PART 2 - FLEXIBILITY

2.1 ENTERPRISE FLEXIBILITY

2.1.1 As part of a process of improvement in productivity and efficiency, discussion should take place at each enterprise to provide more flexible working arrangements, improvement in the quality of working life, enhancement of skills, training and job satisfaction and to encourage consultative mechanisms across the workplace.

2.1.2 The consultative processes established in accordance with clause 2.1 may provide an appropriate mechanism for consideration of matters relevant to clause 2.1.1. Union delegates at the place of work may be involved in such discussions.

2.1.3 Any proposed genuine agreement reached between the employer and employees is contingent upon the agreement being submitted to the Commission in accordance with Chapter 6 of the Act and is to have no force or effect until approval is given.

2.2 PROCEDURES TO IMPLEMENT FACILITATIVE AWARD PROVISIONS

2.2.1 Wherever facilitative provisions appear in this Award which allow for determination of the conditions of employment by agreement between the employer and the Union or the employer and the majority of employees affected, the following procedures apply:

- (a) Facilitative Award provisions can be negotiated between management and employees who are directly affected by such proposals or between management and the Union(s) depending upon the particular Award provisions.
- (b) Employees may be represented by their local Union delegate(s) and have the right to be represented by their local Union official(s).
- (c) Facilitative Award provisions can only be implemented by agreement.
- (d) In determining the outcome from facilitative provisions, neither party should unreasonably withhold agreement.
- (e) Agreement is defined as obtaining consent of greater than 50% of employees directly affected or of the Union(s), depending upon the particular award provisions.
- (f) Where a provision refers to agreement by the majority of employees affected, all employees directly affected must be consulted as a group. Should the consultation process identify employees with specific concerns which relate to either equity or occupational health and safety issues, such concerns may be catered for on an individual basis subject to operational requirements.
- (g) Any agreement reached must be documented and incorporate a review period.
- (h) Where the agreement relates to either the working of ordinary hours on other than a Monday to Friday basis, the introduction of shift work or change to the shift roster, the relevant Union(s) are to be notified in writing at least one week in advance of agreement being sought.

PART 3 - COMMUNICATION, CONSULTATION, GRIEVANCE AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

3.1 COMMUNICATION AND CONSULTATION

- 3.1.1 The employer, employees and relevant Unions are committed to an appropriate level of advice, communication and consultation in relation to matters in this award.
- 3.1.2 A consultative mechanism and procedures will be established to address matters raised by the employer, employees or relevant Union. The mechanism and processes will be appropriate to the size, structure and needs of the Authority.

3.2 PREVENTION AND SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

- 3.2.1 The objectives of this procedure are the avoidance and resolution of any disputes over matters covered by this Award, by measures based on the provision of information and explanation, consultation, co-operation and negotiation.
- 3.2.2 Subject to legislation, while the dispute procedure is being followed, normal work is to continue except in the case of a genuine safety issue. The status quo existing before the emergence of a dispute is to continue whilst the procedure is being followed. No party will be prejudiced as to the final settlement by the continuation of work.
- 3.2.3 There is a requirement for the employer to provide relevant information and explanation and consult with the appropriate employee representative(s).
- 3.2.4 In the event of any disagreement between the parties about the interpretation or implementation of this Award, the following procedures are to apply:
 - (a) the matter is to be discussed by the employee's Union representative and/or the employee(s) concerned (where appropriate) and the immediate supervisor in the first instance. The discussion should take place within 24 hours and the procedure should not extend beyond 7 days;
 - (b) if the matter is not resolved through clause 3.2.4 (a), it must be referred by the Union representative and/or the employee(s) to the appropriate employer representative who must arrange a conference of the parties to discuss the matter. This process should not extend beyond 7 days;
 - (c) if the matter remains unresolved it may be referred to the employer or nominee for discussion and appropriate action. This process should not exceed 14 days;
 - (d) if the matter is not resolved then it may be referred by either party to the Commission for conciliation.
- 3.2.5 Nothing contained in this procedure prevents the relevant Union(s) or the Queensland Government from intervening in respect of matters in dispute, should such action be considered conducive to achieving resolution.

3.3 EMPLOYEE GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES

- 3.3.1 The objectives of this procedure are to promote the prompt resolution of employee grievances by consultation, co-operation and discussion, to reduce the level of disputation and to promote efficiency, effectiveness and equity in the workplace.
- 3.3.2 This procedure applies to all industrial matters within the meaning of the Act.

Stage 1: In the first instance the employee must inform such employee's immediate supervisor of the existence of the grievance and they shall attempt to solve the grievance. It is recognised that an employee may exercise the right to consult such employee's Union representative during the course of Stage 1.

Stage 2: If the grievance remains unresolved, the employee must refer the grievance to the next in line management ("the manager"). The manager will consult with the parties. The employee may exercise the right to consult or be represented by such employee's Union representative during the course of Stage 2.

