PART 2 - FLEXIBILITY

2.1 Enterprise flexibility

2.1.1 As part of a process of improvement in productivity and efficiency, discussion should take place at each enterprise to provide more flexible working arrangements, improvement in the quality of working life, enhancement of skills, training and job satisfaction and to encourage consultative mechanisms across the workplace.

2.1.2 The consultative processes established in an enterprise in accordance with clause 2.1 may provide an appropriate mechanism for consideration of matters relevant to clause 2.1.1. Union delegates at the place of work may be involved in such discussions.

2.1.3 Any proposed genuine agreement reached between an employer and employee/s in an enterprise is contingent upon the agreement being submitted to the Commission in accordance with Chapter 6 of the Act and is to have no force or effect until approval is given.

PART 3 - COMMUNICATION, CONSULTATION AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

3.1 Grievance and dispute settling procedure

The matters to be dealt with in this procedure shall include all grievances or disputes between an employee and an employer in respect to any industrial matter and all other matters that the parties agree on and are specified herein. Such procedures shall apply to a single employee or to any number of employees.

- 3.1.1 In the event of an employee having a grievance or dispute the employee shall in the first instance attempt to resolve the matter with the immediate supervisor, who shall respond to such request as soon as reasonably practicable under the circumstances. Where the grievance or dispute concerns alleged actions of the immediate supervisor, the employee/s may bypass this level in the procedure.
- 3.1.2 If the grievance or dispute is not resolved under clause 3.1.1, the employee or the employee's representative may refer the matter to the next higher level of management for discussion. Such discussion should, if possible, take place within 24 hours after the request by the employee or the employee's representative.
- 3.1.3 If the grievance involves allegations of unlawful discrimination by a supervisor the employee may commence the grievance resolution process by reporting the allegations to the next level of management beyond that of the supervisor concerned. If there is no level of management beyond that involved in the allegation the employee may proceed directly to the process outlined at clause 3.1.5.
- 3.1.4 If the grievance or dispute is still unresolved after discussions mentioned in clause 3.1.2, the matter shall, in the case of a member of a Union, be reported to the relevant officer of that Union and the senior management of the employer or the employer's nominated industrial representative. An employee who is not a member of a Union may report the grievance or dispute to senior management or the nominated industrial representative. This should occur as soon as it is evident that discussions under clause 3.1.2 will not result in resolution of the dispute.
- 3.1.5 If, after discussion between the parties, or their nominees mentioned in clause 3.1.4, the dispute remains unresolved after the parties have genuinely attempted to achieve a settlement thereof, then notification of the existence of the dispute is to be given to the Commission in accordance with the provisions of the Act.
- 3.1.6 Whilst all of the above procedure is being followed, normal work shall continue except in the case of a genuine safety issue.
- 3.1.7 The status quo existing before the emergence of the grievance or dispute is to continue whilst the above procedure is being followed.
- 3.1.8 All parties to the dispute shall give due consideration to matters raised or any suggestion or recommendation made by the Commission with a view to the prompt settlement of the dispute.
- 3.1.9 Any Order or Decision of the Commission (subject to the parties' right of appeal under the Act) will be final and binding on all parties to the dispute.
- 3.1.10 Discussions at any stage of the procedure shall not be unreasonably delayed by any party, subject to acceptance that some matters may be of such complexity or importance that it may take a reasonable period of time for the appropriate response to be made. If genuine discussions are unreasonably delayed or hindered, it shall be open to any party to give notification of the dispute in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

3.2 Understanding of parties to this Award

- 3.2.1 The employer and Union parties to this Award view this Award as a springboard for:
 - (a) Continuing a harmonious relationship, based on mutual respect and trust, between the employer and its employees and the union.
 - (b) Future growth, this enhancing the employer's viability and profitability and the job security of employees in an increasingly competitive commercial environment.
- 3.2.2 The parties to this Award recognise the need to continue to build workplace arrangements and a culture that will contribute towards the long term viability of enterprise. This includes acceptance for participation in any training that may be considered necessary to provide efficient customer service.
- 3.2.3 The parties agree that any of them are at liberty to consult each other at any time in relation to any of the matters contained in this Award to ensure that any problems that may arise are dealt with in an efficient and commonsense manner to ensure the continued viability of this Award.
- 3.2.4 The parties are strongly committed to resolving any difference between them by following established dispute procedure and by undertaking at all times to treat each other within the bounds of common courtesy and respect.
- 3.2.5 The parties acknowledge that the Award has been negotiated under time constraints and are committed, as time permits, to reviewing it further in order to streamline the Award in a way that makes it more specific to the taxi/limousine industry call centre operation, including a more industry specific classification structure.

PART 4 - EMPLOYER AND EMPLOYEES' DUTIES, EMPLOYMENT RELATIONSHIP AND RELATED

ARRANGEMENTS

4.1 Contract of employment

At the point of engagement of each employee, the employer shall specify whether the engagement is on a full-time, part-time or casual basis, and whether any other conditions such as probation apply.

4.2 Part-time employees

4.2.1 An employer may employ part-time employees in any classification in this Award.

4.2.2 A part-time employee is an employee who:

- (a) has been engaged as a part-time employee in accordance with clause 4.1; and

- (b) where there is mutual agreement, a part-time employee may work more than 32 ordinary hours per week but less than 37 hours per week; and
- (c) where agreement is reached in relation to clauses 4.2.3(a) and 4.2.3(b) such agreement shall be recorded in writing.

4.2.4 At the time of engagement, the employer and the employee will agree in writing on the number of ordinary hours worked per week.

- (a) The agreed number of ordinary hours per week may only be varied by mutual agreement. Any such agreed variation to the number of weekly hours of work will be recorded in writing.
- (b) Any variation to the normal work pattern will be by agreement with the employee/s directly affected.

4.2.5 An employer is required to roster a part-time employee for a minimum of 4 consecutive hours on any shift.

4.2.6 All time worked outside of the ordinary hours of work as mutually arranged in accordance with clause 4.2.4 will be overtime and paid for at the rates prescribed in clause 6.7.

