy) or an award based superannuation scheme.

4.11.8 Employee leaving during notice

An employee whose employment is terminated for reasons set out in clause 4.11.1(a), may terminate such employment during the period of notice, and, if so, shall be entitled to the same benefits and payments under this clause had such employee remained with the employer until the expiry of such notice:

Provided that in such circumstances the employee shall not be entitled to payment in lieu of notice.

4.11.9 Alternative employment

An employer, in a particular case, may make application to the Commission to have the general severance pay prescription amended if the employer obtains acceptable alternative employment for an employee.

4.11.10 Employees with less than one year's service

Clause 4.11 shall not apply to employees with less than one year's continuous service and the general obligation on employers should be no more than to give relevant employees an indication of the impending redundancy at the first reasonable opportunity, and to take such steps as may be reasonable to facilitate the obtaining by the employees of suitable alternative employment.

In a district in which a holiday is not appointed for an annual agricultural, horticultural or industrial show, the employee and employer must agree on an ordinary working day that is to be treated as a show holiday for all purposes.

7.6.4 Double time and a-half

For the purposes of clause 7.6 "double time and a-half" means 1 1/2 day's wages in addition to the employee's ordinary prescribed weekly rate of pay where the rate is a weekly rate or pro rata if there is more or less than a day.

7.6.5 Stand-down

Any employee, with 2 weeks or more of continuous service, whose employment has been terminated by the employer or who has been stood-down by the employer during the month of December, and who is re-employed in January of the following year, shall be entitled to payment at the ordinary rate payable to that employee when they were dismissed or stood-down, for any one or more of the following holidays, namely, Christmas Day, Boxing Day and the 1st January (New Year's Day).

7.6.6 Substitution

Where there is agreement between the employer and the majority of employees concerned, a public holiday may be substituted for another day. If such other day is worked, then payment for that day will be at the rate of double time and a-half at the employees' ordinary time rate of pay.

7.6.7 Should any of the holidays mentioned in clause 7.6.1 fall on an employee's full day off, such employee shall receive another full day off in lieu thereof, or one full day be added to such employee's annual leave, or alternatively, one full day's wages at ordinary rates shall be paid in addition to the weekly wage.

7.7 Jury service

- (a) An employee, other than a casual employee, required to attend for jury service during their ordinary working hours shall be reimbursed by the employer an amount equal to the difference between the amount paid in respect of their attendance for such jury service and the ordinary pay the employee would have been paid if the employee was not absent on jury service.

- (b) Alternatively, by agreement, fees (other than meal allowance) received by the employee to attend jury service will be paid to the employer and the employer will continue to pay the employee their ordinary pay for the time the employee was absent on jury service.
- (c) Employees shall notify their employer as soon as practicable of the date upon which they are required to attend for jury service and shall provide their employer with proof of such attendance, the duration of such attendance and the amount received in respect thereof.
- (d) If the employee is not required to serve on a jury for a day or part of a day after attending for jury service and the employee would ordinarily be working for all or part of the remaining day, the employee must, if practicable, present for work at the earliest reasonable opportunity.
- (e) "Ordinary pay" means the rate of pay that an employee would normally expect to receive for working ordinary hours on an ordinary day of the week, including any over-award payment. "Ordinary pay" excludes overtime, penalty rates of all types - including those attaching to working ordinary hours (for example) on a Saturday, disability allowances, shift allowances, special rates, fares and travelling time allowances, bonuses and other ancillary payments of a like nature.

Schedule 1 replaces IA57 of 1991 The Club Employees' Award - State (Excluding South East Queensland) Flexible Working Hours Etc - Industrial Agreement (1992) 139 QGIG 15.

1.1 Terms and conditions

Notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary contained in the Award as amended from time to time the following shall apply to those Employers and employees to whom Schedule 1 applies.

2.1. Multi-skilling

Permanent and part-time employees may also be engaged on a casual basis for duties in a separate engagement in a separate section of the club to encourage multi-skilling and skill formation. Such employees shall receive a skilling allowance of 25% in addition to their ordinary hourly rate for time so worked:

Provided that such engagement shall be subject to the following conditions:

- (a) That the work required to be performed in the separate engagement is not within the usual job description of the employees concerned;
- (b) The separate engagement is to meet a specific purpose;
- (c) The separate engagement enables the employee to obtain additional remuneration and/or skills and, to this end, where the employee does not possess the necessary skills, training must be provided in accordance with the provisions of the Award;
- (d) The separate engagement must be subject to mutual agreement between the employer and the employee concerned;
- (e) The separate engagement is not designed to avoid overtime obligations, but genuinely meets the tests set out in clauses 2.1(a) to 2.1(d).