Stage 3: If the grievance is still unresolved, the manager will advise the General Manager and the aggrieved employee may submit the matter in writing to the General Manager if such employee wishes to pursue the matter further. If desired by either party, the matter will also be notified to the Union.

- 3.3.3 The General Manager must ensure that:

(a) the aggrieved employee or such employee's Union representative has the opportunity to present all aspects of the grievance;

(b) the grievance is investigated in a thorough, fair and impartial manner.

3.3.4 The General Manager may appoint another person to investigate the grievance. The employer may consult with the Union in appointing an investigating employee. The appointed person must be other than the employee's supervisor or manager.

3.3.5 If the matter is notified to the Union, the investigating employee must consult with the Union during the course of the investigation. The employer must advise the employee initiating the grievance, such employee's Union representative and any other employee directly concerned of the determinations made as a result of the investigation of the grievance.

3.3.6 The employer may delegate grievance resolution powers under this clause to a nominated representative.

3.3.7 The procedure is to be completed in accordance with the following time frames unless the parties agree otherwise:

Stage 1 Discussions should take place between the employee and such employee's supervisor within 24 hours and the procedure shall not extend beyond 7 days.

Stage 2 Not to exceed 7 days.

Stage 3 Not to exceed 14 days.

3.3.8 If the grievance is not settled the matter must be referred to the Public Service Commissioner or the Commission by the employee or the Union, as appropriate, in accordance with the respective jurisdictions of the tribunals.

3.3.9 Subject to legislation, while the grievance procedure is being followed, normal work is to continue, except in the case of a genuine safety issue. The status quo existing before the emergence of a grievance or dispute is to continue while the procedure is being followed. No party will be prejudiced as to the final settlement by the continuation of work.

NOTE: The rates of pay in this Award are intended to include the arbitrated wage adjustment payable under the 1 September 2011 Declaration of General Ruling and earlier Safety Net Adjustments and arbitrated wage adjustments. This arbitrated wage adjustment may be offset against any equivalent amount in rates of pay received by employees whose wages and conditions of employment are regulated by this Award which are above the wage rates prescribed in the Award. Such payments include wages payable pursuant to certified agreements, currently operating enterprise flexibility agreements, award amendments to give effect to enterprise agreements and overaward arrangements. Absorption which is contrary to the terms of an agreement is not required.

Increases made under previous State Wage Cases or under the current Statement of Principles, excepting those resulting from enterprise agreements, are not to be used to offset arbitrated wage adjustments.

SCHEDULE B - ON CALL ARRANGEMENTS

1. Where an employee is instructed to be available on call outside ordinary or rostered working hours, such employee will be paid, in addition to their ordinary rate of pay an allowance based upon the hourly rate of the classification of Professional Officer Level 2, paypoint (1) in accordance with the following scale:
 - (a) Where the employee is on call throughout the whole of a rostered day off or a public holiday - 95% of the hourly rate in respect of such instances;
 - (b) Where an employee is on call during the night only of a rostered day off, an accrued day off or public holiday - 60% of the hourly rate per night; and
 - (c) Where an employee is on call on any other night - 47.5% of the hourly rate per night.

For the purpose of calculating the hourly rate, the divisor will be based upon a 38 hour week and calculated to the nearest 5c.

For the purpose of this provision, a "night" will be deemed to consist of those hours falling between 5.00pm and 8.00am or mainly between such hours.

2. Monday to Friday - in the event of an employee on call being recalled to perform duty, such employee will be paid for the time worked at the prescribed overtime rate, such time to be calculated as from home and back to home with a minimum payment of 2 hours.

3. Saturday, Sunday and public holidays - an employee performing overtime work on recall on Saturday, Sunday or a public holiday may be paid for such overtime at the appropriate overtime rate with a minimum of 2 hours inclusive of travelling time, in respect of overtime worked on a Saturday or Sunday and 4 hours in respect of overtime worked on a public holiday, or at the employee's option be granted time off at a mutually convenient time, equivalent to the number of hours worked. Such time to be calculated as from home and back to home:

Provided that an employee who works overtime on a public holiday and who is granted equivalent time off will be paid at half the ordinary rate for the time so worked with a minimum of 4 hours:

Provided further that accrued time off in lieu will be taken in periods mutually agreed between the employer and the employee.

4. In the event of an employee on call being requested by the employer to provide advice (without the need to return to the facility), the employee will be paid at the prescribed overtime rate for the actual time worked up to a maximum of 2 hours on any one day:

Provided that the employee will be responsible for the recording of such requests which will require subsequent verification by the employer.

5. Any overtime payable will be in addition to the on call allowance.
6. Where an employee is recalled to perform work during an off duty period such employee will be provided with transport to and from the employee's home, or be refunded the cost of such transport.
7. Where practicable the employer will not require an employee to be continuously available on call for a period in excess of 6 weeks.
