 - (ii) At the time of termination by either party under any circumstances.
 - (e) Subject to prior approval by the employer, an employee may be granted time off notwithstanding that such time has not been worked as overtime in accordance with clause 6.6.1.

The employer shall pay the employee's salary as if the employee worked ordinary hours during such time off.

- (f) Where an employee takes time off in accordance with clause 6.6.5(e) the employer shall offer the employee reasonable opportunities to make up the period of time off within 4 weeks of the time off being taken:

Provided that where the employee has been offered reasonable opportunities to make up the period of time off, and does not make up the time off, the employer may reduce the pay of the employee by the amount of such time off taken after having first advised the employee in writing at least 14 days prior to the reduction.

6.6.6 An employee who works so much overtime between the termination of their ordinary work on the one day and the commencement of their ordinary work on the next day that they have not had at least 10 consecutive hours off duty between those times, shall subject to clause 6.6.6, be released after completion of such overtime until they have had 10 consecutive hours off duty without loss of pay for ordinary working time occurring during such absence. If, on the instructions of their employer, such an employee resumes or continues work without having had 10 consecutive hours off duty they shall be paid double rates until they are released from duty for such period, and such employee shall then be entitled to be absent until they have had 10 consecutive hours off duty, without loss of pay for ordinary working time occurring during such absence.

6.6.7 With the exception of employees rostered to work following a 10 hour shift, clause 6.6.6 shall apply in the case of shift workers who rotate from one shift to another as if 8 hours were substituted for 10 hours when overtime is worked:

(a) to permit changes to shift rosters; or

(b) by agreement between the employer and the employee in circumstances where they are of the opinion the employee will not be unduly fatigued.

6.7 External transfer duty

6.7.1 (a) (With patient) - An employee required to travel with a patient on external transfer duty shall be paid at the appropriate ordinary or overtime rate for all time the patient is under the employee's care.

(b) (Without patient)

(i) When travelling to commence or returning from external transfer duty without a patient during what would normally have been the employee's rostered hours an employee shall be paid for a maximum of 12 hours out of every 24 hours at ordinary rates.

(ii) When travelling or returning on a day not rostered for duty such employee shall be paid for a maximum of 12 hours out of every 24 hours at ordinary rates provided that the employee shall be granted in addition a day off in lieu or an additional day added to the employee's next annual leave:

Provided further that where such duty does not exceed 3 hours, the employee shall be paid for 3 hours at the appropriate overtime rate only:

Provided also that payment under clause 6.7 shall not exceed that calculated by reference to the soonest and most direct return route made available to the employee by the employer.

6.8 Shift work

6.8.1 Afternoon and night duty - Extra payment (other than Levels 4 and 5 registered nurse)

(a) Extra payment for afternoon shift

(i) Afternoon shift is a shift commencing on or after 12 midday.

(ii) Afternoon shift workers shall be paid an allowance of 12.5% for each shift or ordinary hours.

(b) Extra payment for night shift:

(i) Night shift is a shift where the major portion is worked after 9.00 pm

(ii) Night shift workers shall be paid an allowance of 15% for each shift of ordinary hours.

(c) In the instance of a casual employee the shift allowance prescribed herein shall be calculated on the relevant rate of pay exclusive of the casual loading.

(d) At 27 November, 2000, no existing employee will be required to work an afternoon or night shift unless they agree to do so in writing.

- (e) The existing alternative shift arrangements agreed between the employer and the Union prior to 27 November 2000 shall continue to apply.

6.9 Weekend work

All rostered time worked by levels 1, 2 and 3 Registered Nurses and Enrolled Nurses, other than casual employees, between midnight Friday and midnight Saturday shall be paid for at the rate of time and a-half and between midnight Saturday and midnight Sunday at the rate of time and three-quarters:

Provided that extra payment for weekend work shall not apply to Levels 4 and 5 Registered Nurses.

PART 7 - LEAVE OF ABSENCE AND PUBLIC HOLIDAYS

7.1 Annual leave

7.1.1 Every full-time employee, shall at the end of each 12 months of employment, be entitled to annual leave on full pay as follows:

- (a) Not less than 228 hours if employed on shift work where 3 shifts per day are worked over a period of 7 days per week, and, where an employee works a minimum of 20 rostered shifts on each of the 3 shifts during a 12 month period from the date of commencing duty or from the date of the last annual leave. A part-time employee shall be entitled to a pro rata payment of the additional weeks annual leave.

- (b) Not less than 190 hours in any other case.

7.1.2 Such annual leave shall be paid for by the employer in advance:

- (a) In the case of any and every employee in receipt immediately prior to that leave of ordinary pay at a rate in excess of the ordinary rate payable under this Award, at that excess rate; and
- (b) In every other case, at the ordinary rate payable to the employee concerned immediately prior to that leave under this Award.

7.1.3 If the employment of any employee is terminated at the expiration of a full year of employment, the employer shall be deemed to have given the leave to the employee from the date of the termination of the employment and shall forthwith pay to the employee, in addition to all other amounts due, the employee's pay, calculated in accordance with clause 7.1.8, for 190 hours and also the employee's ordinary pay for Labour Day, annual show, or Easter Saturday should such public holidays occur during such period of 190 hours.

7.1.4 If the employment of any employee is terminated before the expiration of a full year of employment such employee shall be paid, in addition to all other amounts due, a monetary pro rata equivalent of the annual leave prescribed.

7.1.5 Unless the employee otherwise agrees, the employer shall give the employee at least 14 days' notice of the date from which the employee's annual leave shall be taken.

7.1.6 Annual leave by mutual agreement between employer and employee may be taken in one or more parts, provided that 38 hours entitlement shall be available in single day periods and the remaining entitlement shall be available in periods of not less than 38 hours.

7.1.7 Except as provided in clause 7.1.4, it shall not be lawful for the employer to give, or for any employee to receive, payment in lieu of annual leave.

7.1.8 Calculation of annual leave payments:

Annual leave payments (including any proportionate payments) shall be calculated as follows:

- (a) Subject to clause 7.1.8(b), in no case shall the payment by an employer to an employee be less than the sum of the following amounts:

- (i) The employee's ordinary wage rate as prescribed by this Award for the annual leave period (excluding weekend penalty rates); and

- (ii) A further amount calculated at the rate of 17.5% of such amount.

(b) Clause 7.1.8(a) will not apply to the following:

- (i) Any annual leave period exceeding 152 hours per annum; or

- (ii) employers (and their employees) who are already paying (or receiving) an annual leave bonus, loading or other annual leave payment which is not less favourable to employees.

7.1.9 Leave debits

Leave debits will be equivalent to the ordinary hours employees would have worked had they not been on paid leave. Such annual leave will therefore be paid and debited on the basis of hours actually taken.

7.2 Sick Leave

7.2.1 Entitlement

- (a) Every employee, except a casual employee, is entitled to 76 hours' sick leave for each completed year of their employment with their employer.
- (b) This entitlement will accrue at the rate of 7.6 hours' sick leave after each 5 weeks up to a maximum of 76 hours for each completed year of employment:

Provided that part-time employees will accrue sick leave on a proportional basis.
- (c) Payment for sick leave will be made based on the number of hours that would have been worked if the employee were not absent on sick leave.
- (d) Sick leave may be taken for part of a day.
- (e) Sick leave shall be cumulative, but unless the employer and employee otherwise agree, no employee shall be entitled to receive, and no employer shall be bound to make, payment for more than 13 weeks' absence from work through illness in any one year.

7.2.2 Employee must give notice

The payment of sick leave is subject to the employee promptly advising the employer of the employee's absence and its expected duration.

7.2.3 Evidence supporting a claim

When the employee's absence is for more than 2 days the employee is required to give the employer a doctor's certificate, or other reasonably acceptable evidence about the nature and approximate duration of the illness.

7.2.4 Accumulated sick leave

An employee's accumulated sick leave entitlements are preserved when:

- (a) The employee is absent from work on unpaid leave granted by the employer;
- (b) The employer or employee terminates the employee's employment and the employee is re-employed within 3 months; or
- (c) The employee's employment is terminated because of illness or injury and the employee is re-employed by the same employer without having been employed in the interim.

The employee accumulates sick leave entitlements whilst absent from work on paid leave granted by the employer.

7.2.5 Leave debits

Leave debits will be equivalent to the ordinary hours employees would have worked had they not been on paid leave. Such leave will therefore be paid and debited on the basis of hours actually taken.

7.2.6 Workers' compensation

Where an employee is in receipt of workers' compensation, the employee is not entitled to payment of sick leave.

7.3 Common procedure for monitoring sick leave usage

- 7.3.1 The employer/s and Union recognise that absenteeism constitutes a significant industrial relations issue and cost overhead, and in clause 7.3 recognise that both the Union and industry representatives will collaborate on reducing its incidence, and agree to a range of initiatives to examine trends and causes. As one measure only, the parties agree to implement the following procedure:

- (a) The parties recognise that sick leave is unlike annual or long service leave in that sick leave is conditional upon an employee being ill or injured to the point of being unfit for duty. (Except when used as special responsibility leave for the care and support of the employee's immediate family or household in clause 7.6)

It is an insurance to protect the employee and family against hardship should they be unable to continue in their normal occupation when injured or ill.

