2.1.3 Any proposed genuine agreement reached between an employer and employee/s in an enterprise is contingent upon the agreement being submitted to the Commission in accordance with Chapter 6 of the Act and is to have no force or effect until approval is given.

PART 3 - COMMUNICATION, CONSULTATION AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

3.1 Grievance and dispute settling procedure

3.1.1 Should any situation at job level arise which could possibly lead to an industrial dispute or if any dispute arises as to the application of or interpretation of this Award or any amendments thereto, the job delegates or delegates of the Unions concerned should immediately discuss the matter with the immediate supervising officer or the officer acting in the supervising officer's stead. Where the dispute concerns alleged actions of the immediate supervisor the employee/s may bypass this level in the procedure.

- 3.1.2 If agreement is not reached at the level in clause 3.1.1 within 7 days the job delegate or delegates should refer the matter to the secretary of the respective Union or their representatives.
- 3.1.3 If the grievance involves allegations of unlawful discrimination and/or sexual harassment and/or workplace bullying it should be dealt with in accordance with the Corporation's relevant policy
- 3.1.4 The immediate supervising officer or the officer acting in the supervising officer's stead will refer the matter to the general manager human resources of the Corporation or the officer acting in that position.
- 3.1.5 Officials of the relevant Union and representatives of the Corporation will then confer on the matter in dispute as soon as possible with a view to settlement.
- 3.1.6 If the matter in dispute is not resolved as contained in clause 3.1.5, within 14 days of the parties being notified either party may notify the Commission. The Commission's decision shall be binding on all parties to this Award having regard to the provisions of the Act.

If genuine discussions are unreasonably delayed or hindered, it shall be open to any party to give notification of the dispute in accordance with the Act.
- 3.1.8 Without prejudice to any of the parties in any dispute work should continue in accordance with the provisions of this Award while the matter in dispute is being negotiated in the terms of clauses 3.1.1, 3.1.2 and 3.1.3. Whilst all of the above procedure is being followed, normal work shall continue except in the case of a genuine safety issue. The status quo existing before the emergence of the grievance or dispute is to continue whilst the above procedure is being followed.
- 3.1.9 Employees who are the chosen representatives of their fellow employees shall, in the mutual interests of the Corporation and employees be allowed such reasonable time to investigate any matter likely to lead to disputes between the Corporation and employee relative to working conditions.
- 3.1.10 If an employee considers that increments have been withheld from the employee because of unsatisfactory service or that the employee has been overlooked in promotion to a higher position for which the employee has applied within the Corporation such an employee shall be given the opportunity to show cause to the members of the Corporation Board as constituted under the provisions Government Owned Corporations Act 1993 why the decision previously made was wrong.

PART 4 - EMPLOYER AND EMPLOYEES' DUTIES, EMPLOYMENT RELATIONSHIP AND RELATED ARRANGEMENTS

4.1 Employment categories

- 4.1.1 Employees covered by this Award shall be advised in writing of their employment category upon appointment.

Employment categories are:

- (a) full-time;
- (b) part-time (as defined); or
- (c) casual (as defined).

4.2 Casual employees

- 4.2.1 A casual employee means an employee engaged by the hour and who may leave the Corporation's service or be discharged at any moment without notice:

Provided that a casual employee shall receive a minimum of 3 hours' work or payment thereof in respect of each engagement. Casual employees shall not work in excess of 4 ordinary days of work in a week, except when relieving a permanent employee absent on leave.

- 4.2.2 The rate of wages for casual employees shall be calculated by dividing the fortnightly rate of wages and allowances applicable to the employees relevant classification by 76 and adding 23% to that rate.

4.3 Part-time employment

- 4.3.1 A part-time employee is an employee who:

- (a) is employed for not less than 7.6 hours per week and for not more than 32 ordinary hours per week; and

(b) is rostered for a minimum of 3 consecutive hours on any shift or day.

- 4.3.2 At the time of engagement the employer and the part-time employee will agree in writing the number of ordinary hours to be worked each week.
- 4.3.3 Any agreed variation to the number of ordinary hours worked will be recorded in writing.
- 4.3.4 A part-time employee's roster, but not the agreed number of ordinary hours, may be altered by the employer giving notice to the employee in accordance with clause 6.1 or a lesser amount by mutual agreement.
- 4.3.5 All time worked outside the ordinary daily and weekly hours specified in the employee's roster will be overtime and paid for at the rates prescribed in clause 6.2.

