- (b) part-time;
- (c) fixed term; and
- (d) casual

4.2.3 Payment - A permanent part-time employee shall be paid according to their hours of engagement at the same hourly rate as a permanent full-time employee would be paid for performing in the same designation.

4.2.4 Annual increments shall be payable to permanent part-time employees under the same provisions as applicable to Permanent, full-time employees provided that increments of salary will become due when the permanent part-time employee has completed the equivalent of one year of full-time service.

4.2.5 Permanent part-time employees shall be entitled to any allowances applicable based pro rata on the number of hours worked in relation to the ordinary full-time hours applicable to the classification.

4.2.6 A permanent part-time employee who usually works on a day of the week on which a public holiday falls and who is not required to work on that day shall be paid for the time which would otherwise have been worked on that day.

4.2.7 Leave - All leave provision entitlements as apply to permanent full-time employees shall apply to permanent part-time employees on a pro rata basis based upon the actual number of hours worked per week:

Provided that bereavement leave entitlements shall be the same as for permanent full-time employees and that, where the particular circumstances would warrant a permanent full-time employee being granted leave on consecutive days for a short leave of absence, similar consideration will be given to a part-time employee working consecutive days.

4.2.8 Return to permanent, full-time teaching - The following will apply to those persons who were employed permanent full-time prior to transferring to a part-time basis:

- (a) Voluntary return - Persons are guaranteed return to permanent full-time teaching at the earliest available opportunity upon their request.

In general, 3 months' notice will be required prior to return to permanent full-time teaching. However, the parties recognise that problems may occur in smaller centres which necessitate a longer waiting period. In these cases, the return to permanent full-time teaching will be subject to a vacancy arising but wherever possible will occur no later than the commencement of the following Institute year, provided that the appropriate notice has been given.

Where the employer believes that a return to permanent full-time teaching will not be possible by the commencement of the following year, the employer shall notify the employee and the employee's Union at the earliest opportunity of this fact and the circumstances preventing a return to permanent full-time teaching. Subject to clause 3.2 (employee grievance procedures) of this Award, the parties shall negotiate for return to permanent full-time teaching.

Wherever possible, the employer will waive notice requirements for return to permanent full-time teaching in emergent or compassionate circumstances.

- (b) Involuntary return - The parties acknowledge that circumstances as agreed to from time to time will arise where continuation of a person on a part-time basis will present difficulties for efficient staffing.

A person considered to be in such a situation will be approached by the employer to negotiate a return to permanent full-time teaching.

4.3 Fixed-term employment

- 4.3.1 Fixed-term employees shall be engaged in accordance with section 53/54 of the Public Service Act 2008 or any section made under the Act amending or in substitution for such section.

The hourly rate provision for a Casual Tutor shall be calculated by dividing the appropriate fortnightly salary by 64 and adding 23% for engagements between the hours of 8.00 a.m. and 6.00 p.m. Monday to Friday;

The number of hours that a casual Tutor is engaged for must reflect the number of hours that they are programmed for Tutoring Duties;

- (e) All teaching/tutoring hours worked before 8.00 a.m. and after 6.00 p.m. Monday to Friday or on Saturday shall be paid at one and a-half times the ordinary hourly rate;
- (f) All teaching/tutoring hours worked on Sundays shall be paid at double the ordinary hourly rate;
- (g) All teaching/tutoring hours worked on public holidays shall be paid at double time and one-half the ordinary hourly rate;

- (b) The consultation shall take place as soon as it is practicable after the employer has made a decision, which will invoke the provisions of clause 4.8.1(a) and shall cover the reasons for the proposed terminations, measures to avoid or minimise the terminations and/or their adverse affects on the employees concerned.

SCHEDULE 2 - Professional development and release to industry conditions

1. Definitions

Professional development is a concerted, consistent and continuous process that increases the ability of each staff member employed under the provisions of this Award to function both professionally and personally, with the overall aim of improving the quality of technical and further education.

Professional development may taken in a variety of activities including formal study in a recognised course, participation in workshop, seminar and conference sessions which may be conducted within TAFE Queensland or outside and by TAFE Queensland staff or by external persons, and formal skill formation processes conducted within Institutes or in industry including release to industry.

Release to industry is a particular component of professional development. "Release to industry" means release from Institute attendance for observational, research or hands-on experience in an external organisation within industry, commerce or other appropriate setting for the specific purpose of acquiring skills, knowledge and experience necessary for staff members to improve the quality of technical and further education.

2. Entitlement

All Permanent Teachers, Leading Vocational Teacher, Principal Teachers and Tutors will have access to professional development through a minimum annual entitlement of 10 days to be taken in at least half day periods.

This entitlement to professional development is in addition to those professional development activities that may be undertaken as part of the weekly incidental duty time of teaching staff.

3. Structure

Each Institute will operate a Professional Development Committee which will be broadly representative of all staff of the Institute. The Committee will have the role of co-ordinating needs identification activities so that individual staff members may propose development needs they see as being of priority and so that group and individual needs can be negotiated.

The Professional Development Committee will recommend priorities for the conduct of particular activities.

4. Conditions

Permanent Teachers, Leading Vocational Teachers, Principal Teachers and Tutors will not have loss of salary or loss of other entitlements such as sick leave, annual leave, non-attendance time, long service leave, leave loading and/or superannuation entitlements during professional development:

While on release to industry staff members will work the normal hours of the industry concerned and will follow the same conditions as co-workers. TAFE Queensland will meet all related expenses associated with the program and will ensure workers' compensation, professional indemnity, personal injury and property damage cover for staff members on release to industry.

TAFE Queensland may direct Teachers, Leading Vocational Teachers, Principal Teachers and Tutors to attend particular staff development activities.

Approval of professional development activities will be in accord with authorities as set down in the Departmental Delegations Manual, Department of Education, Training and Employment. Professional development, including release to industry will only be approved where an appropriate activity or industry placement is available.

TAFE Queensland has a separate policy in relation to Release to Industry for Teachers, Leading Vocational Teachers, Principal Teachers and Tutors.

Tutors will have a program that provides the greatest possible client service, flexibility of duties, and appropriate programs to perform these duties. This should lead to greater job satisfaction for Tutors. TAFE Queensland aims to achieve a more productive working environment for Tutors so that our clients receive high quality vocational education and training opportunities.

S3.4.2 To achieve these aims the programming of Tutors is best done in each Institute. Consultation with respect to programming should take place between the work unit manager, the Tutor and the Teacher/Educational Delivery Staff that the Tutor works with. Tutoring Duties must take into account all preparation, consultation and other duties associated with the tutorial.

S3.4.3 To ensure that this is done in an equitable and consultative manner, the Tutor's program should be determined according to the following principles:

- (a) The needs of clients;
- (b) The Tutor model being utilised (see clause S3.4.4);
- (c) The level of consultation required between the Tutor and the Teacher/other Educational Delivery Staff;
- (d) The nature of the curriculum and the mode of delivery;

S3.5 Guidelines

S3.5.1 The decision to introduce/vary the use of Tutors in the presentation of a course will be made by the Work Team and a representative of management through a process of consultation. The decision should be reported to the Institute Consultative Committee.

S3.5.2 The appointment of Tutors involved in the delivery of courses would be the result of an assessment of client needs, the nature of the curriculum, desired learning outcomes, and the need to deliver a program in the most efficient manner without compromising educational quality, and other environmental factors.

S3.5.3 It is imperative that Work Teams plan and create a mix of staff to ensure that clients achieve the desired learning outcomes. The total mix of staff needs to be examined by the team so that an appropriate range of competencies is available.

This arbitrated wage adjustment may be offset against any equivalent amount in rates of pay received by employees whose wages and conditions of employment are regulated by this Award which are above the wage rates prescribed in the Award. Such payments include wages payable pursuant to certified agreements, currently operating enterprise flexibility agreements, award amendments to give effect to enterprise agreements and overaward arrangements.
