[For example, an employee employed for 24 hours per week who resigns after 7 months service qualifies for additional leave if at least 6 of each type of shift has been worked (10 x 24/38).]

- (h) Subject to the requirements as to minimum qualifying shifts (where appropriate) prescribed by clause 7.1.1 (a), if the employment of an employee is terminated before the expiration of a full year of employment such employee shall be paid in addition to all other amounts due monetary pro rata equivalent of the employee's annual leave entitlement prescribed clause 7.1.1 (a).

- (i) by mutual agreement between the employer and employee annual holidays may be taken in one or more parts provided that 38 hours of the entitlement shall be available in single day periods and the remaining entitlement shall be available in periods of not less than 38 hours.
- (ii) the 38 hours that may be taken in single day periods entitlement referred to in clause 7.1.1 above are deemed to be the week for which annual leave loading is not payable pursuant to clause 7.1.1(e)(iii) and accordingly single day absences shall not attract annual leave loading.

7.1.2 Calculation of annual leave pay

In respect to annual leave entitlements to which clause 7.1 applies, annual holiday pay (including any proportionate payments) shall be calculated as follows:

- (a) Shift workers - Subject to clause 7.1.2(b) the rate of wage to be paid to a shift worker shall be the rate payable for work in ordinary time according to the employee's roster or projected roster, including Saturday, Sunday or holiday shifts.
- (b) All employees - Subject to the provisions of clause 7.1.2 (c), in no case shall the payment by an employer to an employee be less than the sum of the following amounts:

- (c) The provisions of clause 7.1.2(b) shall not apply to the following:
 - (i) Any period or periods of annual leave exceeding -
 - 190 hours of leave in the case of continuous shift work; or
 - 152 hours of leave in any other case.
 - (ii) Employers (and their employees) who are already paying (or receiving) an annual leave bonus, loading or other annual leave payment which is not less favourable to employees.

7.1.3 If any of the annual leave referred to in clause 7.1 has not been taken as it falls due from time to time, such annual leave, by mutual arrangement, may be accumulated for a period not exceeding 2 years. All leave is to be paid for in advance or at another time by mutual agreement. Annual leave shall be taken to suit the administration of the hospital but in exercising its discretion the administration will give reasonable consideration to the preference of employees.

7.1.4 Accumulated day off arising from the implementation of the 38 hour week

Whilst on annual leave an employee continues to accrue time for the purposes of an ADO as if the employee had been at work. Such accrued time may be taken as additional time in conjunction with the annual leave or be accumulated.

7.2 Sick leave

7.2.1 Entitlement

- (a) Every full-time employee shall become entitled to not less than 76 hours' sick leave for each completed year of employment with an employer.

Moreover, in respect to any completed period of employment of less than one year with an employer, an employee shall become entitled to 7.6 hours' sick leave for each one month and 6 days of such period.

- (b) Where a part-time employee has accumulated an entitlement to sick leave, payment for sick leave shall be based upon the number of hours that the employee would otherwise have worked on that day or days when such leave is taken.

7.2.2 Evidence supporting a claim

- (a) Every employee absent from work through illness on the production of a certificate from a duly qualified medical practitioner specifying the period or approximate period during which the employee will be unable to work, or of other evidence of illness to the satisfaction of the employer at any time (e.g. duly completed statutory declaration), shall, subject as herein provided, be entitled to payment in full for all time the employee is so absent from work:

Provided that it shall not be necessary for an employee to produce such a doctor's certificate if the absence from work on account of illness does not exceed 2 days.

7.2.3 Accumulative sick leave

Sick leave shall be cumulative, but unless the employer and the employee otherwise agree, no employee shall be entitled to receive, and no employer shall be bound to make, payment for more than 13 weeks' absence from work in any one year.

7.2.4 Continuity of service

- (a) The continuity of employment of an employee with an employer for sick leave accumulation purposes shall be deemed to be not broken by any of the following:
 - (i) Absence from work on leave granted by the employer;
 - (ii) The employee having been dismissed or stood down by the employer, or the employee having terminated employment with the employer, for any period not exceeding 3 months.

Provided that employee shall have been re-employed by the employer.

7.2.5 Procedure for monitoring sick leave usage

- (a) The parties to this Award recognise that absenteeism can create significant difficulties for employers and employees at a workplace. As a consequence the parties will collaborate on reducing its incidence and agree to a range of initiatives to examine trends and causes.
- (b) A hospital may develop a consultative process for the monitoring of sick leave usage across the hospital.
- (c) An employer may:
 - (i) monitor sick leave usage at a hospital, ward or other discrete section of the hospital; and
 - (ii) introduce human resources procedures for individual employees' counselling where required.
- (d) With any process established to monitor sick leave usage confidentiality of individuals will be of utmost importance and principles of natural justice will apply.
- (e) The above procedure does not operate to withdraw the employer's right to take termination procedures or other disciplinary action against any employee if that employee has been guilty of submitting a false sick leave application form. Similarly, this procedure does not limit the Union's or the employee's right to make a reinstatement application where the employee is dismissed for alleged unsatisfactory attendance.

