1.5 Definitions

1.5.1 "Act" means the Industrial Relations Act 1999 as amended or replaced from time to time.

1.5.2 "Commission" means the Queensland Industrial Relations Commission.

1.5.3 "Community Pharmacy" means Pharmacy Practice and includes the professional dispensing or supply of medicines, mixtures, compounds and drugs; where appropriate, the sale of items of trade; the provision of services in conjunction with the professional dispensing or supply of medicines, mixtures, compounds or drugs; and the provision of health care services including education, advice and associated patient counselling.

1.5.4 "Permanent Employee" means a full-time or part-time employee who is engaged on a permanent basis.

1.5.5 "Pharmacy Assistant" means an employee working in a Community Pharmacy under the direction and supervision of a pharmacist, and who provides health based services and products to meet the needs of pharmacy customers.

1.5.6 "Union" means the Shop, Distributive and Allied Employees Association (Queensland Branch) Union of Employees throughout the state of Queensland except for The Australian Workers' Union of Employees, Queensland who has coverage within the boundaries commencing at the sea-coast at 24 degrees 30 minutes of south latitude, then by that parallel of latitude bearing true west to 151 degrees of east longitude, then by that degree of longitude bearing true south to 25 degrees of south latitude; then by that parallel of latitude bearing true west to the western border of the State; then by the western border of the State bearing true north to the sea coast; then by the sea-coast to the point of commencement and including the islands adjacent to the Coast within that area excluding the Local Government Areas of Rockhampton and Gladstone.

1.6 Objectives

1.6.1 This Award has been developed following negotiations between The Pharmacy Guild of Australia (Queensland Branch), the Retailers' Association of Queensland Limited, Union of Employers, the Queensland Friendly Societies' Pharmacies Association, the Shop, Distributive and Allied Employees Association (Queensland Branch) Union of Employees and The Australian Workers' Union of Employees, Queensland, with the objectives of introducing skill related career paths for Pharmacy Assistants, and creating an environment of flexibility which will enable Community Pharmacy to meet emerging consumer expectations in the quality use and distribution of medicines and other health care products.

1.6.2 Skill related career paths for Pharmacy Assistants have regard to the national competency standards which have been developed by the industrial parties, and the accredited National Training Program for Pharmacy Assistants, which is based on these standards.

1.6.3 This Award recognises that in many cases Community Pharmacy needs to operate over 7 days of the week to provide the services the community expects, and that higher levels of skill of Pharmacy Assistants, attained through the completion of accredited training courses, will assist in the provision of those services.

1.6.4 In achieving the Award's objectives, the parties recognise that harmonious industrial relations are required. To this end, the parties are committed to:

(a) allowing employees to be involved in decisions that may affect them at their workplace;

(b) where possible, maximising permanent employment in the industry;

(c) providing stable and secure employment for Pharmacy Assistants.

1.7 Parties bound

This Award is legally binding upon the employees as prescribed by clause 1.4 and their employers, and the Unions and their members.

PART 2 - FLEXIBILITY

No provisions inserted in this Award relevant to this Part.

PART 3 - COMMUNICATION, CONSULTATION AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

3.1 Grievance and dispute settling procedure

The matters to be dealt with in this procedure shall include all grievances or disputes between an employee and an employer in respect to any industrial matter and all other matters that the parties agree on and are specified herein. Such procedures shall apply to a single employee or to any number of employees.

- 3.1.1 In the event of an employee having a grievance or dispute the employee shall in the first instance attempt to resolve the matter with the immediate supervisor, who shall respond to such request as soon as reasonably practicable under the circumstances. Where the dispute concerns alleged actions of the immediate supervisor the employee/s may bypass this level in the procedure.
- 3.1.2 If the grievance or dispute is not resolved under clause 3.1.1, the employee or the employee's representative may refer the matter to the next higher level of management for discussion. Such discussion should, if possible, take place within 24 hours after the request by the employee or the employee's representative.
- 3.1.3 If the grievance involves allegations of unlawful discrimination by a supervisor the employee may commence the grievance resolution process by reporting the allegations to the next level of management beyond that of the supervisor concerned. If there is no level of management beyond that involved in the allegation the employee may proceed directly to the process outlined at clause 3.1.5.
- 3.1.4 If the grievance or dispute is still unresolved after discussions mentioned in clause 3.1.2, the matter shall, in the case of a member of a Union, be reported to the relevant officer of that Union and the senior management of the employer or the employer's nominated industrial representative. An employee who is not a member of the Union may report the grievance or dispute to senior management or the nominated industrial representative. This should occur as soon as it is evident that discussions under clause 3.1.2 will not result in resolution of the dispute.
- 3.1.5 If, after discussion between the parties, or their nominees mentioned in clause 3.1.4, the dispute remains unresolved after the parties have genuinely attempted to achieve a settlement thereof, then notification of the existence of the dispute is to be given to the Commission in accordance with the provisions of the Act.
- 3.1.6 Whilst all of the above procedure is being followed, normal work shall continue except in the case of a genuine safety issue.
- 3.1.7 The status quo existing before the emergence of the grievance or dispute is to continue whilst the above procedure is being followed.
- 3.1.8 All parties to the dispute shall give due consideration to matters raised or any suggestion or recommendation made by the Commission with a view to the prompt settlement of the dispute.
- 3.1.9 Any Order or Decision of the Commission (subject to the parties' right of appeal under the Act) will be final and binding on all parties to the dispute.
- 3.1.10 Discussions at any stage of the procedure shall not be unreasonably delayed by any party, subject to acceptance that some matters may be of such complexity or importance that it may take a reasonable period of time for the appropriate response to be made. If genuine discussions are unreasonably delayed or hindered, it shall be open to any party to give notification of the dispute in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

PART 4 - EMPLOYER AND EMPLOYEES' DUTIES, EMPLOYMENT RELATIONSHIP AND RELATED ARRANGEMENTS

4.1 Employment categories

4.1.1 Employees covered by this Award shall be advised in writing upon appointment of their employment category and provided with a list of their principal duties, level of pay and any employer policies relating to their employment.

- (b) part-time (as prescribed in clause 4.4); or
- (c) casual (as prescribed in clause 4.5).

4.2 Probationary period

- 4.2.1 Appointments of new employees to any position may be for a probationary period of a maximum of 3 months during which time termination of employment shall be by giving 1 week's notice, or payment/forfeiture in lieu, by either party:

Provided that the 1 week's notice requirement, or payment/forfeiture in lieu, shall not apply in the case of instant dismissal.

4.3 Full-time employment

- 4.3.1 "Full-time employee" means a Permanent Employee who is engaged to work an average of 38 ordinary hours per week over a 4 week cycle.

4.4 Part-time employment

- 4.4.2 In conjunction with, or in addition to any rostered shift, a part-time employee may be offered on a voluntary basis additional hours to a maximum of 38 hours in any week. Such additional hours, if accepted, shall be paid at the stipulated casual rate, and not the overtime rates:

Provided that such additional hours shall be offered:

- (a) within the maximum ordinary hours of 128 per 4 week cycle,
- (b) in accordance with the roster principle in clause 6.1.1,
- (c) on the basis of being paid the casual rate in lieu of entitlements to sick leave, annual leave or other forms of leave other than long service leave.

4.5 Casual employment

- 4.5.1 "Casual employee" means an employee engaged on an hourly basis who may work a maximum of 30 hours per week to perform the duties prescribed for a Pharmacy Assistant and who is not a Permanent Employee.

- 4.5.2 In a pharmacy employing 13 or more permanent Pharmacy Assistants, the total number of hours worked by a casual employee shall not exceed 33 1/3% of the total hours worked in that Pharmacy. Hours worked by nightfill employees shall not be included in this calculation:

Provided the 33 1/3% limitation on casual hours worked in pharmacies shall not apply to:

- (a) Tourist resort areas during tourist extended trading hours as defined by the Trading (Allowable Hours) Act 1990;
- (b) Christmas and/or Easter.

- 4.5.3 The rate for casual employees within ordinary time shall, unless otherwise stated, be determined by dividing the appropriate wage rate prescribed by clause 5.6 by 38 and adding 23%. This additional loading is in lieu of parental leave, annual leave, public holidays, bereavement leave, jury service, sick leave and Trade Union Training Leave.

4.6 Mixed functions

Employees who are requested by their employer to perform duties which apply to a higher level than the employee's level, and who perform those duties for a minimum period of 4 continuous hours, shall be paid at the higher level for the period of time they perform those duties.

4.7 Anti-discrimination

- 4.7.1 It is the intention of the parties to this Award to prevent and eliminate discrimination, as defined by the Anti-Discrimination Act 1991 and the Industrial Relations Act 1999 as amended from time to time, which includes:

- (a) discrimination on the basis of sex, marital status, family responsibilities, pregnancy, parental status, age, race, impairment, religion, political belief or activity, trade union activity, lawful sexual activity and association with, or relation to, a person identified on the basis of any of the above attributes;

(b) sexual harassment; and

(c) racial and religious vilification.