- 4.3.7 A part-time employee will receive, on a proportionate basis, equivalent pay and conditions to those of full-time employees.

- 4.3.9 Where an employee and the Corporation agree in writing, part-time employment may be converted to full-time, and vice-versa, on a permanent basis or for a specified period of time. If such an employee transfers from full-time to part-time (or vice-versa), all accrued Award and legislative entitlements shall be maintained. Following transfer to part-time employment accrual will occur in accordance with the provisions relevant to part-time employment.

4.4 Higher duties payment

When an employee is required to undertake the duties and responsibilities of a position in a higher level, then the following conditions will apply:

- 4.4.1 If there is a legal requirement (such as a truck driver's licence, coxswain certificate, etc.) to operate plant or equipment then the employee who is directed by their supervisor to relieve in the position will be paid at the minimum rate of the higher level for the actual time involved.
- 4.4.2 In all other circumstances where relieving is considered necessary by the Corporation and the period of relief exceeds 3 consecutive working days, employees will be directed prior to undertaking such duties by their supervisor to relieve in the higher level position and where practicable, the advice to the employee will be in writing provided that an employee who temporarily fills a position at a higher classification level within the same stream as determined by this Award shall be paid extra remuneration at pay point one of such classification level.

Note: If an employee is relieving in a higher classified position and immediately commences annual leave or long service leave, then payment at the higher rate of pay will continue only for that period of time that the employee would have relieved in the position had the officer not commenced such leave.

4.5 Incidental and peripheral work

- 4.5.1 The Corporation may direct an employee to carry out such duties as are within the limits of the employee's skill competence and training consistent with the classification structure of this Award provided that such duties are not designed to promote de-skilling.
- 4.5.2 The Corporation may direct an employee to carry out such duties and use such tools and equipment as may be required:

Provided that the employee has been properly trained in the use of such tools and equipment.

- 4.5.3 Any direction issued by the Corporation pursuant to clauses 4.5.1 and 4.5.2 shall be consistent with the employer's responsibilities to provide a safe and healthy working environment.

4.6 Termination of employment

- 4.6.1 Statement of employment

The Corporation shall, in the event of termination of employment, provide upon request to the employee who has been terminated a written statement specifying the period of employment and the classification or type of work performed by the employee.

Provided that employment may be terminated by part of the period of notice specified and part payment in lieu thereof:

Provided that the period of notice may be reduced by mutual agreement between the Corporation and employee.

- (d) In calculating any payment in lieu of notice the ordinary time rate of pay for the employee concerned shall be used.

- (e) The period of notice in clause 4.6.2(a) shall not apply in the case of dismissal for misconduct or other grounds that justify instant dismissal, or in the case, of casual, or seasonal employees, or to employees on daily hire, or employees engaged for a specific period of time or for a specific task or tasks.

4.6.3 Notice of termination by employee

The employee shall give the Corporation one fortnight's notice of the employee's termination of employment or forfeit one fortnight's salary in lieu:

Provided that the period of notice may be reduced by mutual agreement between the Corporation and employee.

4.7 Redundancy

As soon as it is practicable the Corporation will inform Unions and employees of intended changes that could either result in positions becoming redundant or significantly alter the manner in which employees currently carry out their duties. An agreement has been reached with the parties to this Award in respect of redundancy entitlements and it is to be known as the Port of Brisbane Corporation Redundancy Agreement.

4.8 Abandonment of employment

Where an employee is absent from work for a continuous period exceeding 3 working days without the consent of the Corporation or without notification to an authorised officer of the Corporation, the employee's absence shall be prima facie evidence that the employee has abandoned their contract of employment, which is deemed to be terminated:

Provided that clause 4.8 shall not apply to employees who take industrial action by way of withdrawal of labour against the Corporation.

4.9 Continuity of service - transfer of calling

In cases where a transfer of calling occurs, continuity of service should be determined in accordance with sections 67-71 of the Act as amended from time to time.

4.10 Anti-discrimination

4.10.1 It is the intention of the parties to this Award to prevent and eliminate discrimination as defined by the Anti-Discrimination Act 1991 and the Industrial Relations Act 1999, as amended from time to time which includes:
