2.1 Enterprise flexibility

2.1.1 As part of a process of improvement in productivity and efficiency, discussion should take place at each enterprise to provide more flexible working arrangements, improvement in the quality of working life, enhancement of skills, training and job satisfaction and to encourage consultative mechanisms across the workplace.

2.1.2 The consultative processes established in an enterprise in accordance with clause 2.1 may provide an appropriate mechanism for consideration of matters relevant to clause 2.1.1. Union delegates at the place of work may be involved in such discussions.

2.1.3 Any proposed genuine agreement reached between an employer and employee/s in an enterprise is contingent upon the agreement being submitted to the Commission in accordance with Chapter 6 of the Act and is to have no force or effect until approval is given.

PART 3 - COMMUNICATION, CONSULTATION AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

3.1 Grievance and dispute settling procedure

The matters to be dealt with in this procedure shall include all grievances or disputes between an employee and an employer in respect to any industrial matter and all other matters that the parties agree on and are specified herein.

Such procedures shall apply to a single employee or to any number of employees.

- 3.1.1 In the event of an employee having a grievance or dispute the employee shall in the first instance attempt to resolve the matter with the immediate supervisor, who shall respond to such request as soon as reasonably practicable under the circumstances. Where the dispute concerns alleged actions of the immediate supervisor the employee/s may bypass this level in the procedure.
- 3.1.2 If the grievance or dispute is not resolved under clause 3.1.1, the employee or the employee's representative may refer the matter to the next higher level of management for discussion. Such discussion should, if possible, take place within 24 hours after the request by the employee or the employee's representative.
- 3.1.3 If the grievance involves allegations of unlawful discrimination by a supervisor the employee may commence the grievance resolution process by reporting the allegations to the next level of management beyond that of the supervisor concerned. If there is no level of management beyond that involved in the allegation the employee may proceed directly to the process outlined at clause 3.1.5.
- 3.1.4 If the grievance or dispute is still unresolved after discussions mentioned in clause 3.1.2, the matter shall, in the case of a member of a Union, be reported to the relevant officer of that Union and the senior management of the employer or the employer's nominated industrial representative. An employee who is not a member of the Union may report the grievance or dispute to senior management or the nominated industrial representative. This should occur as soon as it is evident that discussions under clause 3.1.2 will not result in resolution of the dispute.
- 3.1.5 If, after discussion between the parties, or their nominees mentioned in clause 3.1.4, the dispute remains unresolved after the parties have genuinely attempted to achieve a settlement thereof, then notification of the existence of the dispute is to be given to the Commission in accordance with the provisions of the Act.
- 3.1.6 Whilst all of the above procedure is being followed, normal work shall continue except in the case of a genuine safety issue.
- 3.1.7 The status quo existing before the emergence of the grievance or dispute is to continue whilst the above procedure is being followed.
- 3.1.8 All parties to the dispute shall give due consideration to matters raised or any suggestion or recommendation made by the Commission with a view to the prompt settlement of the dispute.
- 3.1.9 Any Order or Decision of the Commission (subject to the parties' right of appeal under the Act) will be final and binding on all parties to the dispute.
- 3.1.10 Discussions at any stage of the procedure shall not be unreasonably delayed by any party, subject to acceptance that some matters may be of such complexity or importance that it may take a reasonable period of time for the appropriate response to be made. If genuine discussions are unreasonably delayed or hindered, it shall be open to any party to give notification of the dispute in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

- (a) Certificate of service - On termination the employer shall provide a certificate stating length of service, status and classification level.
- (b) Recognition of prior learning - In determining the classification level, regard shall be had to the employee's previous training and relevant industry experience. If previous training and relevant industry experience is not recognised, written justification of the employer's decision must be given to the employee in question. (When applying the provisions of clause 5.1.2(b), the parties shall apply the definition of "qualification", found at clause 1.6.4).
- (c) The onus shall be upon the employee to produce such evidence and recognition will lapse if such evidence is not produced within 14 days of engagement.

NOTE: The rates of pay in this Award are intended to include the arbitrated wage adjustment payable under the 1 September 2010 Declaration of General Ruling and earlier Safety Net Adjustments and arbitrated wage adjustments. This arbitrated wage adjustment may be offset against any equivalent amount in rates of pay received by employees whose wages and conditions of employment are regulated by this Award which are above the wage rates prescribed in the Award. Such payments include wages payable pursuant to certified agreements, currently operating enterprise flexibility agreements, Queensland workplace agreements, award amendments to give effect to enterprise agreements and overaward arrangements. Absorption which is contrary to the terms of an agreement is not required.