4.7.2 Accordingly, in fulfilling their obligations under the grievance and disputes settling procedure in clause 3.1, the parties to this Award must take reasonable steps to ensure that neither the Award provisions nor their operation are directly or indirectly discriminatory in their effects.

4.7.3 Under the Anti-Discrimination Act 1991 it is unlawful to victimise an employee because the employee has made or may make or has been involved in a complaint of unlawful discrimination or harassment.

4.7.4 Nothing in clause 4.7 is to be taken to affect:

(a) any different treatment (or treatment having different outcomes) which is specifically exempted under the Anti-Discrimination Act 1991;

(b) an employee, employer or registered organisation, pursuing matters of discrimination, including by application to the Human Rights and Equal Opportunity Commission/Anti-Discrimination Commission Queensland.

4.8 Termination of employment

4.8.2 Termination by employer

(a) An employer may dismiss an employee only if the employee has been given the following notice:

Period of Continuous Service	Period of Notice
Not more than 1 year	1 week
More than 1 year but not more than 3 years	2 weeks
More than 3 years but not more than 5 years	3 weeks
More than 5 years	4 weeks

(b) In addition to the notice in (a) above, employees 45 years old or over and who have completed at least 2 years' continuous service with the employer shall be entitled to an additional week's notice.

(c) Payment in lieu of notice shall be made if the appropriate notice is not given:

Provided that employment may be terminated by part of the period of notice specified and part payment in lieu thereof.

(d) In calculating any payment in lieu of notice the minimum compensation payable to an employee will be at least the total of the amounts the employer would have been liable to pay the employee if the employee's employment had continued until the end of the required notice period. The total must be worked out on the basis of:

- (i) the ordinary working hours to be worked by the employee; and
- (ii) the amounts payable to the employee for the hours including for example allowances, loadings and penalties; and
- (iii) any other amounts payable under the employee's employment contract.

(e) The period of notice in this clause shall not apply in the case of dismissal for misconduct or other grounds that justify instant dismissal, or in the case of a casual employee, or an employee engaged by the hour or day, or an employee engaged for a specific period or tasks.

4.8.3 Notice of termination by employee

The notice of termination required to be given by an employee shall be the same as that required of an employer, save and except that there shall be no additional notice based on the age of the employee concerned. If an employee fails to give notice, the employer shall have the right to withhold monies due to the employee with a maximum amount equal to the amount the employee would have received under clause 4.8.2.

4.8.4 Time off during notice period

During the period of notice of termination given by the employer, an employee shall be allowed up to one day's time off without loss of pay for the purpose of seeking other employment. This time off shall be taken at times that are convenient to the employee after consultation with the employer.

4.9 Introduction of changes

4.9.1 Employer's duty to notify

- (a) Where an employer decides to introduce changes in production, program, organisation, structure or technology, that are likely to have significant effects on employees, the employer shall notify the employees who may be affected by the proposed changes and, where relevant, their Union or Unions.
- (b) 'Significant effects' includes termination of employment, major changes in the composition, operation or size of the employer's workforce or in the skills required; the elimination or diminution of job opportunities or job tenure; the alteration of hours of work; the need for retraining or transfer of employees to other work or locations and the restructuring of jobs:

Provided that where the Award makes provision for alteration of any of the matters referred to herein an alteration shall be deemed not to have significant effect.

4.9.2 Employer's duty to consult over change

- (a) The employer shall consult the employees affected and, where relevant, their Union or Unions about the introduction of the changes, the effects the changes are likely to have on employees (including the number and categories of employees likely to be dismissed, and the time when, or the period over which, the employer intends to carry out the dismissals), and the ways to avoid or minimise the effects of the changes (e.g. by finding alternative employment).
- (b) The consultation must occur as soon as practicable after making the decision referred to in clause 4.9.1.
- (c) For the purpose of such consultation the employer shall provide in writing to the employees concerned and, where relevant, their Union or Unions, all relevant information about the changes including the nature of the changes proposed, the expected effects of the changes on employees, and any other matters likely to affect employees:

Provided that any employer shall not be required to disclose confidential information, the disclosure of which would be adverse to the employer's interests.