4.2.7 A part-time employee employed under clause 4.2 must be paid for ordinary hours worked at the rate of 1/38th of the weekly rate prescribed for the class of work performed.

4.2.8 Where a public holiday falls on a day upon which a part-time employee is normally engaged, the employee shall be paid the appropriate rate for the number of hours normally worked on that day.

4.2.9 Where an employee and the employer agree in writing, part-time employment may be converted to full-time, and vice-versa, on a permanent basis or for a specified period of time. If such an employee transfers from full-time to part-time (or vice-versa), all accrued Award and legislative entitlements shall be maintained. Following transfer to part-time employment accrual will occur in accordance with the provisions relevant to part-time employment.

4.2.10 An employee who does not meet the definition of a part-time employee and who is not a full-time employee will be paid as a casual employee in accordance with clause 4.3.

discharged at any moment without notice.

4.3.2 Rate of pay

- (d) Where a weekend loading of 50% applies on Sunday, 173% of the employee's classified rate for all ordinary time worked.
- (e) Where time and a-half overtime applies, 150% of the employee's classified rate for all such overtime worked.
- (f) Where double time overtime applies, 200% of the employee's classified rate for all such overtime worked.
- (g) For work on public holidays, 250% of the employee's classified rate for all rostered time worked that would have been ordinary time had it not been a public holiday, with a minimum payment of 4 hours at that rate.
- (h) For all time worked on public holidays outside of the employee's ordinary rostered working hours, double the overtime rate that would have applied (as per above) had it been an ordinary working day (i.e. treble or quadruple time).

4.3.3 Hours

The ordinary working hours of all employees are based on a 38 hour week as provided for in 6.1. All time worked in excess of the daily hours or the 38 hour week as provided in clause 6.1.2 shall be paid for at overtime rates. A minimum of 2 hours shall be paid per engagement.

4.4 Trainees

Trainees are engaged under this Award, except as varied from time to time by the Order for Apprentices' and Trainees' Wages and Conditions (Excluding Certain Queensland Government Entities).

4.5 Labour flexibility/incidental and peripheral tasks

4.5.1 The parties to this Award agree:

- (a) that employees shall perform if or as required by the employer a wider range of duties, including work which is incidental or peripheral to their main tasks or functions:

Provided such duties are reasonably within the limits of the employee's skill, competence and training.
- (b) that employees shall perform such work as is reasonable and lawfully required of them by their employer including accepting instructions from authorised personnel.
- (c) that employees shall comply with all reasonable requests to perform any work provided for by this Award.
- (d) that where necessary, training shall be provided by the employer to ensure that employees are capable of meeting the employer's requirements in relation to the quality and accuracy of the work assigned to them.
- (e) that employees shall not unreasonably impose any limitations or continue to enforce any limitations on supervisors or technical personnel demonstrating the use of new equipment or machinery for the purpose of training clerical employees on the use of such equipment or machinery:

Provided that appropriate consultation in relation to the introduction of new technology has taken place in accordance with the provisions of clause 4.8 (Introduction of changes):

Provided further that consultation with the nominated representative of the employees has taken place, employers shall not impose any restrictions or limitations on the review of work methods.

4.5.2 Employees shall use such equipment as may be required by the employer, provided that the employee has been properly trained in the use of such equipment and the direction is consistent with the employer's responsibilities to provide a safe and healthy working environment.

4.6 Anti-discrimination

4.6.1 It is the intention of the parties to this Award to prevent and eliminate discrimination as defined by the Anti-Discrimination Act 1991 and the Industrial Relations Act 1999 as amended from time to time, which includes:

- (a) discrimination on the basis of sex, marital status, family responsibilities, pregnancy, parental status, age, race, impairment, religion, political belief or activity, trade union activity, lawful sexual activity and association with, or relation to, a person identified on the basis of any of the above attributes;
- (b) sexual harassment; and
- (c) racial and religious vilification.

4.6.2 Accordingly in fulfilling their obligations under the grievance and disputes settling procedure in clause 3.1, the parties to this Award must take reasonable steps to ensure that neither the Award provisions nor their operation are directly or indirectly discriminatory in their effects.

4.6.3 Under the Anti-Discrimination Act 1991 it is unlawful to victimise an employee because the employee has made or may make or has been involved in a complaint of unlawful discrimination or harassment.

4.6.4 Nothing in clause 4.6 is to be taken to affect:

- (a) any different treatment (or treatment having different outcomes) which is specifically exempted under the Anti-Discrimination Act 1991;

An employer shall, in the event of termination of employment, provide upon request to the employee who has been terminated a written statement specifying the period of employment and the classification or type of work performed by the employee.

4.7.2 Termination by employer

- (a) An employer may dismiss an employee only if the employee has been given the following notice:

Period of Continuous Service	Period of Notice
Not more than 1 year	1 week
More than 1 year but not more than 3 years	2 weeks
More than 3 years but not more than 5 years	3 weeks
More than 5 years	4 weeks

- (b) In addition to the notice in (a) above, employees 45 years old or over and who have completed at least 2 years' continuous service with the employer shall be entitled to an additional week's notice.

- (c) Payment in lieu of notice shall be made if the appropriate notice is not given:

Provided that employment may be terminated by part of the period of notice specified and part payment in lieu thereof.

- (d) In calculating any payment in lieu of notice the minimum compensation payable to an employee will be at least the total of the amounts the employer would have been liable to pay the employee if the employee's employment had continued until the end of the required notice period. The total must be worked out on the basis of:

- (i) the ordinary working hours to be worked by the employee; and
- (ii) the amounts payable to the employee for the hours including for example allowances, loadings and penalties; and
- (iii) any other amounts payable under the employee's employment contract.

- (e) The period of notice in this clause shall not apply in the case of dismissal for misconduct or other grounds that justify instant dismissal, or in the case of a casual employee, or an employee engaged by the hour or day, or an employee engaged for a specific period or tasks.

4.7.3 Notice of termination by employee

The notice of termination required to be given by an employee shall be the same as that required of an employer, save and except that there shall be no additional notice based on the age of the employee concerned. If an employee fails to give notice, the employer shall have the right to withhold monies due to the employee with a maximum amount equal to the ordinary rate for the period of notice.

