Such Agreements shall continue in force and have legal effect until terminated in accordance with the Act.

PART 2 - FLEXIBILITY

2.1 Enterprise flexibility

- 2.1.1 As part of a process of improvement in productivity and efficiency, discussion should take place at an enterprise to provide more flexible working arrangements, improvement in the quality of working life, enhancement of skills, training and job satisfaction and to encourage consultative mechanisms across the workplace.
- 2.1.2 The consultative processes established in an enterprise in accordance with clause 2.1 may provide an appropriate mechanism for consideration of matters relevant to clause 2.1.1. Union delegates at the place of work may be involved in such discussions.
- 2.1.3 Any proposed genuine agreement reached between an Employer and employee/s in any enterprise is contingent upon the agreement being submitted to the Commission in accordance with Chapter 6 of the Act and is to have no force or effect until approval is given.

PART 3 - COMMUNICATION, CONSULTATION AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

3.1 Workplace consultation

At each workplace, a mechanism to facilitate workplace consultation shall be established. Such mechanism shall be appropriate to the size and structure of the Employer and have the aim of encouraging communication between the Employer and its employees.

3.2 Grievance and dispute settling procedure

The matters to be dealt with in this procedure shall include all grievances or disputes between an employee and an Employer in respect to any industrial matter and all other matters that the parties agree on and are specified herein. Such procedures shall apply to a single employee or to any number of employees.

- 3.2.1 In the event of an employee having a grievance or dispute the employee shall in the first instance attempt to resolve the matter with the immediate supervisor, who shall respond to such request as soon as reasonably practicable under the circumstances. Where the dispute concerns alleged actions of the immediate supervisor the employee/s may bypass this level in the procedure.
- 3.2.2 If the grievance or dispute is not resolved under clause 3.2.1, the employee or the employee's representative may refer the matter to the next higher level of management for discussion. Such discussion should, if possible, take place within 24 hours after the request by the employee or the employee's representative.
- 3.2.3 If the grievance involves allegations of unlawful discrimination by a supervisor the employee may commence the grievance resolution process by reporting the allegations to the next level of management beyond that of the supervisor concerned. If there is no level of management beyond that involved in the allegation the employee may proceed directly to the process outlined at clause 3.2.5.
- 3.2.4 If the grievance or dispute is still unresolved after discussions mentioned in clause 3.2.2, the matter shall, in the case of a member of a Union, be reported to the relevant officer of that Union and the senior management of the Employer or the Local Government Association of Queensland Inc. An employee who is not a member of a Union may report the grievance or dispute to senior management. This should occur as soon as it is evident that discussions under clause 3.2.2 will not result in resolution of the dispute and where practicable should take place within 7 days.
- 3.2.5 If, after discussion between the parties, or their nominees mentioned in clause 3.2.4, the dispute remains unresolved after the parties have genuinely attempted to achieve a settlement, then notification of the existence of the dispute may be given to the Commission in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

- 3.2.6 Whilst all of the above procedure is being followed, normal work shall continue except in the case of a genuine safety issue.
- 3.2.7 The status quo existing before the emergence of the grievance or dispute is to continue whilst the above procedure is being followed, provided that clause 3.2.7 shall not prejudice the rights or duties of the employee or employer.
- 3.2.8 All parties shall give due consideration to matters raised or any suggestion or recommendation made by the Commission with a view to the prompt settlement of the dispute.
- 3.2.9 Any Order or Decision of the Commission (subject to the parties' right of appeal under the Act) will be final and binding on all parties to the dispute.
- 3.2.10 Discussions at any stage of the procedure shall not be unreasonably delayed by any party, subject to acceptance that some matters may be of such complexity or importance that it may take a reasonable period of time for the appropriate response to be made. If genuine discussions are unreasonably delayed or hindered, it shall be open to any party to give notification of the dispute in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

Provided that casual employees engaged at cemeteries or on hospitality, cleaning or caretaking activities shall receive a minimum payment of 2 hours for each engagement.

Provided that employment may be terminated by part of the period of notice specified and part payment in lieu thereof.

(d) In calculating any payment in lieu of notice the minimum compensation payable to an employee will be at least the total of the amounts the employer would have been liable to pay the employee if the employee's employment had continued until the end of the required notice period. The total must be worked out on the basis of:

- (i) the ordinary working hours to be worked by the employee; and
- (ii) the amounts payable to the employee for the hours including for example allowances, loadings and penalties; and
- (iii) any other amounts payable under the employee's employment contract.

(e) The period of notice in this clause shall not apply in the case of dismissal for misconduct or other grounds that justify instant dismissal, or in the case of a casual employee, or an employee engaged by the hour or day, or an employee engaged for a specific period or tasks.

4.8.3 Notice of termination by employee

- (b) The consultation shall take place as soon as it is practicable after the employer has made a decision, which will invoke the provisions of clause 4.10.1(a) and shall cover the reasons for the proposed terminations, measures to avoid or minimise the terminations and/or their adverse effects on the employees concerned.

For this purpose a statutory declaration will be sufficient.

4.10.5 Notice to Centrelink

Where a decision has been made to terminate employees in the circumstances outlined in clause 4.10.1, the employer shall notify Centrelink as soon as possible giving all relevant information about the proposed terminations, including a written statement of the reasons for the terminations, the number and categories of the employees likely to be affected, the number of workers normally employed and the period over which the terminations are intended to be carried out.

Column 2 and Column 6 prescribe the kilometre rate for vehicles in excess of 10 tonnes for any working distance in excess of the kilometres shown in Columns 4 and 8 for each period of ordinary weekly hours.

Columns 4 and 8 prescribe the minimum number of working kilometres which must be performed before the excess kilometre rate as shown in Columns 2 and 6 applies.

Columns 3 and 7 prescribe the minimum weekly rate that shall be paid for each period of ordinary weekly hours except where such rate is less than that prescribed in Columns 1 and 5.

(b) Part B

The hire rate to be paid shall be in accordance with the payload capacity of the vehicle which is determined by subtracting the tare mass from the gross vehicle mass registered under the Transport Operations (Road Use Management) Act 1995 and as indicated on the vehicles registration certificate:

Provided that no load shall exceed the limit prescribed by or under any Queensland State Act:

Provided further that for any periods of more or less than the ordinary weekly hours and/or days a pro rata adjustment to the basic weekly rate as shown in Column 1 Tip Trucks and Column 5 Non Tip Trucks shall be made before calculating any additional kilometric payment.

The truck hire rate shall be calculated in accordance with either of the following formulae, whichever is the greater.

THR = The greater of A or B

where -

$$(i) \quad A = \left[\{WR - (700 \times S)\} \frac{H}{Z} \right] + [20 \times P \times S] + [S(600 \times \frac{H}{Z})] + [Y \text{ (only if + ve, otherwise ignore)}]$$

$$(ii) \quad B = NR \times \frac{H}{Z}$$

(iii) where -

THR is the Truck Hire Rate.

WR is the weekly rate ($) (Column 1 or Column 5).

S is the kilometre rate ($) (Column 2 or Column 6).

H is the actual time worked expressed in hours or part thereof.

Z is the ordinary weekly hours for a normal working week.

D is the actual number of working kilometres performed during the hire period.

NR is the non-reduction rate (Column 3 or Column 7).

(c) Part C - Hydraulic crane hire

Owner Drivers whose vehicle is fitted with a hydraulic crane shall be paid an additional hire rate component on days when the vehicle is engaged to perform work which requires the use of the crane.

Crane Capacity	Rate Per Day	Recommended Truck Size
Up to 1 tonne metre	7.59	Up to 2-3 tonne
Over 1 tonne metre but less than or equal to 2 tonne metre	9.36	3-4 t to 5-6 t
Over 2 tonne metre but less than or equal to 3 tonne metre	15.46	6-7 t to 7-8 t
Over 3 tonne metre but less than or equal to 4 tonne metre	17.50	8-9 t to 10-11 t
Over 4 tonne metre	19.53	11-12 t and above

The hire rate component payable shall be determined by the crane capacity except where a crane is fitted which exceeds the legally recommended capacity for that vehicle. In such instances, the hire rate to be paid shall be the rate applicable to the maximum crane capacity recommended for that vehicle:

Provided that at times when the crane is not in use the vehicle weekly hire rate will be paid at the appropriate rate as specified in Part A of this Schedule calculated at the registered Gross Vehicle Mass less Vehicle Tare

(d) Part D - Water tank and pump hire

When at the request or direction of the Employer, an owner truck driver uses their own water tank or their own water tank and pump on the job, the Employer shall pay the owner driver the amount of $3.87 per hour for each hour that the owner driver's tank or their own water tank and pump are in use on the job.