Increases made under previous State Wage Cases or under the current Statement of Principles, excepting those resulting from enterprise agreements, are not to be used to offset arbitrated wage adjustments.

5.2.2 Implementation of the skill-based classification structure as per the relevant Schedule

The Award parties acknowledge that the above classification structure is a significant advance on its predecessor, in moving to a genuine skill-based Industry Classification system. For example some classifications have been redesignated, aerobics instructors, group exercise or aqua instructors, may now be known as fitness instructors or fitness trainers.

It is further acknowledged that with the introduction of this structure, employers, employees, Fitness Queensland and the Union will co-operate to achieve its effective implementation.

This will require the parties to:

- (a) develop organisational needs analysis strategies to identify the overall skills required by the employer and skills possessed by employees;
- (b) develop a close relationship between the employer, employee and registered training organisations to ensure effective delivery and assessment outcomes;
- (c) initially trial the new skill-based classification structure before widespread introduction across the fitness sector;
- (d) familiarise themselves with new and existing qualifications and any on-going review of various training qualifications;
- (e) where relevant and in accordance with Schedule E Letter of Appointment, reclassify employees from their current position and classification level to their appropriate new classification/wage level consistent with the employer's merit-based recruitment and selection process;
- (f) identify any existing employee that does not possess the relevant cumulative experience, autonomy, decision-making capacity and/or qualification in terms of their classification level;
- (g) ensure that no employee is disadvantaged by the introduction of the new skill-based classification structure;
- (h) ensure employees are working within their level of skill and competence and safety limits; and
- (i) resolve any difficulties or problems associated with the implementation of the new classification structure in accordance with the grievance and dispute settling procedure contained in clause 3.1.

5.2.3 Translation and movement between classification levels

Progression from one level to another will occur through appointment by an employer to a position which primarily requires the exercise of skills and responsibilities characteristic of a particular level. Accordingly the employer shall have regard to the following principles:

- (a) the level of supervision, autonomy, problem solving and decision-making capability relevant to and within each classification level;
- (b) the overall requirements of the job consistent with employer human relations strategies and business needs;

- (c) possession of qualifications and/or relevant industry experience and the ability to satisfactorily apply their competencies to the job on a regular basis (where applicable);
- (d) payment for skills required and used on a regular basis and not skills and/or qualifications possessed; and
- (e) regular operation and/or maintenance of equipment.

In view of the above, re-classification does not automatically occur when particular tasks or new tasks are performed.

All existing employees will be classified in accordance with the relevant Schedule. Translation of existing employees to the new classification structure does not assume or equate the employee's skill level with the skill standard as indicated by the classification level.

The Award parties shall work to ensure that no employee will be disadvantaged or suffer a reduction in their hourly rate of pay by virtue of the introduction of the new skill-based classification level:

- (a) employees seeking re-classification to a higher level must provide evidence to satisfy all or most of the principles stated above. Evidence would include assessment outcomes in the form of a qualification or statement of attainment issued by a registered training organisation, RPL determinations or other methods or processes that the employer may develop consistent with human resource strategies.
- (b) any dispute arising from the operation of these arrangements shall be subject to the grievance and dispute settlement procedure contained in clause 3.1.

5.2.4 Supervisory allowance for support staff - Staff who are required to supervise other support staff shall receive the following amounts:

	Per Week
Up to and including 3 employees supervised	15.20
More than 3 employees supervised	22.80

5.2.5 All employees classified as a fitness industry worker Level 2 or above, required to perform the functions of Group/Aqua Instructor shall receive an additional payment equal to 60% of their ordinary hourly rate. This additional payment:

- (a) shall be used for all purposes to calculate entitlements, including casual hourly rates of pay, arising from this Award;
- (b) be paid for a minimum of one hour on all occasions; and
- (c) notwithstanding the other provisions of this Award, the hourly rates payable to employees who are required to perform the functions of Group/Aqua Instructor*, shall be paid not less than as follows:

	Casual	Other
Level 3	$26.74	$21.73

Note: This provision is designed to preserve hourly rates based on the rates of the rescinded Award that operated prior to the making of this Award for the classification of Aerobics Instructor - Level 2. It is acknowledged that State Wage Cases or other increases after 1 December 2004 will be absorbed into these rates, so that rates in clause 5.2.5(c) never increase and will ultimately become redundant.