4.7.4 Time off during notice period

During the period of notice of termination given by the employer, an employee shall be allowed up to one day's time off without loss of pay for the purpose of seeking other employment. This time off shall be taken at times that are convenient to the employee after consultation with the employer.

4.8 Introduction of changes

4.8.1 Employer's duty to notify

- (a) Where an employer decides to introduce changes in production, program, organisation, structure or technology, that are likely to have significant effects on employees, the employer shall notify the employees who may be affected by the proposed changes and, where relevant, their Union or Unions.
- (b) "Significant effects" includes termination of employment, major changes in the composition, operation or size of the employer's workforce or in the skills required; the elimination or diminution of job opportunities or job tenure; the alteration of hours of work; the need for retraining or transfer of employees to other work or locations and the restructuring of jobs:

Provided that where the Award makes provision for alteration of any of the matters referred to herein an alteration shall be deemed not to have significant effect.

4.8.2 Employer's duty to consult over change

- (a) The employer shall consult the employees affected and, where relevant, their Union or Unions about the introduction of the changes, the effects the changes are likely to have on employees (including the number and categories of employees likely to be dismissed, and the time when, or the period over which, the employer intends to carry out the dismissals), and the ways to avoid or minimise the effects of the changes (e.g. by finding alternative employment).
- (b) The consultation must occur as soon as practicable after making the decision referred to in clause 4.8.1.
- (c) For the purpose of such consultation the employer shall provide in writing to the employees concerned and, where relevant, their Union or Unions, all relevant information about the changes including the nature of the changes proposed, the expected effects of the changes on employees, and any other matters likely to affect employees, provided that any employer shall not be required to disclose confidential information, the disclosure of which would be adverse to the employer's interests.

4.9 Redundancy

4.9.1 Consultation before terminations

- (a) Where an employer decides that the employer no longer wishes the job the employee has been doing to be done by anyone, and this is not due to the ordinary and customary turnover of labour, and that decision may lead to termination of employment, the employer shall consult the employee directly affected and where relevant, their Union or Unions.
- (b) The consultation shall take place as soon as it is practicable after the employer has made a decision, which will invoke the provisions of clause 4.9.1(a) and shall cover the reasons for the proposed terminations, measures to avoid or minimise the terminations and/or their adverse effects on the employees concerned.
- (c) For the purpose of the consultation the employer shall, as soon as practicable, provide in writing to the employees concerned and, where relevant, their Union or Unions, all relevant information about the proposed terminations including the reasons for the proposed terminations, the number and categories of employees likely to be affected, the number of workers normally employed and the period over which the terminations are likely to be carried out:

Provided that any employer shall not be required to disclose confidential information, the disclosure of which would be adverse to the employer's interests.

4.9.2 Transfer to lower paid duties

- (a) Where an employee is transferred to lower paid duties for reasons set out clause 4.9.1, the employee shall be entitled to the same period of notice of transfer as the employee would have been entitled to if the employee's employment had been terminated under clause 4.7.
- (b) The employer may, at the employer's option, make payment in lieu thereof of an amount equal to the difference between the former amounts the employer would have been liable to pay and the new lower amount the employer is liable to pay the employee for the number of weeks of notice still owing.
- (c) The amounts must be worked out on the basis of:
 - (i) the ordinary working hours to be worked by the employee; and
 - (ii) the amounts payable to the employee for the hours including for example, allowances, loadings and penalties; and
 - (iii) any other amounts payable under the employee's employment contract.

4.9.3 Transmission of business

- (a) Where a business is, whether before or after the date of insertion of this clause in the Award transmitted from an employer (transmittor) to another employer (transmittee), and an employee who at the time of such transmission was an employee of the transmittor of the business, becomes an employee of the transmittee:
 - (i) the continuity of the employment of the employee shall be deemed not to have been broken by reason of such transmission; and
 - (ii) the period of employment which the employee has had with the transmittor or any prior transmittor shall be deemed to be service of the employee with the transmittee.
- (b) In clause 4.9.3, "business" includes trade, process, business or occupation and includes a part or subsidiary (which means a corporation that would be taken to be a subsidiary under the Corporations Law, whether or not the Corporations Law applies in the particular case) of any such business and "transmission" includes transfer, conveyance, assignment or succession whether by agreement or by operation of law and "transmitted" has a corresponding meaning.

4.9.4 Time off during notice period

- (a) Where a decision has been made to terminate an employee in the circumstances outlined in clause 4.9.1, the employee shall be allowed up to one day's time off without loss of pay during each week of notice for the purpose of seeking other employment.
- (b) If the employee has been allowed paid leave for more than one day during the notice period for the purpose of seeking other employment, the employee shall, at the request of the employer, be required to produce proof of attendance at an interview or the employee shall not receive payment for the time absent. For this purpose a statutory declaration will be sufficient.

4.9.5 Notice to Centrelink

Where a decision has been made to terminate employees in the circumstances outlined in clause 4.9.1, the employer shall notify Centrelink as soon as possible giving all relevant information about the proposed terminations, including a written statement of the reasons for the terminations, the number and categories of the employees likely to be affected, the number of workers normally employed and the period over which the terminations are intended to be carried out.

4.9.6 Severance pay

PART 5 - WAGES AND WAGE RELATED MATTERS

5.1 Classification definitions

5.1.1 Classification criteria

"Classification Criteria" are guidelines to determine the appropriate classification level under this Award and consist of characteristics and typical duties/skills.

The characteristics are the principal or primary guide to classification as they are designed to indicate the level of basic knowledge, a comprehension of issues, problems and procedures required and the level of responsibility/accountability of the position. The totality of the characteristics must be read as a whole to obtain a clear understanding of the essential features of any particular level and the competency required.

The typical duties/skills are a non-exhaustive list of duties/skills that may be comprehended within the particular level. They are an indicative guide only and at any particular level employees may be expected to undertake duties of any level lower than their own. Employees at any particular level may perform/utilise one such duty/skill, or many of them, depending on the particular work allocated.

