PART 2 - FLEXIBILITY

2.1 Enterprise flexibility

2.1.1 As part of the structural efficiency exercise and as an ongoing process, discussions concerning improvements in productivity and efficiency should take place at an enterprise to provide more flexible working arrangements, improvement in the quality of working life, enhancement of skills, training and job satisfaction, and positive assistance in the restructuring process and to encourage consultative mechanisms across the workplace to all employees in an enterprise and consideration of a single bargaining unit in all multi-union or multi-award workplaces.

2.1.2 The consultative processes established in an enterprise in terms of this Award may provide an appropriate mechanism for consideration of matters relevant to clause 2.1. Union delegates at the place of work may be involved in such discussions.

2.1.3 Any proposed genuine agreement reached between an employer and employee(s) in any enterprise is contingent upon:

- (a) a majority of employees affected genuinely agreeing to the changes;
- (b) the agreement being consistent with the current State Wage Case principles;
- (c) the relevant union or unions (of employees or employers) being invited to participate in any discussions which involve alterations to Award conditions, (and may be a party to any resultant agreement);

(d) changes sought in such agreements not affecting Award provisions reflecting currently established standards of the Commission;

(e) parties to such agreements acknowledging that the Commission does not intend that any employee should lose any existing entitlement to earnings, award or overaward, for working ordinary hours of work as a result of any award changes made as part of the implementation of the Structural Efficiency Principle.

2.1.4 The relevant industrial organisations (of employees or employers) shall not unreasonably withhold consent to an agreement reached between the parties.

2.1.5 As the enterprise agreement purports to alter Award conditions:

(a) It is to be the subject of an application to the Commission for approval and is to have no force or effect until approval is given;

(b) The relevant industrial organisations of employees (and where appropriate of employers) are to be advised of such an application, its contents and the date of hearing.

2.1.6 Upon approval being given by the Commission the agreement shall be inserted as a certified agreement (as a schedule or otherwise) and take precedence over any provision of relevant and named Award to the extent of any inconsistency therewith:

(a) thereafter the agreement will have the effect of a certified agreement and is to be posted and displayed as required;

(b) if the agreement is not approved it shall have no force or effect but may be remitted to the parties for further consideration.

2.1.7 Upon exhaustion of grievance procedure processes any disputed areas are subject to conciliation, mediation or arbitration.

2.2 Local agreements

2.2.1 As part of the structural efficiency exercise and as an on-going process and subject to clause 3.1, the parties agree that discussion should take place, at a local level to provide more flexible working arrangements, improvement in the quality of working life, enhancement of skills, training and job satisfaction, and to suit the needs of each enterprise.

2.2.2 By agreement between the employer and employees, and in consultation with the signatories to this Award, local arrangements can be reached involving and not limited to the following matters:

The introduction of local arrangements shall be based on the following conditions:

- (b) the of employees must genuinely agree to the implementation of such arrangements;
- (c) the parties to this Award shall not unreasonably oppose any agreement;

The agreements will be governed by the following requirements:

- (a) the ordinary working hours may be an average of 152 hours over a 4 week cycle, or over 52 weeks per year;

Full-time and part-time employees may be separately engaged as casual employees for duties in a separate section of the establishment from that in which the employee engages in their full-time or part-time employment. Such employees shall be paid the appropriate rate of pay for a casual employee engaged in the section of the establishment.

For the purposes of clause 2.4 a "section of the establishment" means a work location other than the employee's usual work location, or alternatively, means a discrete set of duties other than the employee's usual duties, provided such duties are not wholly or substantially performed in the employees usual work location, and shall not apply to work where overtime would normally be performed.

2.5 Multi-skilling

In recognition of the operational and efficiency requirements of respondent employers, and to create more varied better paid and interesting work, it shall be a condition of employment, subject to appropriate training and competency, that each employee shall be available to work as required on any work within the employee's skill, competence and training consistent with the classification structure of this Award (subject to prevailing statutory requirements) and that each employee shall acquire the skills and learn any other job as directed and shall provide instruction and or training as appropriate to another employee as required.

Any directions issued by an employer pursuant to the provisions of clause 2.5 shall be consistent with the employers' responsibilities to provide a safe and healthy working environment.

PART 3 - COMMUNICATION, CONSULTATION AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

3.1.1 The parties to this Award are committed to co-operating positively to increase the efficiency, productivity and competitiveness of the industries covered by this Award and to enhance the career opportunities and job security of employees in such industries.

3.2 Grievance and dispute settling procedure

The matters to be dealt with in this procedure shall include all grievances or disputes between an employee and an employer in respect to any industrial matter and all other matters that the parties agree on and are specified herein. Such procedures shall apply to a single employee or to any number of employees.

3.2.1 In the event of an employee having a grievance or dispute the employee shall in the first instance attempt to resolve the matter with the immediate supervisor, who shall respond to such request as soon as reasonably practicable under the circumstances. Where the dispute concerns alleged actions of the immediate supervisor the employee/s may bypass this level in the procedure.

3.2.2 If the grievance or dispute is not resolved under clause 3.2.1, the employee or the employee's representative may refer the matter to the next higher level of management for discussion. Such discussion should, if possible, take place within 24 hours after the request by the employee or the employee's representative.

3.2.3 If the grievance involves allegations of unlawful discrimination by a supervisor the employee may commence the grievance resolution process by reporting the allegations to the next level of management beyond that of the supervisor concerned. If there is no level of management beyond that involved in the allegation the employee may proceed directly to the process outlined at clause 3.2.5.

3.2.4 If the grievance or dispute is still unresolved after discussions mentioned in clause 3.2.2, the matter shall, in the case of a member of a Union, be reported to the relevant officer of that Union and the senior management of the employer or the employer's nominated industrial representative. An employee who is not a member of the Union may report the grievance or dispute to senior management or the nominated industrial representative. This should occur as soon as it is evident that discussions under clause 3.2.2 will not result in resolution of the dispute.

3.2.5 If, after discussion between the parties, or their nominees mentioned in clause 3.2.4, the dispute remains unresolved after the parties have genuinely attempted to achieve a settlement thereof, then notification of the existence of the dispute is to be given to the Commission in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

3.2.6 Whilst all of the above procedure is being followed, normal work shall continue except in the case of a genuine safety issue.

3.2.7 The status quo existing before the emergence of the grievance or dispute is to continue whilst the above procedure is being followed.

3.2.8 All parties to the dispute shall give due consideration to matters raised or any suggestion or recommendation made by the Commission with a view to the prompt settlement of the dispute.

3.2.9 Any Order or Decision of the Commission (subject to the parties' right of appeal under the Act) will be final and binding on all parties to the dispute.

3.2.10 Discussions at any stage of the procedure shall not be unreasonably delayed by any party, subject to acceptance that some matters may be of such complexity or importance that it may take a reasonable period of time for the appropriate response to be made. If genuine discussions are unreasonably delayed or hindered, it shall be open to any party to give notification of the dispute in accordance with the provisions of the Act.