5.2.6 Junior rates - The minimum weekly wage rate payable to junior employees shall be the age related percentage of the appropriate minimum weekly rate prescribed in clause 5.2.1 for the classification of work being performed by the employee. Notwithstanding the above, junior rates shall only apply to persons classified in Schedule A with no formal qualifications and to persons classified as juniors, within Schedules B, C and D.

5.2.7 Divisional and District parities

Employees employed outside the Eastern District of the Southern Division shall be paid the following amounts in addition to the wage rates prescribed by clause 5.2.1 for the Division or District in which they are located:

	Adults Per Hour $	Adults Per Week $	Juniors Per Hour $	Juniors Per Week $
Northern Division, Eastern District	0.0275	1.05	0.0140	0.53

These amounts are payable for all purposes of this Award.

5.3 Payment of wages

5.3.1 Wages may be paid weekly or fortnightly in cash, or by mutual agreement, into a nominated bank account of the employee's choosing, or by any other mutually agreed method. No more than 3 days' wages shall be kept in hand by the employer.

(a) An employee who terminates after giving or receiving the required notice shall be paid all monies owing by close of business of the final day of employment.

(b) An employee who terminates without notice shall be paid on or before the next scheduled pay day.

- (c) In the event of any dispute over whether any fund complies with the requirements of clause 5.4, the onus of proof shall rest upon the employer.

5.4.5 Fund selection

- (a) No employer shall be required to make or be prevented from making, at any one time, contributions into more than one approved fund. Such fund, other than a fund referred to in clauses 5.4.3(a)(ix), (x), (xi), (xii) and 5.4.3(b), shall be determined by a majority decision of employees.
- (b) Employees who are members of an established fund covered by clause 5.4.3 shall have the right by majority decision to choose to have the contributions specified in clause 5.4.1 paid into a fund as provided for elsewhere in clause 5.4.3 in lieu of the established fund to which clause 5.4.3 has application.
- (c) The initial selection of a fund recognised in clause 5.4.3 shall not preclude a subsequent decision by the majority of employees in favour of another fund recognised under that clause where the long-term performance of the fund is clearly disappointing.
- (d) Where this provision has been utilised and as a result another approved fund is determined, access to a further re-appraisal of the fund for the purpose of favouring yet another fund shall not be available until a period of 3 years has elapsed after that utilisation of this provision.

- (a) Each employer to whom clause 5.4 applies shall as soon as practicable as to both current and future eligible employees:
 - (i) notify each employee of the employee's entitlement to occupational superannuation;
 - (ii) consult as may be necessary to facilitate the selection by employees of an appropriate fund within the meaning of clause 5.4.3;

- (c) Where an employer has complied with the requirements of clause 5.4.6(a) and an eligible employee fails to complete, sign and return the application form/s within 28 days of the receipt by the employee of that form/s, then that employer shall:
- (i) advise the eligible employee in writing of the non-receipt of the application form/s and further advise the eligible employee that continuing failure to complete, sign and return such form/s within 14 days could jeopardise the employee's entitlement to the occupational superannuation benefit prescribed by clause 5.4.
 - (ii) in the event that the eligible employee fails to complete, sign and return such application form/s within the specified period of 14 days be under no obligation to make any occupational superannuation contributions in respect of such eligible employee excepting as from any subsequent date from which the completed and signed application form/s is received by the employer.

 - (iv) at the same time as advising the eligible employee pursuant to clause 5.4.6(c)(iii) submit both to the Chief Industrial Inspector, Brisbane and to the Union a copy of each letter forwarded by the employer to the eligible employee pursuant to clauses 5.4.6(c)(i) and 5.4.6(c)(iii).

5.4.7 Unpaid contributions

Subject to Chapter 11, Part 2, Division 5 of the Act and to clause 5.4.4, where the discretion of the Commission has been exercised, should it be established that the employer has failed to comply with the requirements of clause 5.4.1 in respect of any eligible employee such employer shall be liable to make the appropriate contributions retrospectively to the date of eligibility of the employee, plus an amount equivalent to the rate of return those contributions would have attracted in the relevant approved fund, or as necessary a fund to be determined by the Commission under clause 5.4.4, had they been paid on the due dates.

The making of such contributions satisfies the requirements of clause 5.4 excepting that resort to clause 5.4.7 shall not limit any common law action which may be available in relation to death, disablement or any similar cover existing within the terms of a relevant fund.