The key issue to be looked at in properly classifying an employee is the level of initiative, responsibility/accountability, competency and skill that the employee is required to exercise in the work performed within the parameters of the characteristics and not the duties performed per se. It will be noted that some typical indicative duties/skills appear at only one level, whereas others appear in more than one level with little apparent differentiation. However, when assigning a classification to an employee, or when reclassifying an employee, this needs to be done by reference to the specific characteristics of the level. For example, whilst shorthand is first specifically mentioned in Level 2 (100 wpm) in terms of typical duties/skills, it does not mean that as soon as an employee performs any shorthand that they automatically become Level 2. They would achieve a Level 2 classification when they have achieved the level of initiative, responsibility/accountability, skill and competency envisaged by the characteristics.

Level 1 in this structure is to be viewed as the level at which employees learn and gain competency in the basic clerical skills required by the employer, which in many cases, would lead to progress through the classification structure as their competency and skills are increased and utilised.

5.1.2 Reclassification criteria

In the event that there is a claim for reclassification by an employee to a higher level under this structure on the ground that the employee's duties and responsibilities are reflected within the classification criteria for that level, the grievance and dispute settling procedure in clause 3.1 shall be followed.

Note 2: The rates of pay in this Award are intended to include the arbitrated wage adjustment payable under the 1 September 2010 Declaration of General Ruling and earlier Safety Net Adjustments and arbitrated wage adjustments. This arbitrated wage adjustment may be offset against any equivalent amount in rates of pay received by employees whose wages and conditions of employment are regulated by this Award which are above the wage rates prescribed in the Award. Such payments include wages payable pursuant to certified agreements, currently operating enterprise flexibility agreements, Queensland workplace agreements, award amendments to give effect to enterprise agreements and overaward arrangements. Absorption which is contrary to the terms of an agreement is not required.

Increases made under previous State Wage Cases or under the current Statement of Principles, excepting those resulting from enterprise agreements, are not to be used to offset arbitrated wage adjustments.

5.3.2 Overaward payment

"Overaward" payment is defined as the amount in rates of pay which an employee would receive in excess of the minimum award wage as prescribed in this Award for the classification in which such employee is engaged which applied immediately prior to 1 March 1993:

20 and under 21 years of age	85%

Junior rates of pay are expressed as a percentage of the appropriate minimum adult rate in either Levels 1 or 2, with the first pay point in Levels 1 or 2 reflecting the wage rate upon which the junior percentages above are calculated.

Junior rates shall be calculated in multiples of 10 cents with any result of 5 cents or more being taken to the next highest 10 cent multiple.

Whether the first pay point in Level 1 or 2 is used depends on whether the junior is performing work which falls within level 1 (in which case the first adult pay point of level 1 is used) or any level above level 1, in which case the first adult pay point in level 2 is used.

Once a junior employee reaches 21 years of age this employee then must be slotted into the appropriate Level (1 to 5) and commence on the wage rate reflected by the first pay point at that level.

 - (i) complete and sign the necessary application form/s to enable that employee to become a member of that fund; and
 - (ii) return such form/s to the employer within 28 days of receipt of the application form/s in order to be entitled to the benefit of the contributions prescribed in clause 5.8.2.
- (c) Where an employer has complied with the requirements of clause 5.8.7(a) and an eligible employee fails to complete, sign and return the application form/s within 28 days of the receipt by the employee of that form/s, then that employer shall:
 - (i) Advise the eligible employee in writing of the non-receipt of the application form/s and further advise the eligible employee that continuing failure to complete, sign and return such form/s within 14 days could jeopardise the employee's entitlement to the occupational superannuation benefit prescribed by clause 5.8.
 - (ii) In the event that an eligible employee fails to complete, sign and return such application form/s within the specified period of 14 days, be under no obligation to make any occupational superannuation contributions in respect of such eligible employee excepting as from any subsequent date from which completed and signed application form/s is received by the employer.
 - (iii) In the event that an eligible employee fails to return a completed and signed application form/s within a period of 6 months from the date of the original request by the employer, again advise that eligible employee in writing of the entitlement and that the receipt by the employer of a completed and signed application form/s is a pre-requisite to the payment of any occupational superannuation contributions.
 - (iv) At the same time as advising the eligible employee pursuant to clause 5.8.7(c)(iii) submit both to the Chief Industrial Inspector, Brisbane and to the Union a copy of each letter forwarded by the employer to the eligible employee pursuant to clauses 5.8.7(c)(i) and 5.8.7(c)(iii).
- (d) Where an employer fails to provide an eligible employee with an application form/s in accordance with clause 5.8.7(a)(iii) the employer shall be obliged to make contributions as from the date the employee became an eligible employee provided that the eligible employee completes, signs and returns to the employer an application form/s within 28 days of being provided with the application form/s by the employer. Where the eligible employee fails to complete, sign and return an application form/s within such period of 28 days the provisions of clause 5.8.7(c) shall apply.

5.8.8 Unpaid contributions

Subject to Chapter 11, Part 2, Division 5 of the Act and to clause 5.8.5, where the discretion of the Commission has been exercised, should it be established that the employer has failed to comply with the requirements of clause 5.8.2 in respect of any eligible employee such employer shall be liable to make the appropriate contributions retrospectively to the date of eligibility of the employee, plus an amount equivalent to the rate of return those contributions would have attracted in the relevant approved fund, or as necessary a fund to be determined by the Commission under clause 5.8.4, had they been paid on the due dates.

The making of such contributions satisfies the requirements of clause 5.8 excepting that resort to clause 5.8.8 shall not limit any common law action which may be available in relation to death, disablement or any similar cover existing within the terms of a relevant fund.

5.8.9 Exemptions

- (a) An employer may apply to the Commission for exemption from all or any of the provisions of clause 5.8 in the following circumstances:
 - (i) Incapacity to pay the costs associated with its implementation; or
 - (ii) Any special or compelling circumstances peculiar to the business of the employer.