4.10 Redundancy

4.10.1 Consultation before terminations

- (a) Where an employer decides that the employer no longer wishes the job the employee has been doing to be done by anyone, and this is not due to the ordinary and customary turnover of labour, and that decision may lead to termination of employment, the employer shall consult the employee directly affected and where relevant, their Union or Unions.
- (b) The consultation shall take place as soon as it is practicable after the employer has made a decision, which will invoke the provisions of clause 4.10.1(a) and shall cover the reasons for the proposed terminations, measures to avoid or minimise the terminations and/or their adverse effects on the employees concerned.
- (c) For the purpose of the consultation the employer shall, as soon as practicable, provide in writing to the employees concerned and, where relevant, their Union or Unions, all relevant information about the proposed terminations including the reasons for the proposed terminations, the number and categories of employees likely to be affected, the number of workers normally employed and the period over which the terminations are likely to be carried out:

Provided that any employer shall not be required to disclose confidential information, the disclosure of which would be adverse to the employer's interests.

4.10.2 Transfer to lower paid duties

- (a) Where an employee is transferred to lower paid duties for reasons set out clause 4.10.1 the employee shall be entitled to the same period of notice of transfer as the employee would have been entitled to if the employee's employment had been terminated under clause 4.8.

- (b) The employer may, at the employer's option, make payment in lieu thereof of an amount equal to the difference between the former amounts the employer would have been liable to pay and the new lower amount the employer is liable to pay the employee for the number of weeks of notice still owing.
- (c) The amounts must be worked out on the basis of:
 - (i) the ordinary working hours to be worked by the employee; and
 - (ii) the amounts payable to the employee for the hours including for example, allowances, loadings and penalties; and
 - (iii) any other amounts payable under the employee's employment contract.

- (b) If the employee has been allowed paid leave for more than one day during the notice period for the purpose of seeking other employment, the employee shall, at the request of the employer, be required to produce proof of attendance at an interview or the employee shall not receive payment for the time absent. For this purpose a statutory declaration will be sufficient.

4.10.5 Notice to Centrelink

Where a decision has been made to terminate employees in the circumstances outlined in clause 4.10.1, the employer shall notify Centrelink as soon as possible giving all relevant information about the proposed terminations, including a written statement of the reasons for the terminations, the number and categories of the employees likely to be affected, the number of workers normally employed and the period over which the terminations are intended to be carried out.

4.10.6 Severance pay

4.10.7 Superannuation benefits

- (a) the employer has contributed to a superannuation scheme which provides a particular benefit to an employee in a redundancy situation; and
- (b) the particular benefit to the employee is over and above any benefit the employee might obtain from any legislative scheme providing for superannuation benefits (currently the federal Superannuation Guarantee levy) or an award based superannuation scheme.

4.10.8 Employee leaving during notice

An employee whose employment is terminated for reasons set out in clause 4.10.1(a), may terminate such employment during the period of notice, and, if so, shall be entitled to the same benefits and payments under this clause had such employee remained with the employer until the expiry of such notice:

Provided that in such circumstances the employee shall not be entitled to payment in lieu of notice.

7.1.2 Leave debits will be equivalent to the ordinary hours employees would have worked had they not been on paid leave. Such leave will therefore be paid and debited on the basis of hours actually taken.

7.1.3 Such annual leave shall be exclusive of any public holiday which may occur during the period of that annual leave and shall be paid to the employee in advance.

7.1.4 If the employment of the employee is terminated at the expiration of a full year of employment, the employer shall be deemed to have given the leave to the employee from the date of termination of the employment and shall pay to the employee, in addition to all other amounts due, the employee's pay, calculated in accordance with clause 7.1.6, for 4 weeks and also the employee's ordinary hours pay for any public holiday occurring during such period of 4 weeks.

7.1.5 If the employment of any employee is terminated before the expiration of a full year of employment, such employee shall be paid, in addition to all other amounts due, an amount equal to 1/12th of the employee's pay for the period of the employee's employment, calculated in accordance with clause 7.1.6.

7.1.6 Calculation of annual leave pay

(a) Subject to 7.1.7, in no case shall the payment be less than the sum of the following amounts:

(ii) a further amount calculated at the rate of 17.5% of the amounts referred to in clause 7.1.6 (a).

(b) The provisions of 7.1.6(a) shall not apply to the following:

(i) any period or periods of annual leave exceeding 4 weeks per year;

(ii) employers (and their employees) who are already paying (or receiving) an annual leave bonus, loading or other annual leave payment which is not less favourable to employees.

7.1.7 (a) Any time in respect of which an employee is absent from work except time for which they are entitled to claim sick pay or time spent on holidays or annual leave or other paid absence authorised by the employer shall not count for the purpose of accruing annual leave.

(b) An employee's anniversary date is not altered by any authorised unpaid leave of absence of 3 months or less.

7.1.8 Every employee shall be given and shall take annual leave within 6 months after the date the leave falls due, unless mutually agreed between the employer and employee.

7.1.9 When an employee is entitled to annual leave under clause 7.1, they shall receive at least 2 weeks' notice from the employer of the date when it will be convenient to the employer that such employee shall take their leave.

7.1.10 With the approval of the employer an employee may be permitted to take annual leave before the expiration of 12 months continuous service, provided that they have a pro rata entitlement to annual leave which at least equals the period of intended absence.

7.1.11 Annual leave entitlements for part-time employees shall be calculated on the basis of pro rata entitlements of full-time employees. Where the number of rostered hours varies during any anniversary year, (including where an employee moves from full-time employment to part-time employment and vice versa) entitlements shall be calculated on the average number of ordinary hours worked during the anniversary year.

7.1.12 The provisions of clause 7.1 shall not apply to casual employees.

7.2 Sick leave

7.2.1 Entitlement

- (a) Every employee, except casuals and school-based trainees, is entitled to 60.8 hours' sick leave for each completed year of their employment with their employer.
- (b) This entitlement will accrue at the rate of 7.6 hours' sick leave after each 6 weeks of employment.
- (c) Payment for sick leave will be made based on the ordinary number of hours that would have been worked if the employee were not absent on sick leave.
- (d) Sick leave may be taken for part of a day.
- (e) Sick leave shall be cumulative, but unless the employer and employee otherwise agree, no employee shall be entitled to receive, and no employer shall be bound to make, payment for more than 13 weeks' absence from work through illness in any one year.
- (f) Part-time employees accrue sick leave on a proportional basis. Where the number of rostered hours varies during any anniversary year, (including where an employee moves from full-time employment to part-time employment and vice versa) entitlements shall be calculated on the average number of ordinary hours worked during the anniversary year.
- (g) When an employee is absent on the ground of personal ill health or injury for a period longer than their entitlement to paid sick leave, payment may be adjusted at the end of that year of service, or at the time the employee's services terminate, if before the end of that year of service, to the extent that the employee has become entitled to further paid sick leave during that year of service.

7.2.2 Employee must give notice.

The payment of sick leave is subject to the employee promptly advising the employer of the employee's absence and its expected duration.

7.2.3 Evidence supporting a claim.

- (a) When the employee's absence is for more than 2 days the employee is required to give the employer a doctor's certificate, or other reasonably acceptable evidence to the employer's satisfaction, about the nature and approximate duration of the illness.
- (b) The provisions of clause 7.2 do not apply to an employee who fails to produce a certificate from a medical practitioner dated at the time of the absence or who fails to supply such other proof of the illness or injury as the employer may reasonably require.
- (c) An employee shall not be required to produce a certificate from a medical practitioner with respect to absences of 2 days or less unless after 2 such absences in any year of service the employer requests in writing that the next and subsequent absences in that year if any, shall be accompanied by such certificate.
- (d) A Permanent Employee who is absent without leave on the day before or the day after any holiday shall be liable to forfeit wages for the public holiday as well as the day of absence, unless the employee can satisfy the employer that they were genuinely ill by producing a certificate from a qualified medical practitioner.

7.2.4 Accumulated sick leave

An employee's accumulated sick leave entitlements are preserved when:

- (a) The employee is absent from work on unpaid leave granted by the employer;
- (b) The employer or employee terminates the employee's employment and the employee is re-employed within 3 months; or
- (c) The employee's employment is terminated because of illness or injury and the employee is re-employed by the same employer without having been employed in the interim.

The employee accumulates sick leave entitlements whilst absent from work on paid leave granted by the employer.

7.2.5 Workers' compensation

The provisions of clause 7.2 with respect to payment do not apply to employees who are entitled to payment under the Workcover Queensland Act 1996 nor to employees whose injury or illness is the result of the employee's own misconduct.

7.2.6 The provisions of clause 7.2 do not apply to casual employees.

7.3 Bereavement leave

7.3.1 Full-time and part-time employees

Full-time and part-time employees shall, on the death of a member of their immediate family or household in Australia, be entitled to paid bereavement leave up to and including the day of the funeral of such person. Such leave shall be without deduction of pay for a period not exceeding the number of hours worked by the employee in 2 ordinary days of work. Proof of such death is to be furnished by the employee to the satisfaction of the employer.

7.3.2 Long-term casual employees

- (a) A long-term casual employee is entitled to at least 2 days unpaid bereavement leave on the death of a member of the person's immediate family or household in Australia.