5.4.8 Employer contributions claim being made or any lesser period actually worked.

5.4.10 Employee contributions

- (a) An employee may make contributions additional to those made by the employer under clause 5.4.8(a). To do so the employee must authorise the employer in writing to pay into the fund, from the employee's wages, a specified amount in accordance with the fund trust deed and rules.
- (b) If the employer receives such written authorisation, either initial or subsequent, from the employee, it must commence making payments into the fund on behalf of the employee within 14 days of receipt of the authorisation.

6.2 Meal breaks

6.2.1 Except as hereinafter provided, every employee shall be entitled to a meal break of not less than 30 minutes nor more than one hour for breakfast, lunch or dinner. No employee shall work for more than 5 hours without a meal break except where overtime of one and a-half hour's duration or less is being worked immediately following an employee's ordinary ceasing time.

6.2.2 Where an employee is required to work through their normal meal break, the employee shall be paid at the rate of double time for all work so performed, and such double time shall continue to be paid until such time as a 30 minute break can be taken, or until the employee ceases work for the day.

6.3.1 Weekly employees shall receive a rest pause of 10 minutes' duration in the employer's time in the first half and second half of each day worked.

6.3.2 Casual employees who work a minimum of 4 consecutive ordinary hours but less than 7.5 consecutive ordinary hours on any one day shall receive a rest pause of 10 minutes' duration. 6.3.3 Rest pauses shall be taken in the employer's time.

6.3.4 Rest pauses shall be taken at times to suit the convenience of the employer and so as not to interfere with the continuity of work where continuity is necessary.

6.3.5 Notwithstanding the provisions of clause 6.3.1, where the employer and employees agree, the rest pauses may be combined so that the employee has one rest pause of 20 minutes' duration.

6.4 Overtime

6.4.1 All time worked by employees in excess of arranged daily hours, or outside of or in excess of ordinary hours, shall be paid for at time and a-half for the first 3 hours and double time thereafter.

6.4.2 All time worked by employees, other than casuals, on arranged days off shall be paid for at time and a-half for the first 3 hours and double time thereafter.

6.4.3 An employer may require an employee to work reasonable overtime at overtime rates and such an employee as a condition of employment shall work overtime in accordance with such requirement.

6.5 Meal allowance

An employee, other than a casual, required to work overtime for more than 2 hours after the cessation of their daily work shall be paid a meal allowance of $12.10 for a meal. This allowance shall not apply where the employer provides a meal.

6.6 Weekend penalty rates

6.6.1 All ordinary time worked by employees, including casual employees, between midnight Friday and midnight Saturday, shall be paid for at the rate of time and a-quarter. All time worked between midnight Saturday and midnight Sunday shall be paid for at the rate of time and a-half.

6.6.2 Casual loadings shall not be applied to hourly rates when calculating entitlements for work performed on weekends and public holidays.

PART 7 - LEAVE OF ABSENCE AND PUBLIC HOLIDAYS

7.1 Annual leave

7.1.1 Every employee, other than a casual employee, shall at the end of each year of their employment be entitled to not less than 4 weeks' annual leave on full pay.

7.1.2 Such annual leave shall be exclusive of any public holiday which may occur during the period of that annual leave and (subject to clause 7.1.6) shall be paid for by the employer in advance:

(a) In the case of any and every employee in receipt immediately prior to that leave of ordinary wages at a rate in excess of the ordinary rate payable, at that excess rate; and

(b) In every other case, at the ordinary time rate of pay payable under clause 5.2 to the employee concerned immediately prior to that leave.

7.1.3 If the employment of any employee is terminated at the expiration of a full year of employment, the employer shall be deemed to have given the leave to the employee from the date of the termination of the employment and shall immediately pay to the employee, in addition to all other amounts due to them, their pay, calculated in accordance with clause 7.1.6, for 4 weeks and also their ordinary time rate of pay for any public holiday occurring during such period of 4 weeks.

7.1.4 If the employment of any employee is terminated before the expiration of a full year of employment, such employee shall be paid, in addition to all other amounts due, an amount equal to 1/12th of their pay for the period of their employment, calculated in accordance with clause 7.1.6.

7.1.5 Unless the employee shall otherwise agree, the employer shall give the employee at least 14 days' notice of the date from which such employee's annual leave shall be taken.