PART 6 - HOURS OF WORK, BREAKS, OVERTIME, SHIFT WORK, WEEKEND WORK

6.1 Hours of work

- 6.1.1 Ordinary time may be worked over 24 hours a day, 7 days per week, with no employee being required to average more than 38 ordinary hours per week over a 28 day work cycle involving no more than 20 ordinary working days by each employee.
- 6.1.2 Ordinary hours of work per day shall not exceed 8 hours except where the employer and the employee mutually agree, the employee may work up to 10 ordinary hours per day.
- 6.1.3 Shift work shall be worked according to a roster which may involve multiple overlapping shifts per day over 7 days per week, or as otherwise mutually agreed between the employer and the employees involved:

Provided that such roster shall provide for at least a 10 hour break between shifts or at least an 8 hour break when there is a change over of shifts rosters:

Provided further that the requirements for such breaks between shifts shall not apply where shifts are interchanged or arranged between employees themselves.

The parties recognise the right of the Union to discuss any problems that may arise as a result of the implementation of locally agreed rosters.

6.1.4 Day in lieu:

Where a public holiday falls on a Monday to Friday inclusive on a day which a full-time weekly employee is rostered off (and the employee is not required to work on such day) the employee shall receive one extra paid day (not being annual leave) to be taken in conjunction with annual leave.

6.2 Implementation of 38 hour week

- 6.2.1 The 38 hour week shall be implemented on one of the following bases, most suitable to the particular employer, after consultation with, and giving reasonable consideration to the wishes of the employees concerned:
 - (a) by employees working less than 8 ordinary hours each day; or
 - (b) by employees working less than 8 ordinary hours on one or more days each work cycle; or
 - (c) by fixing one or more work days on which all employees will be off during a particular work cycle; or
 - (d) by rostering employees off on various days of the week during a particular work cycle, so that each employee has one work day off during that cycle.

- 6.2.2 Subject to clause 6.1.2, employees may agree that the ordinary hours of work are to exceed 8 on any day, thus enabling more than one work day to be taken off during a particular work cycle.
- 6.2.3 Notwithstanding clause 6.2, where the arrangement of ordinary hours of work provides for a rostered day off, the employer and the employee or the majority of employees involved, may agree to accrue up to a maximum of 10 rostered days off. Where such agreement has been reached, the accrued rostered days off shall be taken within 12 calendar months of the date on which each rostered day off was accrued. Consent to accrue rostered days off shall not be unreasonably withheld by either party.
- 6.2.4 When the ordinary work cycle provides for a rostered day off, the rostered day off shall not fall on a public holiday, but shall be on the ordinary working day immediately before or immediately after the public holiday, or deferred in accordance with clause 6.2.3.
- 6.2.5 Different methods of implementation of the 38 hour week may apply to individual employees, groups or sections of employees in the organisation concerned.

6.3 38 hour week - procedures for enterprise level discussions

- 6.3.1 The employer and all employees concerned in each enterprise shall consult over the most appropriate means of implementing and working a 38 hour week.
- 6.3.2 The objective of such consultation shall be to reach agreement on the method of implementing and working the 38 hour week in accordance with clause 6.2.
- 6.3.3 The outcome of such consultation shall be recorded in writing.
- 6.3.4 In cases where agreement cannot be reached as a result of consultation between the parties, either party may request the assistance or advice of their relevant employee or employer organisation.
- 6.3.5 Notwithstanding the consultative procedures outlined above, and notwithstanding any lack of agreement by employees, the employer shall have the right to make the final determination as to the method by which the 38 hour week is implemented or worked from time to time.
- 6.3.6 After implementation of the 38 hour week, upon giving 7 days' notice or such shorter period as may be mutually agreed upon, the method of working the 38 hour week may be altered, from time to time, following negotiations between the employer and employees concerned, using the provisions of clause 6.3, including clause 6.3.5.

6.4 Method of payment for ordinary hours of work and on termination

- 6.4.1 Ordinary hours for all employees (excluding part-time employees and casuals), shall be paid on the basis of not more than 38 hours per week on an averaged basis according to the work cycle, notwithstanding that in excess of 38 ordinary hours may be worked to maximise leisure time off in accordance with clauses 6.1.1, 6.1.2 and 6.2.3:

Provided that in enterprises where clerical work is incidental to the main business of the employer and the majority of employees in the main business of the employer are paid on an actual hours of work per week basis, then clerical employees may be paid on the same basis as applies to the majority of the employer's employees.

- 6.4.2 Accrued rostered time off not taken at the time of termination or dismissal shall be paid out at ordinary rates of pay.

6.5 Meal breaks and rest pauses - ordinary time

- 6.5.1 (a) Unless otherwise mutually agreed to between the employer and employee, all employees required to work in excess of 6 hours per day shall be provided with an unpaid meal break of 30 minutes duration to commence no later than the end of the 5th hour of work, at a time mutually agreed upon between the employer and the employee, taking into account whenever practicable the shift involved and employees preferred time for meals and the need to maintain continuity of work where continuity is necessary.
- (b) Where practicable, all employees required to work at least 7.6 hours per day shall be entitled to a rest pause of 10 minutes' duration in the first and second half of the day's work, and employees required to work in excess of 4 hours but less than 7.6 hours per day shall be allowed one such rest pause.

By mutual agreement between the employer and the employee each such 10 minute rest pause may be converted into two 7 minute rest pauses to increase the number of rest pauses available where practicable. This may be particularly relevant where there is agreement between the parties for the employee to work between 8 and 10 ordinary hours per day, or where the employee is a smoker. The parties recognise that in an environment where the work load can fluctuate dramatically, that there is a requirement for a commonsense approach between the employer and the employees to the manner in which rest pauses are taken to meet both the employer's and the employee's needs for peak efficiency. Such paid rest pauses shall be taken at such times which do not interfere with continuity of work where continuity is necessary, without loss of ordinary time earnings.

6.6 Meal breaks and meals and a break from work where overtime is involved

6.6.1 Where employees are required to continue work after their ordinary ceasing time, such ordinary time and overtime shall be combined to determine eligibility for a second meal break, as follows:

- (a) Where the combination of ordinary time (including paid rest pauses) and overtime does not exceed 10 working hours per day all such time shall be treated as ordinary time for the purposes of clause 6.6 only, and employees in such cases shall qualify for only one unpaid meal break as per clause 6.5.
- (b) Where the time worked continuously is to exceed 10 hours (excluding the unpaid meal break) then the employee shall be entitled to a paid 20 minute meal break after such 10 hours work, and a further paid 20 minute break after each subsequent period of 3 hours work:

Provided that no employee shall be compelled to work for longer than 14 hours continuously including meal breaks and rest pauses.

- (c) Where the employee agrees to the employer's request to remain at work longer than 14 hours continuously (including meal breaks and rest pauses) the employee shall be entitled to take a 10 hour break after the completion of such overtime without any loss of ordinary time earnings.

Where the employer instructs the employee to commence ordinary time work after such overtime without the employee having had such a 10 hour break, all such work shall be paid for at double time until such 10 hour break is provided.

The provisions of clause 6.6.1(c) shall apply in the case of shift workers who rotate from one shift to another as if 8 hours were substituted for 10 hours when over time is worked:

- (i) For the purposes of changing shift rosters; or
 - (ii) Where a shift worker does not report for duty; or
 - (iii) Where a shift is worked by arrangement between the employees themselves.
- (d) Employees shall be provided by the employer with a reasonable meal during each 20 minute overtime meal break or be paid a meal allowance of $9.60 in lieu thereof.

6.7 Overtime

6.7.1 All overtime worked by shift workers shall be paid for at double the employees' ordinary time classified rate.

6.7.2 All overtime by employees other than shift workers shall be at the rate of time and a half for the first 3 hours, Monday to Saturday inclusive, with double time thereafter.

6.7.3 All overtime on Sundays shall be at the rate of double time for all employees with a minimum of 2 hours' work or payment therefore.

6.7.4 (a) An employee who is rostered each week may elect, with the consent of the employer, to take time off in lieu of payment for overtime at a time agreed to with the employer, including for purposes such as family leave. Overtime taken as time off during ordinary time hours in this manner shall be taken at the ordinary time rate, that is an hour for each hour worked.

- (b) Any such arrangement in accordance with clause 6.7.4 (a) shall be recorded in writing and signed by the employee and kept as part of the employer's record. The employer's records must show all banked leave credited to the employee in this manner and any remaining credits on termination must be paid out to the employee

6.7.5 No employee shall work overtime unless instructed to do so by their employer and the payment for any overtime worked shall be adjusted and made at the next ensuing day of payment of such employee.

6.7.6 All time worked during the mutually agreed meal times, or during the meal times where there is no mutual agreement, shall be paid for at double ordinary rates.

6.7.7 When employees cease work during hours of darkness after working overtime and their usual means of transport are not available, the employer shall pay any reasonable additional amount incurred by that employee in reaching home.

6.8 Shift work

- 6.8.1 All ordinary time worked by employees outside of the hours of 6:30 am to 6:30 pm on any days between midnight Sunday and midnight Friday shall attract a loading of 15% of the employee's classified award rate.
- 6.8.2 All ordinary time worked by employees between midnight Friday and midnight Saturday shall attract a loading of 25% of the employee's classified Award rate.
- 6.8.3 All ordinary time worked by employees between midnight Saturday and midnight Sunday shall attract a loading of 50% of the employee's classified award rate.
- 6.8.4 Notwithstanding clause 1.4 and sub clauses 6.8.1, 6.8.2 and 6.8.3 above, the memorandum of agreement made pursuant to clause 6.8 of the Clerical Employees Award - State 2002, between the Taxi Council (on behalf of a number of non-metropolitan taxi companies), AMACSU and the FCU, effective from 1 July 1997, will continue to apply until it is revoked by either the Taxi Council or the Union parties. Either party must give at least one month's notice of any such revocation. In addition, the 15% loading currently paid on all time worked under that agreement will be increased to 16%, or 21% when the shift is broken as and from the date of operation of this award, namely, 30 July 2004.

PART 7 - LEAVE OF ABSENCE AND PUBLIC HOLIDAYS

7.1 Annual leave

- 7.1.1 Every employee (other than a casual employee) covered by this Award, shall at the end of each year of such employee's employment, be entitled to annual leave on full pay as set out hereunder.
- (a) for non-continuous shift workers and day workers, 152 hours per annum (i.e. 4 weeks' annual leave per annum on a 38 hour week basis).
 - (b) for continuous shift workers, 190 hours per annum (i.e. 5 weeks' annual leave per annum on a 38 hour week basis).
- 7.1.2 Such annual leave shall be exclusive of any public holiday which may occur during the period of that annual leave and (subject to clause 7.1.6), shall be paid for by the employer in advance;
- (a) In the case of any and every employee in receipt immediately prior to that leave of ordinary pay at a rate in excess of the ordinary rate payable under this Award at the excess rate; and
 - (b) In every other case at the ordinary rate payable to the employee concerned immediately prior to that leave
- 7.1.3 Rostered day off arising from the implementation of the 38 hour week

An employee shall not derive any additional benefit for rostered days off falling within a period of annual leave;

- 7.1.4 If the employment of any employee is terminated at the expiration of a full year of employment and without such leave having been taken, the employer shall be deemed to have given the annual leave to the employee from the date of the termination of the employment and shall forthwith pay to the employee in addition to all other amounts due, pay calculated in accordance with clause 7.1.6, for 4 or 5 weeks as the case may be and also ordinary pay for any public holiday occurring during such period of 4 or 5 weeks.
- 7.1.5 If the employment of any employee is terminated before the expiration of a full year of employment, such employee shall be paid, in addition to all other amounts due, an amount equal to 1/12th of ordinary pay for the period of employment if an employee to whom clause 7.1.1(a) applies, and 1/9th of ordinary pay for the period of employment if an employee to whom clause 7.1.1(b) applies, calculated in accordance with clause 7.1.6.
- 7.1.6 Calculation of annual leave pay

In respect to annual leave entitlements to which clause 7.1 applies, annual leave pay (including any proportionate payments), shall be calculated as follows:

- (a) Shift workers - Subject to clause 7.1.6(c), the rate of wages to be paid to a shift worker shall be the rate payable for work in ordinary time according to the employee's roster or projected roster, including Saturday, Sunday or holiday shifts.
- (b) Leading hands etc. - Subject to clause 7.1.6(c), leading hand allowances and amounts of a like nature otherwise payable for ordinary time worked shall be included in the wages to be paid to employees during annual leave.

