PART 2 - FLEXIBILITY

2.1 Consultation

- 2.1.1 The parties to this Award are committed to co-operating positively to increase the efficiency, productivity and competitiveness of the industry covered by this Award and to enhance the career opportunities and job security of employees in the industry.
- 2.1.2 At each enterprise, the employer, the employees and their relevant Industrial Organisation commit themselves to establishing a consultative mechanism and procedures appropriate to the size, structure and needs of that enterprise. Measures raised by the employer, employees or Industrial Organisation for consideration consistent with the objectives of clause 2.1.1 shall be processed through that consultative mechanism and procedures.

2.2 Enterprise flexibility

- 2.2.1 As part of a process of improvement in productivity and efficiency, discussion should take place at each enterprise to provide more flexible working arrangements, improvement in the quality of working life, enhancement of skills, training and job satisfaction and to encourage consultative mechanisms across the workplace.
- 2.2.2 The consultative processes established in an enterprise in accordance with clause 2.1 may provide an appropriate mechanism for consideration of matters relevant to clause 2.2.1. Union delegates at the place of work may be involved in such discussions.
- 2.2.3 Any proposed genuine agreement reached between an employer and employee/s in an enterprise is contingent upon the agreement being submitted to the Commission in accordance with Chapter 6 of the Act and is to have no force or effect until approval is given.

PART 3 - COMMUNICATION, CONSULTATION AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

3.1 Grievance and dispute settling procedures

The matters to be dealt with in this procedure shall include all grievances or disputes between an employee and an employer in respect to any industrial matter and all other matters that the parties agree on and are specified herein. Such procedures shall apply to a single employee or to any number of employees.

- 3.1.1 In the event of an employee having a grievance or dispute the employee shall in the first instance attempt to resolve the matter with the immediate supervisor, who shall respond to such request as soon as reasonably practicable under the circumstances. Where the dispute concerns alleged actions of the immediate supervisor the employee/s may bypass this level in the procedure.
- 3.1.2 If the grievance or dispute is not resolved under clause 3.1.1, the employee or the employee's representative may refer the matter to the next higher level of management for discussion. Such discussion should, if possible, take place within 24 hours after the request by the employee or the employee's representative.
- 3.1.3 If the grievance involves allegations of unlawful discrimination by a supervisor the employee may commence the grievance resolution process by reporting the allegations to the next level of management beyond that of the supervisor concerned. If there is no level of management beyond that involved in the allegation the employee may proceed directly to the process outlined at clause 3.1.5.
- 3.1.4 If the grievance or dispute is still unresolved after discussions mentioned in clause 3.1.2, the matter shall, in the case of a member of an Industrial Organisation, be reported to the relevant officer of that Industrial Organisation and the senior management of the employer or the employer's nominated industrial representative. An employee who is not a member of an Industrial Organisation may report the grievance or dispute to senior management or the nominated industrial representative. This should occur as soon as it is evident that discussions under clause 3.1.2 will not result in resolution of the dispute.
- 3.1.5 If, after discussion between the parties, or their nominees mentioned in clause 3.1.4, the dispute remains unresolved after the parties have genuinely attempted to achieve a settlement thereof, then notification of the existence of the dispute is to be given to the Commission in accordance with the provisions of the Act.
- 3.1.6 Whilst all of the above procedure is being followed, normal work shall continue except in the case of a genuine safety issue.
- 3.1.7 The status quo existing before the emergence of the grievance or dispute is to continue whilst the above procedure is being followed.
- 3.1.8 All parties to the dispute shall give due consideration to matters raised or any suggestion or recommendation made the Commission with a view to the prompt settlement of the dispute.
- 3.1.9 Any Order or Decision of the Commission (subject to the parties' right of appeal under the Act) will be final and binding on all parties to the dispute.

3.1.10 Discussions at any stage of the procedure shall not be unreasonably delayed by any party, subject to acceptance that some matters may be of such complexity or importance that it may take a reasonable period of time for the appropriate response to be made. If genuine discussions are unreasonably delayed or hindered, it shall be open to any party to give notification of the dispute in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

Provided that the part-time employee would have been ordinarily rostered to work on that day had it not been a public holiday.

The payment of sick leave is subject to the employee promptly advising their employer of their absence and its expected duration.

11.3.1 Documentation to be provided by employer

At the point of engagement, the employer shall provide employees with a document indicating that a Statement of Policy on Union Encouragement has been issued by the Commission, a copy of which is to be kept on the Premises of the employer in a place readily accessible by each employee.

The document provided by the employer shall also identify the existence of a union encouragement clause in this Award.

Where arrangements can be entered into, employers are encouraged to provide facilities for the deduction and remittance of union fees for employees who signify in writing to their employer their desire to have such membership fees deducted from their wages.

11.4 Award posting

A true copy of this Award shall be exhibited in a conspicuous and convenient place on the premises of the employer so as to be easily read by employees.

11.5 Trade union training leave

11.5.1 Upon written application by a union delegate or duly elected or appointed union representative, or the relevant Industrial Organisation on behalf of such employee, to an employer and giving to the employer at least one month's notice, such employee shall be granted up to 5 working days' leave (non-cumulative) each calendar year to attend courses and/or seminars conducted or approved by the Union.

11.5.2 Each employee on leave shall be paid all ordinary time earnings which such employee would have been paid had the employee not be absent on such leave.

11.5.3 For the purposes of clause 11.5, "ordinary time earnings" shall mean the ordinary weekly rate of pay payable to the employee exclusive of any disability allowances or penalty payments.

(d) Where an employer has more than one place of employment in Queensland then the maximum number of employees entitled to attend a course at the same time shall be two. This shall not prevent an employer from agreeing to release additional employees.

(e) The granting of such leave shall be subject to the convenience of the employer so that the operations of the enterprise will not be adversely affected.

(f) Where an employer approaches the relevant Industrial Organisation and demonstrates genuine difficulties with respect to the release of a particular union delegate or representative at a particular time (including where the employer might have previously advised of its ability to release such union delegate or representative) the Industrial Organisation will not unreasonably press its request for the release of that delegate/representative at that time. If the matter is not amicably resolved, it shall be processed in accordance with the grievance and dispute settling procedure contained in clause 3.1.

11.5.5 In granting such paid leave, the employer is not responsible for any additional costs except the payment of extra remuneration where relieving arrangements are instituted by the employer to cover the absence of the employee.

11.5.6 Leave granted to attend such training courses will not incur any additional payment or alternate time off if such course coincides with an employee's rostered day off or with any other concessional leave.

11.5.7 Such paid leave will not affect other leave granted to employees under this Award.

11.5.8 On completion of the course the employee shall, upon request, provide to the employer proof of their attendance at the course. Except in the case of sick leave or authorised leave, non-attendance at a training course will result in the employee not being paid for such time.