3.1 Enterprise bargaining

3.1.1 The parties agree to implement enterprise bargaining in order to establish profitable, efficient and effective high quality services to the club industry. This will require a well paid and secure club industry workforce with the skills to provide the quality services to the club industry.

- (a) At all times terms and conditions of employment will be based upon the specific needs of the enterprise and employees whilst ensuring that all employees enjoy conditions of service, which, in total, will equal or exceed prevailing community standards.
- (b) The club industry and its employees will constantly seek improvements in safety, work organisation, quality, and any other areas which will enhance the quality of the working environment and the effectiveness of the club operations.
- (c) The avoidance of any action which disrupts or impedes delivery of services by the prompt resolution of employee concerns through effective communication and the agreed processes of consultation and grievance handling.

3.1.3 The issues which may be addressed under enterprise bargaining are, but are not limited, to the following matters:

- (a) Terms of engagement
- (b) Casual/part-time employees

- (h) Penalty rates
- (i) Weekend work
- (j) Annualised wages
- (k) Use of trainees

The above represents a process for the parties to confer at the enterprise level. The agenda is not limited in the areas where discussions can occur to improve work place and enterprise flexibility and efficiency.

4.1 Hours of work

4.1.1 The ordinary hours of work shall be an average of 40 hours per week to be worked continuously:

Provided that the arrangement of hours of work of all employees can be implemented in one or a combination of the following:

- (a) 40 hours per week; or
- (b) an average of 80 hours per fortnight; or
- (c) an average of 160 hours per 4 week period:

Provided further that such 4 week period shall not exceed 160 hours and be worked on not more than 20 days.

4.1.2 The number of ordinary hours to be worked each day shall be no less than 4 hours nor more than 8 hours to be worked within a spread of 14 hours per day from commencing time to ceasing time as set out according to a roster prescribed in clause 6.3 of the Award:

Provided that a shift or each work period in excess of 8 ordinary hours as prescribed in clauses 4.1.3 and 4.1.4 shall only be worked following agreement between the Employer and employee.

4.1.3 Where shifts of 10 hours or more per day are rostered for work, employees working such hours shall not be rostered for that work on more than 3 consecutive days without agreement of the employee, and a break of at least 2 days off after 8 shifts must be provided.

4.1.4 The introduction of regular work periods greater than 10 hours per day shall be by agreement in writing between the Employer and the Branch Secretary of the Union, and having cognisance of the ACTU Policy on 12 hour shifts.

A roster showing starting and ceasing times for the ordinary hours of duty of full-time and part-time employees and the times between which the period is allotted for each meal, together with the surname and initials of each employee, shall be prepared by the employer and shall be posted in a conspicuous place or places accessible to the employees concerned. Where practicable, 2 weeks' notice of rostered days off shall be given provided that the days off may be changed by mutual consent or when rendered necessary by the absence of other employees from duty, shortage of staff, or other cause over which the employer has no control and in which cases 12 hours' notice shall be sufficient.

6.1 Rostered days off

6.1.1 Employee/s working on the basis of clause 4.1.1(a) shall be entitled to a minimum of 2 days off in the 7 day period, and where practicable, such days off shall be consecutive, and taken at a time as mutually agreed between the Employer and employee/s.

7.1 Pay averaging

Employees shall be entitled to a week's wages in accordance with clause 5.2 of the Award for each week of the cycle, however the employee and Employer may agree to other arrangements.

8.1 Minimum break between shifts

The roster for all permanent and part-time employees shall provide for a minimum of 10 hours off-duty between the finish of ordinary hours on one day and the commencement of the next ordinary shift for which the employee is rostered for duty. If on the instructions of the Employer such an employee resumes or continues work without having had such 10 consecutive hours off duty, the employee shall be paid double rates until the employee is released from duty for such period and the employee shall then be entitled to be absent until the employee has had 10 consecutive hours off duty without loss of pay for ordinary working time occurring during such absence:

Provided that for the purpose of clause 8.1, 8 hours shall be substituted for 10 hours:

Provided that where an employee has provided themselves with a meal break because of receipt of notice to work overtime and such overtime is not worked, they shall be paid $12.10 for any meal so provided.

9.1.4 When an employee who normally travels to work by public transport is detained at work until it is too late to return to their place of residence by a public conveyance, the Employer shall provide at no cost to the employee, alternative proper conveyance to their place of residence.

9.1.5 Except as hereinafter provided, work performed outside the spread of hours shall be paid at overtime rates.