(c) All employees - Subject to clause 7.1.6(d), in no case shall the payment by an employer to an employee be less than the sum of the following amounts:

- (i) the employee's ordinary wage rate as described by this Award for the period of the annual leave (excluding shift premiums and weekend penalty rates);
- (ii) leading hand allowance or amounts of a like nature;
- (iii) a further amount calculated at the rate of 17 1/2% of the amounts referred to in clauses 7.1.6(c)(i) and 7.1.6(c)(ii).

(d) Clause 7.1.6(c) shall not apply to the following:

- (i) any period or periods of annual leave exceeding:
 - 5 weeks in the case of employees employed in a calling where 3 shifts per day are worked over a period of 7 days per week; or
 - 4 weeks in any other case.
- (ii) employers (and their employees) who are already paying (or receiving) an annual leave bonus, loading or other annual leave payment which is not less favourable to employees.

7.1.7 Every employee shall be given at least 4 weeks' notice by the employer of the commencement of annual leave:

Provided that less than 4 weeks' notice of the commencement of annual leave may be given by agreement between the employer and the employee.

7.1.8 Where employees are engaged in an industry covered by this Award and the award covering such industry makes provision for an annual leave closedown, such closedown shall apply to employees covered by this Award, in accordance with the provisions of the relevant award.

7.2 Sick leave

7.2.1 Entitlement

(a) Every employee, except casuals and school-based apprentices and trainees, is entitled to 60.8 hours' sick leave for each completed year of their employment with their employer:

Provided that part-time employees accrue sick leave on a proportional basis.

(b) This entitlement will accrue at the rate of 7.6 hours' sick leave after each 6 weeks of employment.

(c) Payment for sick leave will be made based on the ordinary number of hours that would have been worked by the employee if the employee were not absent on sick leave.

(d) Sick leave may be taken for part of a day.

(e) Sick leave shall be cumulative, but unless the employer and employee otherwise agree, no employee shall be entitled to receive, and no employer shall be bound to make, payment for more than 13 weeks' absence from work through illness in any one year.

7.2.2 Employee must give notice

The payment of sick leave is subject to the employee promptly advising the employer of the employee's absence and its expected duration.

7.2.3 Evidence supporting a claim

When the employee's absence is for more than 2 days the employee is required to give the employer a doctor's certificate, or other reasonably acceptable evidence, about the nature and approximate duration of the illness.

7.2.4 Accumulated sick leave

An employee's accumulated sick leave entitlements are preserved when:

- (a) the employee is absent from work on unpaid leave granted by the employer;
- (b) the employer or employee terminates the employee's employment and the employee is re-employed within 3 months;
- (c) the employee's employment is terminated because of illness or injury and the employee is re-employed by the same employer without having been employed in the interim.

The employee accumulates sick leave entitlements while absent from work on paid leave granted by the employer.

7.2.5 Workers' compensation.

Where an employee is in receipt of workers' compensation, the employee is not entitled to payment of sick leave.

7.2.6 Procedure to curtail abuses

- (a) Sick leave is unlike annual or long service leave in that it is conditional upon an employee being ill or injured to the point of being unfit for duty, or in accordance with the Family Leave Award, to care for sick members of the family where the employee is the principal care provider.
- (b) The parties therefore endorse the following procedure, which is designed to curtail sick leave abuse by employees:
 - (i) at the end of each three monthly period or such other period as presently applies, the employer may review the sick leave records with a view to establishing a list of employees whose record attendance give cause for reasonable concern.
 - (ii) any employee with an unsatisfactory record may be interviewed by the employer in the presence of the Union representative if the employee requests. If the discussion in respect to the absences does not provide satisfactory reasons for the absences, then a letter of warning is to be sent to the employee.
 - (iii) if no improvement is observed in the next period, the employee may again be interviewed (as in clause 7.2.6(b)(ii)), and if the interview results in unsatisfactory reason being given, a second letter of warning may be sent to the employee, also indicating that proof of illness of a certificate may be required for any absence.
 - (iv) if the above action still results in unsatisfactory attendance at work, then a final warning may be given and if this is disregarded, good grounds will have been established for termination of employment.
 - (v) the above procedure does not operate to withdraw the employer's right to take termination action or other disciplinary action against the employee if that employee has been found guilty of filling out false sick leave application forms and claiming sick leave pay when that person was not genuinely on sick leave. This is a matter relating to fraudulent misrepresentation which may justify instant dismissal.

7.3 Long service leave

All employees covered by this Award are entitled to long service leave on full pay under, subject to, and in accordance with, the provisions of Chapter 2, Part 3, sections 42-58 of the Act as amended from time to time.

7.4 Family leave

The provisions of the Family Leave Award apply to and are deemed to form part of this Award.

7.4.1 It is to be noted that:

- (a) part-time work can be performed by agreement in the circumstances specified in the Family Leave Award;
- (b) a copy of the Family Leave Award is required to be displayed in accordance with section 697 of the Act.

7.4.2 The Family Leave Award also provides for the terms and conditions of leave associated with:

- (a) Maternity leave
- (b) Parental leave
- (c) Adoption leave

(d) Special responsibility leave for the care and support of the employee's immediate family or household.

7.5 Bereavement leave

7.5.1 Full-time and part-time employees

Full-time and part-time employees shall, on the death of a member of their immediate family or household in Australia, be entitled to paid bereavement leave up to and including the day of the funeral of such person. Such leave shall be without deduction of pay for a period not exceeding the number of hours worked by the employee in 2 ordinary days of work. Proof of such death is to be furnished by the employee to the satisfaction of the employer.

7.5.2 Long-term casual employees

- (a) A long-term casual employee is entitled to at least 2 days unpaid bereavement leave on the death of a member of the person's immediate family or household in Australia.
- (b) A "long-term casual employee" is a casual employee engaged by a particular employer, on a regular and systematic basis, for several periods of employment during a period of at least 1 year immediately before the employee seeks to access an entitlement under clause 7.5.2.