- (b) This procedure is designed to equitably scrutinise sick leave usage by employees.
- (c) At the end of each 3 monthly period the responsible officer will review attendance of employees' records who have been absent from work for more than 3 days on sick leave.
- (d) Such officer or nominated delegate will then have the matter examined in the following manner:
- (i) check the pattern of leave;
 - (ii) check the past history of absences to see if this pattern is unusual for the employee;
 - (iii) check with the employee's supervisor regarding knowledge of the employee's personal problems or situation at the time the employee was absent, or the supervisor believed it to be a genuine absence for injury or sickness; or is due to the effects of management or work practices which need review;
 - (iv) the results of the above checks should be recorded for future information;
 - (v) if the results of 2 consecutive periods show possible unsatisfactory attendance and reasons for absence, then the following actions should be taken.
- (e) Formally notify the employee of a forthcoming interview between the responsible officer, or their nominated delegate, in the presence of the supervisor and notify the employee that they may have a Union representative present if that employee so requests.

If the discussion in respect to the absences does not provide satisfactory reason for the absences then a letter is to be sent to the employee, stating management's assessment and the intended procedure to be followed in future. The employee will be entitled to have filed the employee's explanation.

- (f) If a similar pattern is observed in the next period, the employee is again interviewed, and if the interview results in unsatisfactory reasons again being given, then a second letter is to be sent to the employee, also indicating proof of illness or a certificate may be required for any absence for the next 6 months.
- (g) If the above action still results in further substantiated unsatisfactory attendance at work then the employee may face termination of employment.
- (h) The above procedure does not operate to withdraw the employer's right to take termination procedures or other disciplinary action against any employee if that employee has been guilty of filling out a false leave application form and claim in sick leave pay when that person was not actually sick. Similarly, the above procedures do not repudiate the Union's right to take the matter to the appropriate tribunal.

7.4 Bereavement leave

7.4.1 Full-time and part-time employees

Full-time and part-time employees shall, on the death of a member of their immediate family or household in Australia, be entitled to paid bereavement leave up to and including the day of the funeral of such person. Such leave shall be without deduction of pay for a period not exceeding the number of hours worked by the employee in 2 ordinary days of work. Proof of such death is to be furnished by the employee to the satisfaction of the employer.

7.4.2 Long-term casual employees

- (a) A long-term casual employee is entitled to at least 2 days unpaid bereavement leave on the death of a member of the person's immediate family or household in Australia.
- (b) A "long-term casual employee" is a casual employee engaged by a particular employer, on a regular and systematic basis, for several periods of employment during a period of at least 1 year immediately before the employee seeks to access an entitlement under clause 7.4.2.

7.4.4 Unpaid leave

An employee with the consent of the employer, may apply for unpaid leave when a member of the employee's immediate family or household in Australia dies and the period of bereavement leave entitlement provided above is insufficient.

7.4.5 Provided that an employee shall be entitled to a maximum of 2 days' leave without loss of pay on each occasion and on the production of satisfactory evidence of the death outside of Australia of an employee's spouse, father or mother, and where such employee travels outside of Australia to attend the funeral.

Provided that existing alternative arrangements in place in any workplace shall continue to apply to that workplace.

7.8.4 Annual show

Except as hereinafter provided, all work done by employees in a district specified from time to time by the Minister by notification published in the Gazette on the day appointed under the Holidays Act 1983, to be kept as a holiday in relation to the annual agricultural, horticultural or industrial show held at the principal city or town, as specified in such notification of such district, shall be paid for at the rate of double time and a-half, with a minimum of 4 hours:

Provided that where such show is of more than one day's duration, the employees may agree with the employer to substitute another day, other than a Saturday or Sunday, during the show period in lieu of the day so appointed in which case the provisions of clause 7.8.4 shall apply to the day so substituted.

In a district in which a holiday is not appointed for an annual agricultural, horticultural or industrial show, the employee and employer must agree on an ordinary working day that is to be treated as a show holiday for all purposes.

7.8.5 All work done by any employee on Easter Saturday (the day after Good Friday), shall be paid for at the rate of double time and a-half, with a minimum of 4 hours:

7.8.7 Double time and a half

For the purposes of clause 7.8, where the rate of wages is a weekly one, "double time and a-half" means one and one-half day's wages in addition to the prescribed weekly rate, or pro rata if there is more or less than a day.

7.8.12 Substitution

Where there is agreement between the majority of employees concerned and the employer, and subject to statutory limitations, other ordinary working days may be substituted for the public holidays:

7.9 Jury service

- (a) An employee, other than a casual employee, required to attend for jury service during their ordinary working hours shall be reimbursed by the employer an amount equal to the difference between the amount paid in respect of their attendance for such jury service and the ordinary pay the employee would have been paid if the employee was not absent on jury service.