7.3 Long service leave

- 7.3.1 (a) All employees covered by this Award are entitled to long service leave on full pay under, subject to, and in accordance with, the provisions of Chapter 2, Part 3, sections 42-58 of the Act as amended from time to time.
- (b) Employees are entitled to the enhanced entitlements for long service leave as detailed below.

7.3.2 Introduction

Upon completion of 10 years of continuous service with the one employer, employees shall be entitled to 13 weeks' long service leave with pay.

Subject to the foregoing the eligibility for long service leave shall be determined in accordance with clause 7.3.

Any leave taken and paid under clause 7.3 shall be deducted from the entitlement that would otherwise have accrued under the Act.

7.3.3 Entitlement

- (a) For all continuous service after 2 January 1996 an employee who completes 10 years' continuous service shall be entitled to long service leave at the rate of 1.3 weeks on full salary for each year of continuous service and a proportionate amount for an incomplete year of service.
- (b) For service prior to the 2nd January 1996, long service leave entitlement shall be as prescribed by the Industrial Relations Act 1999 as at 2 January 1996 except that an employee shall be entitled to take such leave after 10 years of service as hereafter provided.
- (c) Entitlement to enhanced long service leave benefit for service in excess of 15 years with the one employer shall be in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

7.3.4 Conditions

The following provisions shall apply in respect of long service leave:

- (a) An application for leave shall be made in writing, in a form determined by the local hospital management.
- (b) Timely notice of the desire for leave shall be given by the employee. The employee shall be given timely advice of whether or not leave is approved. In the event of any disagreement the employer may require an employee to take a period of long service leave by giving 3 months' notice of the request to take long service leave.
- (c) Leave may be taken up to the total amount of leave due as at the date of commencement of the leave, calculated by:
 - (i) determining the total period of the employee's continuous service having regard to the provisions of these regulations in respect of leave credited for service;
 - (ii) determining the total long service leave entitlement appropriate to that period of continuous service;
 - (iii) deducting from the total entitlement, long service leave previously taken.
- (d) The minimum period of long service leave which may be taken at any one time shall be 2 weeks.

 - (i) Upon retrenchment - 1 year
 - (ii) Upon ill health retirement - 5 years.
 - (iii) Upon retirement within 10 years of attaining age 65 - 5 years
 - (iv) Upon death - 5 years
- (b) Where an employee dies, the amount which would have been payable to that employee had that employee retired or been dismissed on the date on which the employee actually died shall be paid to the employee's dependants (if any) or, if there be no dependant, to the employee's personal representative.

7.3.6 Payment in lieu of long service leave not taken

- (a) A person who ceases to be an employee and who at the date of ceasing to be an employee has an entitlement to long service leave shall receive a payment in lieu of long service leave not taken.

The calculation of the amount of the payment shall be based on:

- (i) that entitlement; and
- (ii) the rate of ordinary salary which the person was receiving at the date of ceasing to be an employee.

7.3.7 Casual Employees

Prior to 23 June 1990, casuals, as a general rule, were not entitled to accrued Long Service Leave. As from 23 June 1990, the Industrial Relations Act 1990 came into force and casual employees were granted an entitlement to long service leave.

Put simply this means casual employee entitlements are as follows:

DATE	ENTITLEMENT
Prior to 23.6.90	No entitlement - Service does not count.

23.6.90 - 30.3.94 Service counts provided at least 32 hours are worked every 4 weeks.

From 30.3.94 onwards Service counts provided there is no break between casual engagements of more than 3 months

7.3.8 Entitlement for part-time employees

- (a) A part-time employee accrues long service leave on a proportionate basis of the entitlement for a full-time employee.
- (b) In determining the length of absence of a part-time employee on long service leave, employees should apply for the number of ordinary hours they would have been at work for the required period. The debit against the balance of accrued leave is to be the actual number of hours absent from duty as described. This principle also applies in the case of employees who have accrued their leave entitlements by working a combination of full time and part-time employment.

7.3.9 Long service leave on half pay

- (a) All employees shall be entitled to apply for long service leave on half pay upon completion of 10 years' continuous service. Clause 7.3.9 provides for the employee to extend the period of leave to twice the period that may be taken with full pay. The wages shall be apportioned over the period of leave at the rate of half pay.
- (b) The same entitlements and conditions that apply to long service leave on full pay shall apply to clause 7.3.9 and the Act.
- (c) Long service leave shall be exclusive of any public holiday that falls during the leave period. An employee shall receive payment of their usual hours at the ordinary hours rate for those public holidays that occur during the leave period.
- (d) Annual, sick and long service leave shall accrue on a pro-rata basis for employees who access this provision.
- (e) Recognition of service shall accrue on a pro-rata basis for employees who access this provision.
- (f) Recognition of service for the purposes of wage increments shall be calculated on a pro-rata basis.
- (g) The employee who applies for long service leave on half pay will be responsible for seeking financial advice in respect of any affect such leave may have on taxation and superannuation contributions.
- (h) The employer will include a reference to the benefits of seeking financial advice on the hospital's application form.

1.1 Where an employer has introduced appropriate skills-based assessment structures, progression within levels may be dependent upon the employee successfully acquiring skills as set out in the skills-based assessment structures.

Any disputes arising from clause 1.2 shall be dealt with in accordance with the Grievance and Dispute Settlement Procedure in this Award.