7.5.3 "Immediate family" includes:

- (a) A spouse (including a former spouse, a de facto spouse and a former de facto spouse, spouse of the same sex) of the employee; and
- (b) A child or an adult child (including an adopted child, a foster child, an ex-foster child, a stepchild or an ex-nuptial child), parent, grandparent, grandchild or sibling of the employee or spouse of the employee.

7.5.4 Unpaid leave

An employee with the consent of the employer, may apply for unpaid leave when a member of the employee's immediate family or household in Australia dies and the period of bereavement leave entitlement provided above is insufficient.

7.6 Public holidays

7.6.1 Subject to clause 7.6.7 all work done by any employee on:

- the 1st January;
- the 26th January;
- Good Friday;
- Easter Saturday (the day after Good Friday);
- Easter Monday;
- the 25th April (Anzac Day);
- Christmas Day;
- Boxing Day; or
- any day appointed under the Holidays Act 1983, to be kept in place of any such holiday will be paid for at the rate of double time and a-half with a minimum of 4 hours.

7.6.2 Labour Day

All employees covered by this Award are entitled to be paid a full day's wage for Labour Day (the first Monday in May or other day appointed under the Holidays Act 1983, to be kept in place of that holiday) irrespective of the fact that no work may be performed on such day, and if any employee concerned actually works on Labour Day, such employee shall be paid a full day's wage for that day and in addition, a payment for the time actually worked by the employee at one and a-half times the ordinary time rate of pay prescribed for such work with a minimum of 4 hours.

7.6.3 Annual show

All work done by employees in a district specified from time to time by the Minister by notification published in the Industrial Gazette on the day appointed under the Holidays Act 1983, to be kept as a holiday in relation to the annual agricultural, horticultural or industrial show held at the principal city or town, as specified in such notification of such district will be paid for at the rate of double time and a-half with a minimum of 4 hours.

In a district in which a holiday is not appointed for an annual agricultural, horticultural or industrial show, the employee and employer must agree on an ordinary working day that is to be treated as a show holiday for all purposes.

7.6.4 Double time and a-half

For the purposes of clause 7.6, where the rate of wages is a weekly rate, "double time and a-half" means one and a-half day's wages in addition to the prescribed weekly rate, or pro rata if there is more or less than a day.

7.6.5 Stand down

Any employee, with two weeks or more of continuous service, whose employment has been terminated by the employer or who has been stood down by the employer during the month of December, and who is re-employed in January of the following year, shall be entitled to payment at the ordinary rate payable to that employee when they were dismissed or stood down, for any one or more of the following holidays, namely, Christmas Day, Boxing Day and New Year's Day.

7.6.6 Notice of requirement to work

If it is required that any employee shall work on any of the holidays provided in clause 7.6, the employer shall give not less than one clear day's notice of such requirements to the employee.

7.6.7 Substitution

Where there is agreement between the majority of employees in the enterprise or section or sections involved, and the employer, and subject to statutory limitations, other ordinary working days may be substituted for the public holidays specified in clause 7.6:

Provided that, where an employee is subsequently required to work on such substituted day, the employee shall be paid the rate applicable for the holiday that has been substituted.

7.7 Jury service

An employee, other than a casual employee, required to attend for jury service during their ordinary working hours shall be reimbursed by the employer an amount equal to the difference between the amount paid in respect of their attendance for such jury service and the ordinary pay the employee would have been paid if the employee was not absent on jury service.

Alternatively, by agreement, fees (other than meal allowance) received by the employee to attend jury service will be paid to the employer and the employer will continue to pay the employee their ordinary pay for the time the employee was absent on jury service.

Employees shall notify their employer as soon as practicable of the date upon which they are required to attend for jury service and shall provide their employer with proof of such attendance, the duration of such attendance and the amount received in respect thereof.

If the employee is not required to serve on a jury for a day or part of a day after attending for jury service and the employee would ordinarily be working for all or part of the remaining day, the employee must, if practicable, present for work at the earliest reasonable opportunity.

"Ordinary pay" means the rate of pay that an employee would normally expect to receive for working ordinary hours on an ordinary day of the week, including any over-award payment. "Ordinary pay" excludes overtime, penalty rates of all types - including those attaching to working ordinary hours (for example) on a Saturday, disability allowances, shift allowances, special rates, fares and travelling time allowances, bonuses and other ancillary payments of a like nature.

PART 8 - TRANSFERS, TRAVELLING AND WORKING AWAY FROM USUAL PLACE OF WORK

8.1 Travelling, transport and fares

- (iii) on passenger aircraft - economy class.
- (d) Employees required within ordinary working hours, to travel in excess of 3.2 kms. From the location where they are usually employed, shall be allowed reasonable return fares.
- (e) Employees required, in the course of the employee's work, to remain away from home overnight, shall be reimbursed by the employer for all reasonable expenses actually incurred in obtaining board and accommodation.

8.1.2 Provision of transport

- (a) When an employee covered by this Award ceases work during hours of darkness after an afternoon or night shift and the employee's usual means of transport is not readily available, the employer shall provide transports for the employee either to the employee's home or lodgings, or to a public transport point acceptable to the employees.
- (b) When an employee covered by this Award is required to work overtime before the commencement of their normal shift during hours of darkness, and the employee's usual means of transport is not readily available, the employer shall provide the employee with transport to work if no alternative public transport acceptable to the employee is available.
- (c) When an employee covered by this Award is required to work overtime after their normal rostered shift and such overtime ceases during hours of darkness when the employee's usual means of transport home is not readily available the employer shall provide the employee either with transport home, or to the nearest alternative public transport facility acceptable to the employee.
- (d) The parties recognise that the overriding considerations of 8.1.2 clause are the safety of the shift workers travelling to and from work during hours of darkness, and the employer acknowledges the Union's right to raise these issues for discussion at any time.

PART 9 - TRAINING AND RELATED MATTERS

9.1 Training program

9.1.1 Training and retraining

- (a) Where an employee undertakes a course of training/retraining at the request of the employer, such training shall not result in the loss of any ordinary time earnings by the employee and shall wherever possible be conducted in the employer's time.
