- (b) (i) "Eligible employee" means any employee who has been employed by the Ports Corporation during 5 consecutive weeks and who has worked a minimum of 50 hours during that period. After completion of the above qualifying period, superannuation contributions will then be made in accordance with clause 5.4.1 effective from the commencement of that qualifying period.
- (ii) Each eligible employee will become a member of the approved fund.

- (c) "Ordinary time earnings" means the actual ordinary rate of pay the employee receives (including any overaward payment) for ordinary hours of work. The term includes any overaward payment as well as casual rates received for ordinary hours of work. Ordinary time earnings will not include overtime, higher duties allowances, lump sum payments made as a consequence of the termination of employment, annual leave loading, penalty rates for public holiday work, fares and travelling time allowances or any other extraneous payments of a like nature.

PART 6 - HOURS OF WORK, BREAKS, OVERTIME, SHIFT WORK, WEEKEND WORK

6.1 Hours of work

6.1.1 Except as may otherwise be mutually agreed upon between the employer and the majority of employees and subject to clause 6.2 (Implementation of hours of work), and to the exceptions hereinafter provided, the ordinary hours of work will be an average of 38 per week, to be worked on one of the following basis:

- (a) 38 hours within a work cycle not exceeding 7 consecutive days; or
- (b) 76 hours within a work cycle not exceeding 14 consecutive days; or
- (c) 114 hours within a work cycle not exceeding 21 consecutive days; or
- (d) 152 hours within a work cycle not exceeding 28 consecutive days.

6.1.2 The ordinary hours of work prescribed in clause 6.1.1 will not exceed 10 hours on any day.

Where the ordinary working hours are to exceed 8 on any day, the arrangement of hours will be subject to the agreements of the employer and the majority of employees.

6.1.3 The ordinary hours of work prescribed may be worked on not more than 5 consecutive days in the week, Monday to Sunday inclusive, subject to the following:

- (a) All ordinary hours worked on a Saturday will be paid at the rate of time and a-half.
- (b) All ordinary hours worked on Sundays will be paid for at the rate of time and three-quarters.

6.1.4 The ordinary starting and finishing times of employees, may be changed or staggered, subject to the agreement of the employer and the majority of employees.

6.1.5 Employees are required to observe the nominated starting and finishing times for the working day, including designated breaks to maximise available working time. Preparation for work and cleaning up of the employee's person will be in the employee's time.

6.2 Implementation of hours of work

6.2.1 The 38 hour week will be implemented on one of the following basis, most suitable to the employer, after consultation with, and giving reasonable consideration to the wishes of the employees concerned:

- (a) by employees working less than 8 ordinary hours each day; or
- (b) by employees working less than 8 ordinary hours on one or more days each work cycle; or
- (c) by fixing one or more work days on which all employees will be off during a particular cycle; or
- (d) by rostering employees off on various days of the week during a particular work cycle, so that each employee has one work day off during that cycle.

Different methods of implementation of the 38 hour week may apply to individual employees, groups or sections of employees in the organisation concerned.

6.2.2 Subject to clause 6.1.2, employees may agree that the ordinary hours of work are to exceed 8 on any day, thus enabling more than one work day to be taken off during a particular work cycle.

6.2.3 Notwithstanding any consultative procedures or processes undertaken, and notwithstanding any lack of agreement by employees, the employer will have the right to make the final determination as to the method by which the 38 hour week is implemented or worked from time to time.

6.2.4 Notwithstanding any other provision in clause 6.2, where the arrangement of ordinary hours of work provides for a rostered day off, the employer and the majority of employees concerned, may agree to accrue up to a maximum of 5 rostered days off. Where such agreement has been reached, the accrued rostered days off will be taken within 12 calendar months of the date on which the first rostered day off was accrued. Consent to accrue rostered days off will not be unreasonably withheld by either party.

- 6.2.5 When the ordinary work cycle provides for a rostered day off, the rostered day off will not fall on a public holiday, but will be on the ordinary working day immediately before or immediately after the public holiday, or deferred in accordance with clause 6.2.4.

6.3 Overtime

- 6.3.1 All time worked outside of the ordinary working hours each day will, except as hereinafter provided, be paid for at the rate of time and a-half for the first 3 hours, and double time thereafter.
- 6.3.2 If employees are called upon to work overtime commencing on Saturday they will be paid at the rate of time and a-half for the first 3 hours and double time thereafter, with a minimum of 2 hours' work or payment therefore.
- 6.3.3 All overtime worked on Sundays will be paid at the rate of double time, with a minimum of 2 hours' work or payment therefore.

6.4 Call back

An employee, other than port supervisors, recalled to work overtime after leaving the employer's business premises (whether notified before or after leaving the premises) will be paid for a minimum of 2 hours' work at the appropriate rate for each time so recalled.

Except in the case of unforeseen circumstances arising, the employee will not be required to work the full 2 hours if the job the employee was recalled to perform is completed within a shorter period.

Clause 6.4 will not apply in cases where it is customary for an employee to return to the employer's premises to perform a specific job outside their ordinary working hours or where the overtime is continuous (subject to a reasonable meal break) with the completion or commencement of ordinary working time.

Payment at the appropriate overtime rate will be calculated from time of leaving home to commence that work until the employee returns home from that work.

Where employees are called out between midnight and 6.00 a.m. they will be paid at the rate of double time for all time so worked up to the ordinary starting time Monday to Friday and up to 7.00 a.m. on Saturday with a minimum payment as for 3 hours' work at that rate.

6.5 Rest period after overtime

An employee who works so much overtime between the termination of ordinary work on one day and the commencement of ordinary work on the next day that the employee has not had at least 10 consecutive hours off duty between those times will be released after completion of the overtime until the employee has had 10 consecutive hours off duty without loss of pay for ordinary working time occurring during the absence.

If on the instructions of the employer an employee resumes or continues work without having had such 10 consecutive hours off duty, the employee will be paid double rates until released from duty for such period. The employee will then be entitled to be absent until the employee has had 10 consecutive hours off duty without loss of pay for ordinary working time occurring during each absence.

The provisions of clause 6.5 will not apply where an employee is recalled to work overtime and works not more than 2 hours' overtime.

6.6 Meal breaks

- 6.6.1 All employees (including part-time and casual employees) whether day workers or shift workers who work for more than 5 continuous ordinary hours on any day will be allowed a minimum of 30 minutes for a meal break to be taken between the third and sixth hour from commencement of duty.

This meal break will be taken at such time as will not interfere with continuity of work where continuity is necessary, and where practical will be taken at a regular time each day.

All work done during the recognised meal period will be paid for at the rate of double time, such payment to continue until a meal period has commenced. Such meal period will be of a 30 minute duration.

- 6.6.2 Any employee who, without notification on the previous day or earlier, is required to continue working for more than 2 hours after the ordinary ceasing time or one hour if overtime continues past 6.00 p.m. will be allowed 30 minutes for a meal after the first hour worked and 30 minutes after each further 4 hours worked. If the employee works through the 30 minute meal break the employee will be paid an additional 30 minutes at ordinary time.

6.7 Rest pauses

Where practicable, all employees (including part-time and casual) who work at least 6 continuous ordinary hours will be entitled to a pause(s) totalling 20 minutes per day to be taken at times to suit operational requirements as determined by the employer.

Where an employee works at least 4 continuous ordinary hours the entitlement will be 10 minutes.

For the purpose of clause 6.7 the taking of a meal break as prescribed in clause 6.6 does not interrupt the continuity of ordinary hours worked.
