2.1.3 Any proposed genuine agreement reached between an employer and employees in an enterprise is contingent upon the agreement being submitted to the Commission in accordance with Chapter 6 of the Act and is to have no force or effect until approval is given.

2.2 Procedures for implementing facilitative provisions

Wherever facilitative provisions appear in this Award which allow for determination of the conditions of employment by agreement between the chief executive and the Union or the chief executive and the majority of employees affected, the following procedures will apply:

2.2.1 Facilitative Award provisions can be negotiated between management and employees who are directly affected by such proposals or between management and the union depending upon the particular Award provisions.

2.2.8 Where the agreement relates to either the working of ordinary hours on other than a Monday to Friday basis, the introduction of shift work or change to the shift roster the relevant Unions are to be notified in writing at least one week in advance of agreement being sought.

PART 3 - COMMUNICATION, CONSULTATION AND DISPUTE MECHANISMS

3.1 Prevention and settlement of disputes

3.1.1 The objectives of this procedure are the avoidance and resolution of any disputes over matters covered by this Award, by measures based on the provision of information and explanation, consultation, co-operation and negotiation.

3.1.2 Subject to legislation, while the dispute procedure is being followed, normal work is to continue except in the case of a genuine safety issue. The status quo existing before the emergence of a dispute is to continue whilst the procedure is being followed. No party will be prejudiced as to the final settlement by the continuation of work.

3.1.3 There is a requirement for management to provide relevant information and explanation and consult with the appropriate employee representatives.

- 3.1.4 In the event of any disagreement between the parties as to the interpretation or implementation of this Award, the following procedures will apply:
- (a) the matter is to be discussed by the employee's Union representative and/or the employee(s) concerned (where appropriate) and the immediate supervisor in the first instance. The discussion should take place within 24 hours and the procedure should not extend beyond 7 days;
 - (b) if the matter is not resolved as per clause 3.1.4(a) above, it may be referred by the Union representative and/or the employee(s) to the appropriate management representative who will arrange a conference of the parties to discuss the matter. This process should not extend beyond 7 days;
 - (c) if the matter remains unresolved it may be referred to the Chief Executive Officer or nominee for discussion and appropriate action. This process should not exceed 14 days;
 - (d) if the matter is not resolved then it may be referred by either party to the Commission for conciliation.
- 3.1.5 Nothing contained in this procedure will prevent Unions or the Queensland Government from intervening in respect of matters in dispute, should such action be considered conducive to achieving resolution.

3.2 Employee grievance procedures

- 3.2.1 The objectives of the procedure are to promote the prompt resolution of grievances by consultation, co-operation and discussion; to reduce the level of disputation; and to promote efficiency, effectiveness and equity in the workplace.
- 3.2.2 This procedure applies to all industrial matters within the meaning of the Act.
- 3.2.3 Stage 1: In the first instance the employee will inform such employee's immediate supervisor of the existence of the grievance, in writing, and they will attempt to solve the grievance. It is recognised that an employee may exercise the right to consult such employee's union representative during the course of Stage 1.
- 3.2.4 Stage 2: If the grievance remains unresolved, the employee may refer the grievance to the next in line management ("the manager"). The manager will consult with the parties. The employee may exercise the right to consult or be represented by such employee's Union representative during the course of Stage 2.
- 3.2.5 Stage 3: If the grievance is still unresolved, the manager will advise the Chief Executive and the aggrieved employee may submit the matter in writing to the Chief Executive of the organisation if such employee wishes to pursue the matter further. If desired by either party, the matter may also be notified to the Union.

The Chief Executive will ensure that:

- (a) the aggrieved employee or such employee's Union representative has the opportunity to present all aspects of the grievance;
- (b) the grievance will be investigated in a thorough, fair and impartial manner.

The Chief Executive may appoint another person to investigate the grievance. The Chief Executive may consult with the Union in appointing an investigating person. The appointed person must be other than the employee's supervisor or manager.

If the matter is notified to the Union, the investigating person may consult with the union during the course of the investigation. The Chief Executive must advise the employee initiating the grievance, such employee's Union representative and any other employee directly concerned of the determinations made as a result of the investigation of the grievance.

The Chief Executive may delegate such Chief Executive's grievance resolution powers under clause 3.2 to a nominated representative.

- 3.2.6 The procedure is to be completed in accordance with the following time frames unless the parties agree otherwise:
- Stage 1 Discussions should take place between the employee and such employee's supervisor within 24 hours and the procedure should not extend beyond 7 days.
 - Stage 2 Not to exceed 7 days.
 - Stage 3 Not to exceed 14 days.

- 3.2.7 If the grievance is not settled the matter may be referred to the Public Service Commissioner or the Commission by the employee or the Union, as appropriate, in accordance with the respective jurisdictions of the tribunals.
- 3.2.8 Subject to legislation, while the grievance procedure is being followed, normal work is to continue, except in the case of a genuine safety issue. The status quo existing before the emergence of a grievance or dispute is to continue while the procedure is being followed. No party will be prejudiced as to the final settlement by the continuation of work.
- 3.2.9 Where the grievance involves allegations of sexual harassment, an employee may commence the procedure at Stage 3.

4.3 Employment categories

4.3.1 Part-time

A part-time employee means an employee who is engaged to work regular hours each fortnight and whose ordinary daily hours are worked inclusive or exclusive of meal times according to operational requirements.

An exception to this is that the fortnightly total of such hours must not exceed an average of 64 hours per fortnight.

Another exception is that such employee must not work more than 8 ordinary hours on any one shift.

The following conditions apply to part-time employees:

- (a) The spread of ordinary working hours must be the same as those prescribed for a full-time employee under this Award.
- (b) A part-time employee must be employed for no less than 8 ordinary hours per fortnight and not more than an average of 64 ordinary hours per fortnight, with a minimum payment as for 4 hours on any one day when work is performed.

Where it is essential for a part-time employee to work beyond the daily approved part-time hours and where the total number of such daily hours worked is 8 or less, such additional hours will be paid for at ordinary rates. Such additional time will be included in calculating pro rata leave entitlements.

Where employees have agreed that the ordinary hours of work are to exceed 8 on any day, under the provisions of clause 6.1, up to 10 hours may be substituted for 8.

- (d) A part-time employee must be paid at the same hourly rate as a full-time employee for performing duties of the same classification. A part-time employee will also be entitled to any allowances applicable based pro rata on the number of hours worked in relation to the ordinary full-time hours applicable to the Award classification provided that the following provisions apply in full:

Fares and travelling allowance clause 8.1

On Call Allowance clause 5.6.2

Meal Allowance clause 6.10.3

- (e) The public holiday provisions of clause 7.7 of this Award will apply, if a part-time employee who usually works on a day of the week on which a public holiday falls, and who is not required to work on that day, must be paid for the hours which would otherwise have been worked on that day.

4.3.2 Casual employment

"Casual Employee" - means an employee other than a part-time employee as defined in this Award, who is engaged as a casual employee and is paid on an hourly basis to work generally for less than the ordinary weekly working hours of a full-time employee.

- (a) The engagement of casual employees will not be utilised by the employer to permanently fill any full-time or part-time position.

- (b) A casual employee will be paid 23% in addition to the ordinary Award rates of pay for the class of work upon which the employee is engaged. Each engagement will stand alone, with a minimum payment as for 2 hours' work made in respect to each engagement. Where applicable, a casual employee will be further entitled to the provisions of overtime, penalty rates and payment for work performed on public holidays. In respect to Sundays, casual employees must be remunerated at the rate of double time and will not be entitled to an additional payment of the 23% casual loading.

The method of calculating overtime and penalty rate payments are as follows:

- (i) Weekend Penalty - Saturday
(Ordinary rate + casual loading) x 1 1/2
 - (ii) Weekend Penalty - Sunday
(Ordinary rate) x 2
Note: Casual loading is not payable on Sundays.

 - (iv) Overtime

(Ordinary rate + casual loading) x 2 after 3 hours
 - (v) Early, Late, Afternoon and Night Shifts
Ordinary rate + casual loading + 15% of ordinary rate on hours that attract penalty rate payments.
- (c) A casual employee is further entitled to payment of any applicable Award allowances, based pro rata on the number of hours worked in relation to the ordinary hours of the Award classification provided that the following provisions apply in full:
- Fares and Travelling Allowance clause 8.1
 - On Call Allowance clause 5.6.2

These circumstances can include periods of relief during the absence of an employee on leave, the employment of additional assistance to meet work load needs for a specific period of time or specific task or tasks.

4.4 Recognition of previous service

The entitlements for recognition of previous service are prescribed under Queensland Health policy section IRM 11.3-2 for long service and sick leave, and IRM 4.2-5 for salary and increment purposes, and apply to employees under this Award

However in calculating length of service for the purpose of fixing salary, any period of probationary service in excess of 12 months for a new employee appointed to the service or in excess of 6 months for an existing employee who has been promoted, resulting from unsatisfactory work performance, must not be included. In calculating such length of service for purposes other than salary, any period of probation, which such employee has served, must be included.

(c) Payment in lieu of notice shall be made if the appropriate notice is not given:

Provided that employment may be terminated by part of the period of notice specified and part payment in lieu thereof.

(d) In calculating any payment in lieu of notice the minimum compensation payable to an employee will be at least the total of the amounts the employer would have been liable to pay the employee if the employee's employment had continued until the end of the required notice period. The total must be worked out on the basis of:

- (i) the ordinary working hours to be worked by the employee; and
- (ii) the amounts payable to the employee for the hours including for example allowances, loadings and penalties; and
- (iii) any other amounts payable under the employee's employment contract.

- (c) Where an employer has complied with the requirements of clause 5.7.7(a) and an eligible employee fails to complete, sign and return the application form within 28 days of the receipt by the employee of that form, then that employer must:
 - (i) Advise an eligible employee in writing of the non-receipt of the application form and further advise the eligible employee that continuing failure to complete, sign and return such form within 14 days could jeopardise any entitlement to the Occupational Superannuation benefit prescribed by this clause.

Where an eligible employee fails to complete, sign and return an application form within such period of 28 days the provisions of clause 5.7.7(c) will apply.
- (e) Unpaid Contributions - Subject to the Act and to clause 5.7.5 of this Award, where the discretion of the Commission has been exercised, should it be established that the employer has failed to comply with the requirements of clause 5.7.2 in respect of any eligible employee such employer will be liable to make the appropriate contributions retrospectively to the date of eligibility of the employee, plus an amount equivalent to the rate of return those contributions would have attracted in the relevant approved Fund, or a necessary Fund to be determined by the Commission under clause 5.7.4 of this Award, had they been paid on the due dates.

The making of such contributions satisfies the requirements of this clause excepting that resort to this provision will not limit any common law action which may be available in relation to death, disablement or any similar cover existing within the terms of a relevant Fund.

If on the instructions of the employer, such an employee resumes or continues work without having had 10 consecutive hours off duty, the employee must be paid double rates until released from duty for such period, and will then be entitled to be absent until 10 consecutive hours off duty have occurred without loss of pay for ordinary working time occurred during such absence.

PART 7 - LEAVE OF ABSENCE AND PUBLIC HOLIDAYS

7.1 Annual leave

7.1.1 (a) Every employee (other than a casual employee) is at the end of each year of such employee's employment entitled to annual leave on full pay of 4 weeks.

(b) Where work is performed on a continuous shift work basis over a period of 7 days per week and the employees engaged in such work perform their duties in the varying shifts allocated in rotation by the officer duly authorised in that regard, every employee so engaged in shift work who has completed a full year of employment is entitled to additional recreation leave at the rate of one week per year in respect of the period during which such shifts have been worked by the employee.

(c) By mutual agreement between the employer and the Union or Unions concerned, employees engaged in the same work unit, within a facility may choose to be allowed an additional one week's leave in lieu of extra payment for work performed upon those holidays as prescribed in clause 7.7.1:

Provided that the granting of the additional week's leave as prescribed in clause 7.1.1(c) is dependent upon the individual employees having completed a full year of employment and having actually worked ordinary rostered hours upon any of the aforementioned public holidays.

Nothing in clause 7.1 will, as from the commencement of this award or from any subsequent date, be construed so as to alter any employee's entitlement to annual leave as prescribed herein unless prior agreement is reached between the employer and the Union or Unions concerned.

(a) Any period of annual leave will be exclusive of any public holiday which may occur during the period of that annual leave unless such public holiday is prescribed in clause 7.7.1(a) and an employee receives the additional annual leave as prescribed in clause 7.1.1(c) of this Award.

The annual leave must be paid for by the employer in advance and in accordance with clause 7.1.4:

In the case of any and every employee in receipt immediately prior to the taking of annual leave ordinary pay at a rate in excess of the ordinary rate payable under this Award at that excess rate; and

In every other case, at the ordinary rate payable to the employee concerned immediately prior to the taking of annual leave under this Award.

(b) If the employment of any employee is terminated before the expiration of a full year of employment, such employee will be allowed a monetary pro rata equivalent, proportional to the period of service, calculated in accordance with clause 7.1.4 of this Award:

Provided that where an employee is entitled to additional leave as prescribed in clauses 7.1.2(b) and/or 7.1.2(c), such additional annual leave must be included in calculating the monetary pro rata equivalent.

(c) All employees will have their annual leave entitlement debited by the number of ordinary hours they would have worked between Christmas Day and New Year's Day inclusive when there is a compulsory closure of Government establishments over the Christmas/New Year period.

7.1.3 Should an employee not take leave in any year, such leave may be granted to the employee in the following year in addition to leave for that year but the total accumulated leave must not exceed 2 years' accrued entitlement.

7.1.4 Calculation of annual leave pay - In respect to annual leave entitlements annual leave pay (including any proportionate payments) will be calculated as follows:

(a) Shift workers - Subject to clauses 7.1.4(b) and (d) the rate of wage to be paid to a shift worker is the rate payable for work in ordinary time according to the employee's roster or projected roster, including Saturday, Sunday or public holiday shifts.

(b) Continuous shift workers - All continuous shift workers, except those Operational Stream staff covered by The Australian Workers' Union of Employees, Queensland, receive a 27 1/2% leave loading in lieu of projected rosters by agreement between the Government and the Public Sector Unions. The following entitlement exists for the payment of the 27 1/2% leave loading:

- Employees who do not work ordinary hours on public holidays -
5 out of 5 weeks.
- Employees who do work ordinary hours on public holidays but do not receive the additional week's leave as provided in clause 7.1.1(c) -
5 out of 5 weeks.
- Employees who do work ordinary hours on public holidays and receive the additional week's leave as provided in clause 7.1.1 (c) -
5 out of 6 weeks.

Those continuous shift workers covered by The Australian Workers' Union of Employees, Queensland as mentioned above are entitled to receive payment for projected rosters. This means the payment of penalties (i.e. weekend, afternoon and night shifts and public holidays) which would have been worked on a projected roster. It does not mean the payment of projected overtime.

The total additional payments made as a result of the projected roster can not fall below the equivalent of 17 1/2% on the number of weeks determined in the preceding paragraph.

The payment of projected rosters is not made for a week's leave which is received as compensation for ordinary work performed on public holidays (clause 7.1.1(c)). Ordinary salary only would be received for this week.

- In this regard, payment for projected rosters and 27 1/2% loading paid in lieu of projected roster should be calculated by averaging payment. Therefore, payment should be 5/6ths of the total projected roster or 5/6ths of the 27 1/2% leave loading paid in lieu of projected rosters as the case may be.
- (c) All Employees - Subject to the provisions of clause 7.1.4(d), in no case will the payment by an employer to an employee be less than the sum of the following amounts -
- (i) The employee's ordinary wage rate as prescribed by the Award for the period of the annual leave (excluding shift premiums and weekend penalty rates);
 - (ii) A further amount calculated at the rate of 17 1/2 per centum of the amounts referred to in 7.1.4(c)(i).
- (d) The provisions of clause 7.1.4(c) do not apply to the following -
- (i) Any period of annual leave exceeding -
 - (A) 5 weeks in the case of employees employed in a calling where 3 shifts per day are worked over a period of 7 days per week; or
 - (B) 4 weeks in any other case.
 - (ii) Employers (and their employees) who are already paying (or receiving) an annual leave bonus, loading or other annual leave payment which is not less favourable to employees.