7.1.6 Calculation of annual leave pay

(a) All employees - Subject to the provisions of clause 7.1.6(b), in no case shall the payment by an employer to an employee be less than the sum of the following amounts:

(i) the employee's ordinary wage rate as prescribed in clause 5.2 for the period of the annual leave (excluding weekend penalty rates); and

(ii) a further amount calculated at the rate of 17.5% of the amount referred to in clause 7.1.6(a)(i).

(b) Clause 7.1.6(a) does not apply to:

(i) any period or periods of annual leave exceeding 4 weeks; and

(ii) employers (and their employees) who are already paying (or receiving) an annual leave bonus, loading or other annual leave payment which is not less favourable to employees.

7.1.7 An employer may, by giving not less than 2 months' notice of their intention to do so, close down the business or section or sections thereof for one complete period or 2 separate periods, as aforesaid, for the purpose of allowing annual leave to all or the bulk of the employees in the business or section or sections concerned. Employees not entitled to annual leave to cover all of the period of close-down may enter into a mutual arrangement with their employer.

7.1.8 If an employee and employer so agree, annual leave may be taken wholly or partly in advance before the employee has become entitled to annual leave.

An employee who has taken in advance the whole of the annual leave that would be due at the end of a year of employment, is not entitled to any further annual leave at the end of that year of employment.

An employee who has taken in advance part of the annual leave that would be due at the end of a year of employment, becomes entitled at the end of that year of employment to the part of the annual leave not already taken.

7.1.9 An employer and employee may agree as to the time when, and the manner in which the employee's leave is to be given and taken, unless clause 7.1.7 applies.

Unless an employer and employee otherwise agree, an employer may give to an employee notice, which must be of at least 14 days, of the date on and from which the employee's annual leave is to be taken, and the employee is to comply with such notice.

7.2 Sick leave

7.2.1 Entitlement

(a) Every employee, except casuals and school-based apprentices and trainees, is entitled to 60.8 hours' sick leave for each completed year of their employment with their employer:

- (b) This entitlement will accrue at the rate of 7.6 hours' sick leave for each 6 weeks of employment.
- (c) Payment for sick leave will be made based on the number of hours that would have been worked by the employee if the employee were not absent on sick leave.
- (d) Sick leave may be taken for part of a day.
- (e) Sick leave shall be cumulative, but unless the employer and employee otherwise agree, no employee shall be entitled to receive, and no employer shall be bound to make, payment for more than 13 weeks' absence from work through illness in any one year.

7.2.2 Employee must give notice

The payment of sick leave is subject to the employee promptly advising the employer of the employee's absence and its expected duration.

7.2.3 Evidence supporting a claim

When the employee's absence is for more than 2 days the employee is required to give the employer a doctor's certificate, or other reasonably acceptable evidence, about the nature and approximate duration of the illness.

7.2.4 Accumulated sick leave

An employee's accumulated sick leave entitlements are preserved when:

- (a) the employee is absent from work on unpaid leave granted by the employer;
- (b) the employer or employee terminates the employee's employment and the employee is re-employed within 3 months; or
- (c) the employee's employment is terminated because of illness or injury and the employee is re-employed by the same employer without having been employed in the interim.

The employee accumulates sick leave entitlements whilst absent from work on paid leave granted by the employer.

7.2.5 Workers' compensation

Where an employee is in receipt of workers' compensation, the employee is not entitled to payment of sick leave.

Your engagement as a casual employee could be terminated for any one or all of the following reasons: Provided that nothing may prevent your employment being terminated for a reason that is not listed here.* See Note 4 below.	Shortage of Work, Redundancy, Unsatisfactory Performance/Conduct, Conversion to permanent employment Any other reason - List Below
---	---

Note 1: Weekly employees may work at different Wage Levels under the two or more classes of work concept and casuals may also be engaged on work at various Wage Levels requiring different skills, responsibilities and rates of pay.

Note 2: It is accepted that for full-time and part-time employees, hours of work may change according to a roster or by mutual agreement. For casual employees work may be on an "as required basis" in which case the starting and ceasing times or hours of work could vary. Where the starting and ceasing times or hours of work could vary, it is acceptable to simply state "could vary as required, or by agreement".

Note 3: This information is a guide only, referring to the wage level or rate of pay that a casual employee was to receive at the time of the first engagement. It is accepted that rates of pay will vary if employees are engaged on different levels of work. There is no need to issue a casual with a separate employment contract every time their level of work (and possibly rate of pay) changes as required.

Note 4: If you are a casual employee you will be provided as much notice as possible if your employment is terminated provided that your employment may be terminated with the provision of one hours' notice or pay in lieu.
